FAREWELL FROM FR. QUINT

Recently the Carol Burnett Show came to mind, especially with her ending song, "I'm so glad we had this time together." My heart swells with gratitude for the blessings of the past 12 years. Worship: weekday Masses, weekend Masses, weddings, funerals, baptisms, adoration. Formation: Christ Renews His Parish Retreats, 40 Hours, Faith Sharing, cluster Catholic Schools and youth Faith Formation. Outreach: sister parish in Haiti, Clarity Clinic, food pantry. Fun: parades, fish fries, wine tastings, festivals, card parties. Fraternity: we have enjoyed talented associate pastors (including those currently here) and seminarians over the years and our retired priests have offered outstanding support and ministry!

Our parishes and schools flourish with strong numbers of participants and sound financial support. We've come together to maintain the most beautiful churches in the Archdiocese and beyond and strive to meet the needs of those who worship within them. We've been through several capital campaigns for special projects while continuing to meet our usual operational expenses. Thanks for your generosity and sacrificial giving.

What a dedicated staff and talented deacons and wives we have here in this cluster! They will be critically important in this transition and are up for the task. We offer gratitude to local parish leaders and parish and finance council reps who will guide life forward smoothly.

To those who found my ministry to be a source of suffering, I'm sorry. Turning the page I trust you'll be more engaged in parish life. I definitely have offered forgiveness in my heart to folks who have been unkind to me.

Now what? Three wonderful priests have been assigned here because there are 2600 families who need pastoral care. Fr. Tyler will serve as chaplain at Beckman Catholic, so they all will be able to offer more ministry within parish life. Take initiative to grow in relationship with the three of them. Let them know when you are sick. Contact them when you get engaged. Be in touch when babies are born. Invite them to your homes for a meal. If you cannot understand them at church, encounter them in your living room. If you are tempted to complain about them, remember how many Catholics would rejoice at the many opportunities we have here for worship, formation, outreach, and socialization. If you become impatient, just remember you could still have me droning on here!

As Carol Burnett sang, "Seems we just got started and before you know it, comes the time we have to say, So Long." While I wish our time together could have been longer, I'm grateful it wasn't shorter. Stop by for visits in downtown Dubuque. Continue to foster vocations to the priesthood and religious life. Lift up Billy Bob and Susie Q now and then. Enjoy a wiener wink. Bake lots of pies. Happy Trails to you, until we Meet Again!

OTHER ITEMS:

- Parishes are offering welcomes for the new priests in different ways. Most importantly, as individuals we take on the blessing of offering hospitality.
- At noon on Tuesday, the three incoming priests will assume their pastoral leadership here and the three amigos will ride off into the sunset. On behalf of us leaving, THANK YOU for your hospitality, prayers, support and kind words. The farewell gatherings were deeply appreciated. You cards and gifts were avenues of God's love. May we continue to pray for one another.
- Fr. Mark Osterhaus of the Aquinas cluster based in Cascade now takes on the role of dean of the Dyersville Deanery.
- While I will live alone at the cathedral rectory (at least unless seminarians are there in summers) I established "Apt 1" as part of my address for personal mail.
- Our cluster website provider, Solutio, will be making contacts soon to our local businesses for sponsorship.

"Love God. serve God. everything is in that" - St. Clare of Assisi
