In March, on Tuesday all nights at 7:00 PM in the Hospitality Room, Mark Brown will give presentations on Catholics and Protestants: Similarities and Differences. Contact Sr. Delores to register.

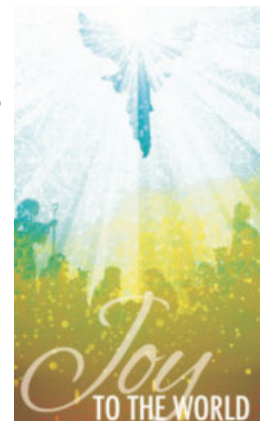

GRIEF SUPPORT

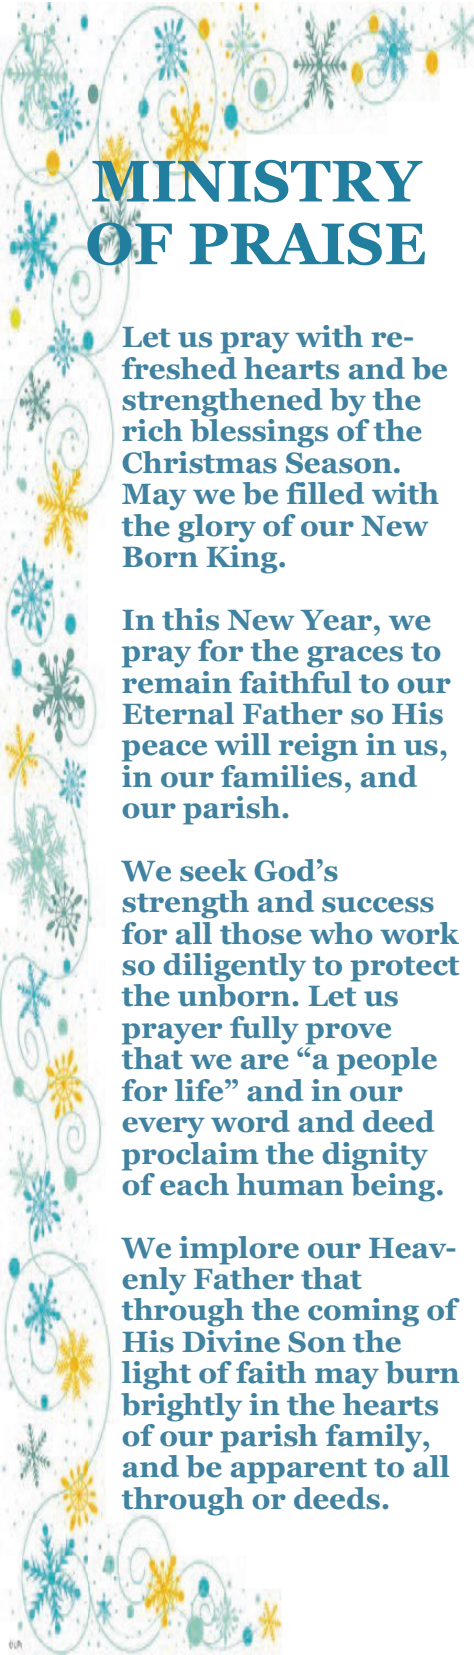

These sessions will once again be held on the second Thursday of the month at 6:00 PM in the Seton Room.

When it comes to creating a hymn, it goes without saying that the author and composer have a close relationship. That the author writes the text (a lot of times it is a poem), the composer composes a tune to go with it, and then a hymn is born. This isn't always the case, though. Many hymns worked the other way around, with authors writing lines to existing tunes. Hundreds of hymns, songs, chants, and even classical masterpieces, are sung to borrowed tunes. In my opinion, the three most popular classical masterpiece that are used for the melody of a hymn are "Joyful Joyful" (Beethoven's 9th Symphony), "Joy to the World" (Handel's Messiah), and O God beyond All Praising. (Gustav Holst's "The Planets") Holst wrote 7 movements each titled after a planet (did not use Earth and Pluto) and O God beyond All Praising is from the melody of "Jupiter". You will hear "Joy to the World" a lot this Christmas season (even though the author/composer wrote this song to be sung year round) and O God beyond All Praising around the Solemnity of Mary, the Holy Mother of God and Epiphany. 2021 was a tough year for many and we look forward to 2022 – with these words from O God beyond All Praising:

“And whether our tomorrows be filled with good or ill, we'll triumph through our sorrows and rise to bless you still...”

MINISTRY OF PRAISE

Let us pray with re-freshed hearts and be strengthened by the rich blessings of the Christmas Season. May we be filled with the glory of our New Born King.

In this New Year, we pray for the graces to remain faithful to our Eternal Father so His peace will reign in us, in our families, and our parish.

We seek God's strength and success for all those who work so diligently to protect the unborn. Let us prayer fully prove that we are "a people for life" and in our every word and deed proclaim the dignity of each human being.

We implore our Heavenly Father that through the coming of His Divine Son the light of faith may burn brightly in the hearts of our parish family, and be apparent to all through or deeds.

LIVE THE LITURGY INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

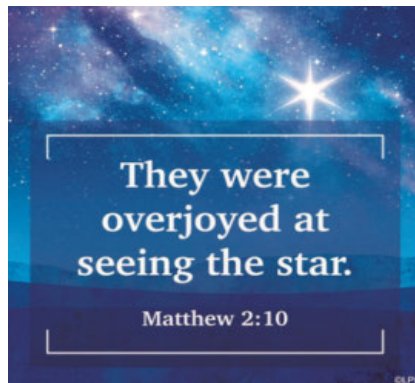

Human beings easily get bored. Life's routines can become so predictable that there is often little time for excitement or freshness. Today is all about the new and the wonderful. In celebrating the beauty and simplicity of the Epiphany, we see in tangible ways God's creative, redemptive, and restorative power. This refreshment and revitalization is offered not only to a select few but to everyone throughout the world. There is nothing routine or static about God. Surprises, wonders, miracles, opportunities, healings, and joy without measure are available to those who believe. There are never any endings, just beginnings. And, when darkness, boredom, and gloom seem to be the order of the day, a bright new light now shines pointing us to truth and reminding us that we are loved.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

The patron saint of Catholic schools, St. Elizabeth Ann Seton (August 28, 1774 – January 4, 1821) was born in New York City to a prominent family of the Episcopal faith. When she turned 19, she married a wealthy businessman with whom she had five children. He later died of tuberculosis in 1803, leaving her a young widow. After discovering the Catholic faith in Italy, where her husband had died, she returned to New York and converted to Catholicism in 1805.

After several years struggling as a single mother, Elizabeth moved in 1809 to Emmitsburg, Maryland, where she founded the Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph, the first community for religious women established in the United States. She also began St. Joseph's Academy and Free School, which started a chain reaction of Catholic-based education in the United States that continues today.

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton was canonized September 14, 1975 in St. Peter's Square by Pope Paul VI and was the first citizen born in the United States to be given the title of "saint."
