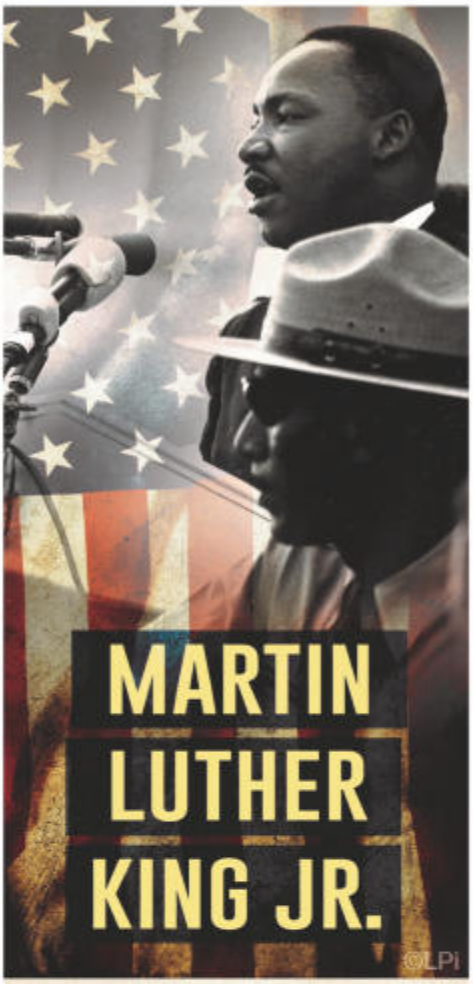
LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

We have often heard it said that God is always calling but we are not always listening. It is not only that we are not listening, but that we are not familiar enough with God to even recognize that it is God who is calling! We can easily mistake God's voice for someone or something else and miss some profound opportunities for connection. We have to train our minds, hearts, and souls to specifically listen for the voice of God. It is a voice that draws us to deeper places, leading us to moments of grace and more profound God awareness. To look at Jesus and be able to say, "Behold, the Lamb of God," means that I know something special about this person whom others know as simply a man. I will become more attentive and receptive when he says, "Come, and you will see." I may even be more willing to set aside what I am doing and actually go.



The time is always right to do what is right.

— DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.

NEW BOOK IN CHAPEL Thirty-One Questions on Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament

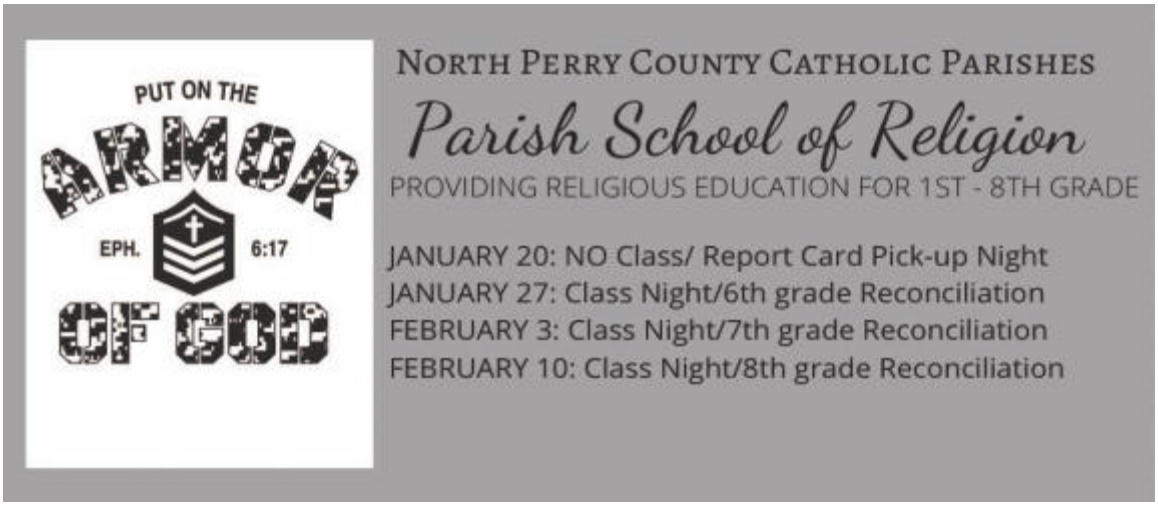
Fratelli Tutti
ON FRATERNITY AND FRIENDSHIP
Encyclical Letter of the Holy Father FRANCIS

50. Together, we can seek the truth in dialogue, in relaxed conversation or in passionate debate. To do so calls for perseverance; it entails moments of silence and suffering, yet it can patiently embrace the broader experience of individuals and peoples. The flood of information at our fingertips does not make for greater wisdom. Wisdom is not born of quick searches on the internet nor is it a mass of unverified data. This is not the way to mature in the encounter with truth. Conversations revolve only around the latest data; they become merely horizontal and cumulative. We fail to keep our attention focused, to penetrate to the heart of matters, and to recognize what is essential to give meaning to our lives. Freedom thus becomes an illusion that we are peddled, easily confused with the ability to navigate the internet. The process of building fraternity, be it local or universal, can only be undertaken by spirits that are free and open to authentic encounters.

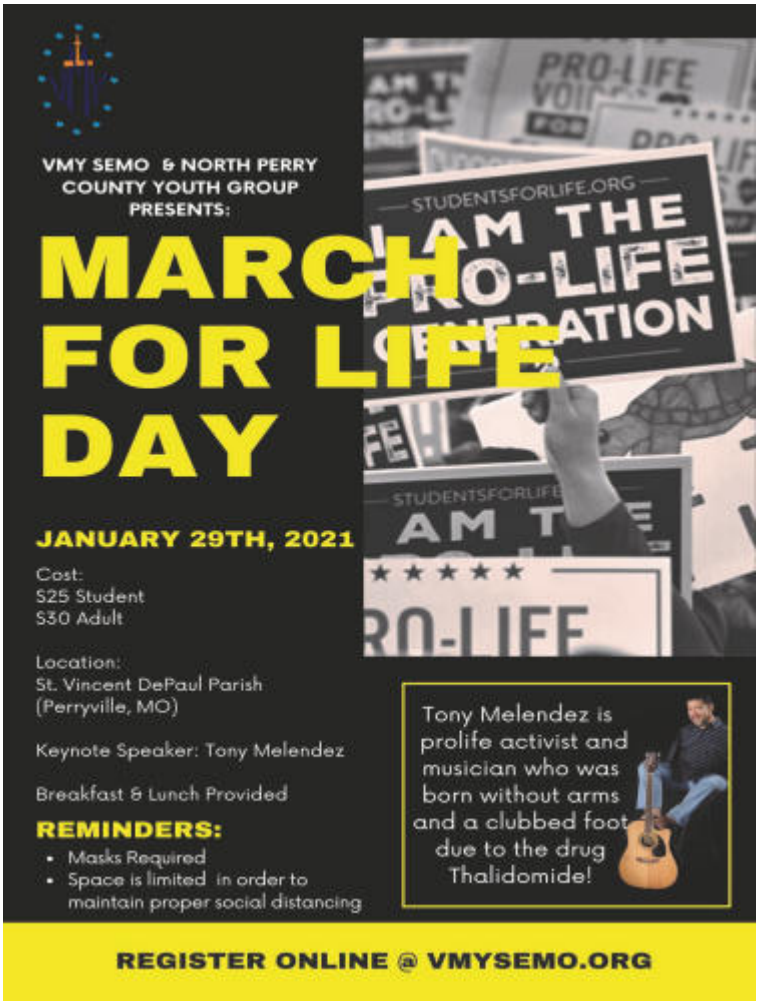


ST. JOSEPH HIGHLAND

THANK YOU to all those individuals who helped clean, decorate, and/or worked shifts for the Country Christmas Tour. Your help was greatly appreciated!
We had a very good turnout for the tour, and the guests were very complimentary.

Jesus turned and saw them following him and said to them, "What are you looking for?" They said to him, "Rabbi"– which translated means Teacher–"where are you staying?" He said to them, "Come, and you will see." – Jn 1:38-39a

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.



The Society of St. Vincent de Paul

Thanks to our many parishioners and friends for your generous support in 2020. We could not do what we do without your help. Like the miracle of the loaves and fishes, just when we see an empty "giving basket" the contents grow and multiply so that we can respond to the many calls for help in our community. Because of your continued support, the Society provided over $150,000 in aid during 2020. How pleasing to our Heavenly Father! Have a blessed and happy 2021 and know that your donations help others do the same.

If you know a Perry County resident in need, please leave a message for the Society at 547-1797...we want to help.

Volunteers and new members are always welcome.

January is Sanctity of Human Life Month

Ministry to the abortion-vulnerable is challenging: it's private and hidden; further, it's been politicized and disconnected from the gospel. If things are going to change, the church must pray and be equipped to lead. The Center for Life is here in Ste. Genevieve and Perry Counties to meet that challenge.

Three ways to promote life in our community with courage, credibility, and love:

Pray for the work of the Center for Life which operates two pregnancy resource centers (Options for Women) in Ste. Genevieve and Perryville.
Volunteer to serve at an Options for Women location.
We need you!
Financially support the work of the Center for Life.
