REGRETS

"In terms of regrets around our loved one who died, if there are things you wish you'd said, know that you can still say them in your heart to your loved one. It's never too late to say, "I'm sorry. Forgive me and I forgive you. I love you and I thank you."

"After that, what else is there to regret?" p. 41 in ON GRIEF & GRIEVING by Elisabeth Kubler-Ross, M.D. & David Kessler

THOUGHTS ON TODAY'S GOSPEL FOR APRIL 25

The Good Shepherd regards all God's children as his sheep, whether they belong to the fold or not. We are children of God, as John wrote in his letter. We share in the power that comes from Jesus, as Peter testified. God calls us each to live our life to serve others, like a good parent, like the Good Shepherd, taking care of others, for all are daughters and sons of the Lord.
How does having the Good Shepherd watching over you reassure you? How can you imitate the Good Shepherd in caring for others? Seasonal Missalette p. 20

RCIA We have one candidate who will join the church on May 23rd. Pray for him and for all whom God may be calling to join the Church.

Music Notes

This weekend is Good Shepherd Sunday. The gospel passage of the Good Shepherd is read during the liturgy. Here at our parishes in North Perry County, we are very familiar with Vince Ambrosetti's arrangement of "The Lord is My Shepherd". This psalm is a universal psalm for trust in God. It is about God as the shepherd and protector, leading us (verse 1) and guiding us (verse 2) and also God as the shepherd and caregiver, giving us quiet, refreshing water. (verse 1) What we know about sheep is if they are not guided by their shepherd with his rod and staff (tools needed), they stray. Very similar to us, when we lose focus on what God is calling us to do, we tend to stray. Let us pray and sing this weekend "The Lord is My Shepherd", asking God to keep watch over us as the Good Shepherd that he is.

SCHOOL BOARD

St. Vincent DePaul Schools has 2 openings on our school board, beginning with the new school year this August. Terms are 3-years, renewable once. If you are interested in serving, please submit your interest to Terry Wibbenmeyer at: Terry.Wibbenmeyer@toyodagosei.com by April 26

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

The cornerstone is the first stone that is laid and the stone that not only determines how the other stones are placed but the position of the entire structure. As human beings, we need a cornerstone or reference point so that our lives can be properly placed and positioned. Our cornerstone determines not only how we see ourselves but who we will become. Without a cornerstone or reference point, we will be disconnected, disoriented, and poorly positioned for effective action in our world. In order to be the children of God we are, Jesus Christ needs to be our cornerstone and the reference point for all that we do. He alone is the Good Shepherd who can guide through life's questions and challenges, bringing us to proper pasture. Without this proper base, we can easily fall into the trap of self-aggrandizement and quickly lose our way. If that happens, then moral principles, proper conduct, justice, wisdom, and virtue will be difficult to find. We need to listen to the right voices and allow God to show us how to build our house well. Salvation only comes from God and only God will protect us, no matter the cost.

I am the good shepherd

Saint of the Week

Catherine of Siena

1347-1380
Feast Day—April 29

Catherine was the 24th of 25 children of a Sienese dyer; her mystical experiences and raptures began at age 6. She refused to marry, and about 1367 joined the Third Order of St. Dominic. She attracted a like-minded group in Siena for prayer and good works and devoted her last five years to church unity and ending the scandal of rival papacies. Though she experienced the pain of the stigmata, it became visible only after her death at 33. And, in an odd division of relics, her body is in a Roman church, while her head is in a Sienese church. Named a doctor of the church in 1970, Catherine is a patron saint of Europe and Italy, and the patron of fire prevention, nurses and nursing.

"Take as your example your heavenly patroness, St Catherine, a humble and fearless Dominican tertiary who gave herself unsparingly for the Church. For everyone may this great saint be not only a special protectress but a model to follow on the path of holiness."

World Day of Prayer for Vocations will be observed on Sunday, April 25, 2021, also known as "Good Shepherd Sunday." The purpose of this day is to publicly fulfill the Lord's instruction to, "Pray the Lord of the harvest to send laborers into his harvest" (Mt 9:38; Lk 10:2). Please pray that young men and women hear and respond generously to the Lord's call to the priesthood, diaconate, religious life, societies of apostolic life or secular institutes.

April and May Ministry of Praise

May all who have fallen away from the practice of their faith, especially in our own parish, be given the special graces to return to the Crucified and Resurrected Lord.

That those who have newly received the Sacraments of Holy Communion and Confirmation will continue to be blessed by love and commitment to their Lord and Savior.

We pray for those in need due to natural catastrophic events, as well as those who continue to suffer during this pandemic of COVID-19.

We pray that the peace and hope of the Easter Season may spread throughout the world. May the innocent victims of tyranny and subjection be granted the rights and justice they deserve.

We prayerfully seek guidance and God's infinite love for our Graduates. May their futures be bright with hope and increasing faith in the coming years.

For good weather and an enthusiastic attendance at the May Procession in honor of Our Blessed Mother and for special graces for our own beloved mothers both living and dead.

Shrine Rosary Group

The Shrine Rosary Group invites you to join them in praying the Rosary every Wednesday at 9:00 a.m. This is a great opportunity for prayer and to grow stronger in your faith. The last Wednesday of each month, the Rosary Group prays the Patriotic Rosary. If you have any questions, please contact Frank Ryan at 768-7013.
