FROM FR. MARTIN

On January 6, 2022, I had a meeting at our cluster parishes with Jeff Henderson, the Director of Pastoral Planning for the Archdiocese. The purpose of the meeting was to find out how things are going in regard to my stay and ministry in our cluster parishes. This forms part of his duties as the one in charge of the well-being and the integration of the International Priests in the Archdiocese. In our meeting, I pointed out to him how glad I am seeing a number of young people making plans to marry in the Church in our cluster parishes. Just this year alone, we have more than 32 marriages scheduled to be celebrated and we are still counting. This figure excludes those already booked for next year. Jeff was amazed about these numbers. Undoubtedly, the number of sacraments received in a given parish is one of the main criteria that is used to determine how vibrant a parish or cluster parishes are. But we have more reason to rejoice when more young people are saying yes to the marriage vocation.

We live in a world and in a society where interest in marriage, not only church marriage, seems to be going down every day. De facto relationships (ie. people living together without any marital bond), divorce, single parenthood, lack of proper commitment and the supposed challenges in marriage could be some of the reasons why people shun marriage. But we must encourage ourselves, especially our youth not to be afraid to say yes to their vocation in life. Marriage is created and ordained by God for our happiness and for the propagation and continuation of the world. If we participate in it with the grace of God, we will surely discover the beauty of sharing our lives together. To those who have already said yes to this vocation, let us not allow ourselves to be overwhelmed by some of the challenges that come in our married lives. Let us remember that every vocation has its own crises and marriage is not an exception. It is not how many problems we have or not in our marriage, but how we brace ourselves to deal with these challenges and allow love to prevail over and above everything. Our prayers are with those preparing themselves for marriage and those already in it but experiencing challenges and difficulties in one way or the other.

OTHER ITEMS:

- This week Thursday, we will meet with married couples considering becoming sponsor couples. If you are interested in this ministry, please contact the cluster office at dbq067sec@dbqarch.org.
- Our cluster community welcomes couples to celebrate the sacrament of Matrimony. A sacramental marriage pours forth the grace of God upon the couple so they may grow in mutual respect and love. Call the cluster office to speak with a priest or deacon about preparation.
- Worldwide Marriage Encounter is a faith based marriage enrichment program and has been providing couples skills and tools for a lifelong commitment for over 50 years. Upcoming weekends are Feb. 11-13th in Ankeny and April 23-24th in Epworth. For more information and to register, visit iowa-wwme.org or call 563-608-3305.

JOIN THE KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS ~

Monday, January 24, at 7 pm there will be a welcoming ceremony in the Council Chambers at the Columbus Club Hall. For information on how to become a Knight and the ceremony, contact Mike Helle at council1734@gmail.com or call 590-9817 and leave a message.

SPONSOR COUPLES ~ Looking for an enjoyable ministry with engaged couples? Our cluster parishes invite couples married more than 5 years to engage in this wonderful opportunity. Sponsor couples usually meet with engaged couples 2-3 times to consider their answers to an online inventory that considers their relationship. Together they also respond to some questions that deal with communication from a workbook. Sponsor couples realize that their marriages are not perfect, but they enjoy sharing ideas and building upon strengths in their relationship. To learn about this important ministry, contact one of the priests. A formation session with dinner is planned for Thursday, January 27 at 6 pm at the cluster office in Dyersville.

THAT MAN IS YOU ~ TMIY is an interactive men's program that combines the latest findings of modern science with the teachings of the Church and the wisdom of the saints to develop authentic male leaders capable of transforming themselves, their families and greater society. That Man Is You continues next Saturday, January 29th at 6:00 am at the Columbus Club Hall. All men are welcome.

BOOK CLUB ~ Join us on February 10th as we discuss part one of the book, A Canticle for Leibowitz by Walter M. Miller Jr. There is a wealth of Catholic literature that can help us to look deeply into our Faith. If you love reading, our cluster book club meets regularly to discuss great Catholic literature together! A Canticle for Leibowitz is a story of a monastery in the Southwest US dedicated to preserving knowledge after a terrible disaster, but will humanity make the same mistake of trying to play God as the world recovers? A Sci-Fi classic! Contact Fr. Tyler if you are interested or with questions.

ARCHDIOCESEONE ~ On September 29, 2019, in response to real needs, and after broad consultation, Archbishop Jackels announced the start of a special appeal, called ArchdioceseOne, to help the poor and to support the mission of the Church. In March of 2020, the Covid pandemic forced us to pause active fundraising for ArchdioceseOne. In mid-February, we will be restarting our fundraising efforts for this special appeal. You likely received a letter in the mail recently regarding this subject, but if not, Archbishop has made a video for you about this important effort he would like you to see. It will only take about 5 minutes of your time to watch. Simply scan the QR code or visit archdioceseone.org/splash. Thank you!
