CARING AND SHARING

Wishing upon Your Own Star

"You will surely die in your sins unless you come to believe."
John 8:24

For every up in life, there is a down: for every triumph, there is a challenge. But our resiliency is determined by our ability to like ourselves. Liking ourselves is as essential as breathing. Without it, we make bad decisions, push our loved ones away, and prevent ourselves from achieving our goals.

Many people dislike themselves. They often feel they have no value and nothing to offer. They are not aware of their intrinsic value and God-given worth.

We have to be willing to draw our value from what God has given us. We are uniquely fashioned: an exclusive combination that will never happen again. We have to be willing to stand up proudly and say: "I am special. I am God's child. I am a masterpiece created by the Master Artist."

Relax and enjoy who you are. Remember, you don't have to rehearse to be yourself, and it can be a lot of fun.

Bless you,
Yvonne

Good friends find pleasure in one another's company. Let us know pleasure in the company of our best Friend, a Friend who can do everything for us, a friend who loves us beyond measure. Here in the Blessed Sacrament we can talk to him straight from the heart. We can open our souls to him, tell him what we need, beg him for powerful graces. We are perfectly free to approach the King of the universe with full confidence and without fear.

Alphonsus Liguori

Washington Catholic Spring Raffle Results

Grand prize winner of the Washington Catholic Spring Raffle held March 31, 2022 was Tamra Beckman of Washington. Congratulations, Tamra! Prizes of $500 were won by Roberta Wickman, Bill Brown, Eric Headley and Dawn Wilson, all of Washington. All 850 tickets were sold (the 20th sellout in a row), the winner took the car and the raffle netted upwards of $25,000. for the Catholic Community of Washington. The final figure will be known soon and reported at that time. Many thanks to the captains and ticket sellers who work so hard to get the job done. Thank you to all who bought tickets and for making our 31st Spring Raffle so successful. It is greatly appreciated.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

There are many stones in our paths that keep us from truly living and being free. Some of these boulders have been there for a very long time. They have been there so long that they have even settled into the soil of our lives with other weeds, vines, and compacted soil keeping them firmly in place. We find them hard to move and trying to do so can be exhausting. What are these suffocating albatrosses that keep us so tethered and immobile? They are many things.

They are past childhood wounds and hurts that stem from disappointment, rejection, or abuse. People may have told us we were unwanted, that the world is frightening, that there are only some acceptable feelings you can have and others you cannot. We may have tried to love someone or struggled to figure out how and were met with rejection. Maybe we trusted someone completely and were betrayed. We come to life collecting barnacles that begin to attach to other barnacles and before you know it, we have a mass of solid matter blocking our vision and keeping us from moving. We live in fear. We are afraid of losing what we have, afraid that the future will be empty, afraid that we won't succeed and even more afraid that we will not be loved. There is so much fear. Didn't Jesus tell us not to worry and to not be afraid? Either we believe in the message of Easter, or we don't!

Go confidently into the night. Walking with God you will find the light and strength you need. Often without even knowing, God will move those boulders and stumbling blocks that bind us and, with putting one foot in front of the other and looking forward, we will move. The resurrection of Christ is really all about receiving the gifts of trust and faith and doing new things. The rocks that bind us keep us spinning the same wheels and doing the same things. When was the last time you threw caution to the wind and actually did something totally out of character and different? This is where we find God, in the spontaneous, the adventurous, the fun, and the creative choices we make! God is not boring and stuck. God is exciting and engaging. Jesus Christ is risen from the dead! Find a way to trust that this is true and live.

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO

“Dios nuestro, que por medio de tu Hijo venciste a la muerte y nos has abierto las puertas de la vida eterna, concede, a quienes celebramos hoy la Pascua de Resurrección, resucitar también a una nueva vida. Renovados por la gracia del Espíritu Santo. Por nuestro Señor Jesucristo...” (Oración Colecta). El Mensaje de la Pascua resuena y se repite en cada una de las lecturas de la Eucaristía del día hoy. Hoy celebramos con gozo el día más grande del Calendario Litúrgico. Hoy cantamos alegres el Gloria y el Aleluya, porque Cristo, muerto y sepultado el Viernes Santo, ha Resucitado.

Pongamos mucha atención en la secuencia que se proclama en este día y busquemos como María Magdalena al Señor: “¿Qué has visto en la mañana, María, en la mañana?”. “A mi Señor glorioso, la tumba abandonada, los ángeles testigos, sudarios y mortajas. ¡Resucitó de veras mi amor y mi esperanza!”. Corramos presurosos a buscarlo resucitado en la familia, en la escuela, en el trabajo, en los inmigrantes, en los enfermos, y lo más importante, en nuestro propio corazón. El Ángel también anima a las mujeres al llegar a la tumba: “Ustedes no tienen por qué temer. Yo sé que buscan a Jesús, que fue crucificado. No está aquí, pues ha resucitado, tal como lo había anunciado” (Mateo 28:5-6). “Esta es la culminación del Evangelio, es la Buena Noticia por excelencia: Jesús, el crucificado ha resucitado. Este acontecimiento es la base de nuestra fe y de nuestra esperanza. Jesús, el Amor encarnado, murió en la cruz por nuestros pecados, pero Dios lo resucitó y lo ha constituido Señor de la vida y de la muerte” (Papa Francisco). ¡Aleluya, Aleluya, Aleluya!

Fruits of Holy Communion

Question:

What are the "fruits" of holy Communion?

Answer:

The Eucharist, like all sacraments, offers its own unique grace. We receive a special share in God's life that helps us in our faith journey. We are given all we need to sustain and nurture our relationship with God. The Eucharist is the source and summit of the Christian life. Everything we are and everything we hope to become is found in this sacrament. It is essential to the life of the church, to each member of the church. Without it, there is no church. The Eucharist is the center of our spiritual life and has enormous effects on our growth, our holiness, and our way of life. The fruits of holy Communion are the benefits one receives from the sacrament. These fruits of holy Communion are discussed in the catechism in the article on the Eucharist. The primary benefit is union with Christ. We become one with him sacramentally, just as we hope to become one with him for eternity. The Eucharist also separates us from sin, both past and future. It forgives the venial sins of the past and, by the love we receive, protects us from mortal sin in the future. The church community is also unified and strengthened by the Eucharist. It unites us to the poor and offers the pledge of eternal life.
