Fr. Carl's Thoughts & Reflections

Feast of the Most Holy Trinity, May 30, 2021

On this Trinity Sunday all our readings refer to one aspect of God or another. The Deuteronomy reading emphasizes God the Father's creative power and His saving His people from slavery in Egypt. God is in the heavens above and on earth below and all people must keep His statutes and commandments. St. Paul's Letter to the Romans emphasizes the Spirit of God which makes us children of God and joint heirs with Christ our brother. St. Matthew's Gospel tells of the eleven apostles worshipping Jesus after His resurrection, and His commissioning them to go and make disciples of all nations, by baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Jesus promises to be with us His people until the end of the age. Our God is a loving community of Three Persons in one God!

Thanks to all who contributed to the Camboni Missionary preacher, Fr. David Baltz, and his missionary appeal this past weekend. It's always good for us to hear about the missionary life in other parts of the world, fulfilling what Jesus told us in this week's Gospel: go and preach the Good New to all nations.

We congratulated our Eighth Grade and High School Graduates at Mass this past weekend and invited them and their families to a celebratory breakfast in our cafeteria. Thanks to the Knights of St. John who cooked and served the delicious breakfast. It's good to be able to gather as a parish once again and celebrate the accomplishments of our students.

We offer our sympathy and the promise of our prayers to the family of Norb Kirschner who was buried from Holy Family Church on Monday, May 24, and to the family of Rosemary Galle who was buried from Holy Family Church on Tuesday, May 25. May Norb and Rosemary rest in peace, and may their families and friends be consoled. Thanks to the Bereavement Committee members for the delicious lunches.

Monday, May 31, is Memorial Day, an opportunity for us to remember and pray for our veterans who served our country in the armed forces, and especially for those who made the ultimate sacrifice and died for our country to preserve our freedoms. Our regular daily Mass will be at 9 AM, following a special Memorial Day service in our cemetery at 8 AM.

June 6 is our Corpus Christi Procession and Benedictions after 10 AM Mass.

Have a Blessed & Safe Feast of the Most Holy Trinity & Memorial Day! Fr. Carl

June 2 - 3pm-4:30pm: Contemplative Prayer via Zoom...LIMITED SPACES! Led by: S. Olga Wittekind, OSF Guided by contemplatives like Keating and Rohr, we practice contemplative prayer. We share God's movement in our lives, and reflect on our experiences through this process. Cost: Freewill Donation

June 5 - 9:30am-11:30am: Discovering Our Complexes: The Powerful Energies within Us via ZOOM Led by S. Olga Wittekind & Claire Sherman Complexes are unconscious psychic energies with strong emotional power. They behave like a partial personality operating outside our conscious control. Some examples are a money complex, father/mother complex, inferiority complex, etc. Using Carl Jung's theory, discover your own complexes and how they can be a stimulus for your growth! Cost: $25/$40 CEU's

NEW Co-Vid 19 Guidelines

1. In keeping with new Archdiocesan guidelines, on June 5 & 6 we will begin having 4 Eucharistic Ministers at each weekend Mass to facilitate Communion reception, with 2 ministers on each side, and a double line coming up the center aisle. We will be able to use Consecrated Hosts from the Tabernacle. The Archdiocese still recommends that vulnerable people wear face coverings, especially if they have not received their Covid-19 shots.

2. The latest directives from the Archdiocese indicate that beginning on Fri., June 11, Catholics who are able are once again obliged to attend Sunday Mass, if possible. Face coverings are no longer required, but are still recommended for those able to wear them in church. Communion Ministers are still expected to wear face coverings. Social distancing is no longer required, and church surfaces don't have to be sanitized after every use. The Holy Water fonts are once again able to be used.

3. The St. Anne Adoration Chapel is available on weekends for those who wish to maintain social distancing
