FROM FR. QUINT

May you enjoy Independence Day! Join us for Mass on this holiday and offer God gratitude for the freedom we enjoy in this great nation. Thankfully pre-born children will have a greater likelihood of enjoying freedom after the Supreme Court's recent decision in Dobbs vs. Jackson Women's Health Organization. All of the prayers, sacrifices, and conversations for the past 5 decades have yielded great fruit. We continue to pray for those who have suffered due to legalized abortion and hope they know of the wideness of God's mercy. We pray for those who continue to carry out these evil procedures that they will experience the grace of conversion. We pray for legislators that they will uphold the dignity of human life. We pray for those experiencing crisis pregnancies that they will find support from us in providing for their children. Our work continues. May people of faith unite to defend these innocent children of God.

I remember being part of the Right to Life group at Loras College throughout my four years. We collaborated strongly with Dubuque County Right to Life. A parishioner from here once donated meat to assist with fundraising efforts. The educational work of those groups remains important not only to affirm the dignity of babies not born yet, but also to respect the lives of those who are in their sunset years or who are suffering greatly. Doctor-assisted suicide and euthanasia remain as a threat to the vulnerable. Our assistance to the poor and needy remains a key way in which we can uphold the value of life. May we continue to advocate on behalf of the defenseless.

OTHER ITEMS:

- We welcome Fr. Ben Valentine as the celebrant of Mass today at 10:30 am at the basilica. Congratulations on your ordination!
- Congratulations fellow parishioners! We had a strong financial finish to the end of this fiscal year. Even the parishes that didn't quite meet the adult budgeted income were very close. Well done!
- Time is running out to have your photo taken for the cluster pictorial directory. You receive a free 8x10 photo and a directory for taking about half an hour of your time.
- Our cluster website provider, Solutio, will be making contact soon to our local businesses for sponsorship. Thanks for your generosity!
- Please support our local business that give so much to our cluster.
- Nice article about Fr. Tyler in the Dyersville Commercial last week and about Fr. Martin the week before.
