THE STORY

"As our lives need validation, so do our deaths. The stories we tell give meaning to the fact that our loved one died, which is why, in American Indian cultures, stories are given the highest priority. In fact, the function of the elderly is to tell the stories of the lives and deaths of the ancestors, the stories that keep their history alive. "In days long gone, elders sat in a circle, telling the stories to the young. These stories held enormous value. Today, in our "shut up, get over, and move on" mentality, our society misses so much, it's no wonder we are a generation that longs to tell our stories."

DURING THE MONTH OF MAY THERE ARE RESOURCES FOR PRAYER AND INSPIRATION IN HONOR OF MARY. THESE CAN BE FOUND OUTSIDE AND INSIDE OF CHAPEL

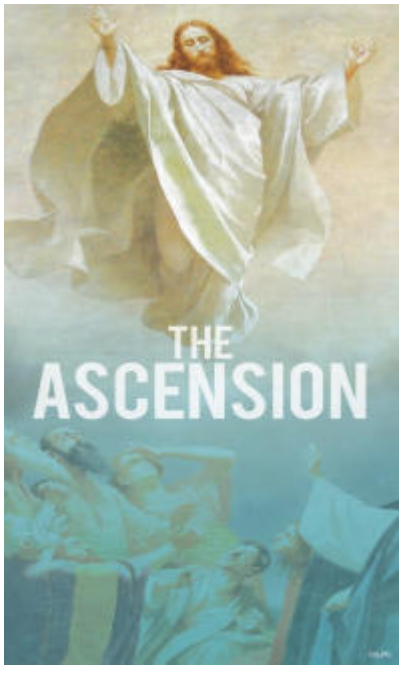
HOW DOES THE CHURCH HONOR MARY

The Church rightly honors the Blessed Virgin with special devotion. "From the earliest times the Blessed Virgin is honored under the title of Mother of God, whose protection the faithful, take refuge together in all their perils and needs…….This cult……..differs essentially from the cult of adoration, which is offered equally to the Incarnate Word and to the Father and the Holy Spirit, and it is most favorable to it (LG, no. 66). The liturgical feast dedicated to the Mother of God and Marian prayer, such as the rosary, an "epitome of the Whole Gospel," express this devotion the Virgin Mary. p. 145 in United States Catholic Catechism for Adults

THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD

Where did he go? Many times when we think of those who have died, we imagine escape from this world to a purely spiritual place. Jesus' Ascension can leave us in a place of confusion. What happens to Jesus? And why does this matter to us?

The Ascension has been confirmed in the Creed for two millennia. In Jesus' Ascension, we're invited to consider our own ultimate end. Regardless of death's reality now, we believe in the resurrection of the body and the reunification of body and soul. One day, earth and heaven will meet perfectly and without end. We anticipate this "new heaven and a new earth" at every Mass and throughout the beauty, truth, and love of the Church and her members. Today, celebrate a foreshadowing of the fullness we all await!



Music Notes

This weekend, we celebrate the rising of Jesus into Heaven – also known as the Ascension of Jesus Christ. We say this each time we recite the creed. "He Ascended into Heaven and is Seated at the Right Hand of the Father". One hymn that comes to mind for this weekend's liturgies is Hail the Day that Sees Christ Rise. As I analyze this, the melody line rises in pitch at the start of each stanza. I wonder if the original composer did this on purpose knowing that Jesus rose to Heaven on this day. The original text of this song did not include the Alleluia that we sing after each line in the music. This was added to the hymnal in the early 1900's to give an extra emphasis to the text of the hymn to remind us to Praise God often!

K of C

The Knights of Columbus will have the new unified degree on Sunday, May 16, immediately following the 9:00 am Mass. This degree will be in church. The Knights of Columbus is the world largest fraternal organization giving away millions of dollars and countless hours each year to charity. The KC is no longer a secret organization. Everyone is invited to attend this degree to see what the Knights are all about.

Scrip News

If you are concerned about tuition or PSR costs, the Scrip Fundraiser can help solve that problem. Wouldn't 1 month of free tuition help your budget? During the 2020-2021 school year 115 parents received Scrip rebates to help offset their tuition. The amount of monies given back was over $15,000.00. Start now buying Scrip and receive your rebate next spring. Remember if your child is not in school yet you can always "bank" your rebate and use it when he/she does start school.
