13TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

To Find Our Lives: Scott Hahn Reflects on the 13th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The liturgy this week continues to instruct us in the elements of discipleship. We're told that even the most humble among us have a share in the mission Christ gives to His Church.

We're not all called to the ministry of the Apostles or to be prophets like Elisha in today's First Reading. But each of us is called to a holy life (see 2 Timothy 1:9; 1 Thessalonians 4:3).

At Baptism, our lives were joined forever to the Cross of Christ, as Paul tells us in today's Epistle. Baptized into His death, we're to renounce sin and live for God in Christ Jesus.

We are to follow Him, each of us taking up our personal cross, as Jesus says in today's Gospel. That doesn't mean we will all be asked to suffer a martyr's death. But each of us is called to self-denial, to the offering of our lives in service of God's plan.

Jesus must be elevated to first place in our lives—above even our closest bonds of kinship and love. By Baptism, we've been made part of a new family: the kingdom of God, the Church. We are to proclaim that kingdom with our lives, bringing our fathers, our mothers, and all men and women to live as little ones under the fatherhood of God and the kingship of the Holy One.

We do this by opening our hearts and homes to the service of the Lord, following the Shunnamite woman's example in today's First Reading. As Jesus tells us, we're to receive others—not only prophets but also little children, the poor, and the imprisoned—as we receive Christ Himself (see Matthew 18:5; 25:31–46).

As we sing in today's Psalm, we are to testify to His favors and kindness in our lives.

We're to hold fast to the promise—that if we have died with Christ, we shall also live, that if we lose our lives for His sake, we shall find our reward and walk forever in His countenance.

Holy Angels received a letter from a family that visited our parish and attended the 9:00 a.m. Mass on June 14:

My family was visiting Indy for a wedding last weekend. We were SO blessed to visit your church for 9am Mass. Truly the Lord placed us there. We were met by smiles and kindness at the door - you welcomed a stranger. The entire parish was filled with the Holy Spirit's love. Each person participated in the Mass with joy and conviction. Our hearts were burning and our spirit refreshed and uplifted when we left. Your example reminded all of us to welcome the stranger, and if we truly believe in the Resurrection we are Joyful!

May God continue to bless your congregation and everyone who walks into the church.

Peace & Joy in Christ,
Julie Flaherty

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament will be held Friday, July 3 at 6:00 p.m. Please come and sit in quiet prayer before the sacrament. Can you spend one hour with Him, the Salvation of the world? Allow yourself time with Jesus, and give him an opportunity to speak to you in the silence. You will find such peace!
