Mission Statement:
To bring Christ's love to our Community through worship, education, service and outreach.

THE HOLY FAMILY

After three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions, and all who heard him were astounded at his understanding and his answers. - Lk 2:46-47

Angels of Hope

Who are these people?

The Feast of the Holy Family, an important Christmas feast celebrated by the church to build up the family, often has the opposite effect on us. Rather than helping us look upon our own families as holy and sacred it paints a picture of perfection and defeats us before we even get started. In fact, the picture of the Holy Family is “so perfect” not even the original Holy Family could be as perfect as the Holy Family we celebrate. That is a serious problem because the whole point of the feast is to help us celebrate our own families and embrace the invitation to incorporate elements of the Holy Family into the families of which we are a part no matter what they look like.

The Feast of the Holy Family ought to help us understand that the family is:

- A place where we learn to love unconditionally and to be loved.
- A place where we learn how much we need one another no matter who we are.
- A place where we learn to respect one another and the role we have in the family unit.
- A place where we can safely discover who we are and be accepted for who we are.
- A place where we can grow in wisdom – we all have a lot to learn.
- A place where we can make mistakes and believe we are still loved.
- A place where there is room for a lot of growth for all the members.

In Luke 2:49-52 it states:

“And he said to them, “Why were you looking for me? Did you not know that I must be in my Father’s house?” but they did not understand what he said to them. He went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was obedient to them; and his mother kept all these things in her heart. And Jesus advanced in wisdom and age and favor before God and man.”

When I reflect on this exchange, I ask myself who really needed to grow in understanding and wisdom? Was it mom and dad or a 14 year old boy who decided it was a good idea to wander off from his family (for several days no less) and not let anyone know about it? Families are a place where we make foolish decisions (no matter who we are) and we believe we are still loved. The above picture, I suspect, reflects a little more closely, what our own families are like; parents trying to understand a teenager and a teenager thinking he is ready to be out on his own. The scriptures tell us Jesus needed to grow in age and wisdom – don’t we all need that?

The Holy Family is to be reflected in our own families with all there graces and flaws. Jesus had so much to learn as he grew to understand who he was and who\what the Father called him to be. What he taught to his disciples and so many others did not come out of a vacuum but out of a “holy family”, just like ours – really!

Blessings on your holy family – may you all grow in wisdom and favor before God,

Fr. Howard

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Imagine being a lowly shepherd, watching over your sheep on a typical night, and then suddenly, your life changes forever. A bright light and a multitude of angels appear, proclaiming that “great joy” is to be had. While the message was one of celebration and awe, I can’t help but think that if it were me, I too would be a little more frightened than overjoyed in the moment.

How many times have we been struck with fear in our lives? During the past year, many of us faced the fear of a worldwide pandemic, a serious health diagnosis and possibly a job loss. During difficult times, it can be hard to “fear not,” as the angels assured the shepherds. No matter where you find yourself this Christmas – perhaps back to Mass for the first time in a long time, or in the same pew you’ve been sitting in for years – please know that Jesus loves you and wants to be in a relationship with you.

This coming year, I encourage you to reconnect, rediscover, and renew your relationship with Jesus and his Church. Here in the Archdiocese of Milwaukee, you’ll discover a multitude of opportunities to encounter the love of Jesus and deepen your spiritual life. Together, let us not fear but rejoice in the “good news of great joy!”

Sincerely yours in Christ, Most Reverend Jerome E. ListECKI Archbishop of Milwaukee

CHRISTMAS PARTY AND GAME NIGHT FOR TEENS!

The holiday season gives us a unique opportunity to gather with family and friends, and even wear ridiculously festive sweaters while we do so. In that spirit, we are offering a Christmas Party and Game Night for teens on Wednesday, December 29 from 6:00-8:00pm in the Church Hall. It's a chance for people to get together and play all kinds of different board games and card games - we've replenished our stock recently so there is no shortage of options! And of course there will be food - please come on out and, if you have one, make sure you wear your most festive Christmas sweater! Contact Brian at maseb@hawb.org or 262-343-2370 with questions!

Both will be held at the Redemptorist Retreat Center in Oconomowoc. The Retreats are titled: “Healing in a Wounded World.” Hannah Bergland will be going with the women on the women’s retreat, and our parish liaison to the retreat center, Joe Balistreri, will be going with the men. Transportation to and from the retreat center is provided. The retreat goes from 6:45 pm Friday-Noon on Sunday. All meals are included. It consists of talks, daily Mass, Reconciliation and Adoration. The cost for retreat is $130 but there are funds available if cost is an issue. Please don’t let the cost dissuade you from attending. If you would like more information or to register, please contact Hannah Bergland at berglandh@hawb.org.

Christmas Wishes

On behalf of our parish school, I would like to wish each of you a very happy and holy Christmas season!

Each one of us has one or two Christmas carols which speak to our hearts in a special way. By far, O Holy Night is my favorite Christmas carol. This year, in particular, the song seems to speak to my heart and mind in a unique way. A catch phrase in the first verse reads, "A thrill of hope, the weary world rejoices." One cannot pick up a newspaper or glance at a news website without reading about the hardships of our global society. In every corner of our world, we find poverty, war, disease, famine, and families suffering. Just like the first Christmas, it appears that our world is once again in a "weary state."

At Christmas, however, we remember and rejoice at Christ's coming to a weary world. Our faith teaches us that we must have trust in Divine Providence. We must not succumb to the weariness of our society's misfortunes. We must be a "thrill of hope" to the poor, to those living in war, those affected by disease and famine, and to all children who are our most precious resource. This Christmas, I pray that each member of our parish and school community has the strength to face the challenges in our daily lives with a heart of love and peace.

Please know that I am most grateful for your presence within our community. The teachers, staff, and I would like to wish you all a blessed Christmas and a joyful, Happy New Year. We look forward to seeing you all when return in the New Year. We will continue to build relationships, nurture goals, and celebrate our many gifts in the fresh, new year ahead. May the Blessed Mother Mary watch over you and your loved ones this sacred season.

RACIAL JUSTICE REFLECTIONS: "SHAKE US FROM OUR SLUMBER"

When our eyes do not see the gravity of racial justice, Shake us from our slumber and open our eyes, O Lord.

When out of fear we are frozen into inaction, Give us a spirit of bravery, O Lord.

When we try our best but say the wrong things, Give us a spirit of humility, O Lord.

When the chaos of this dies down, Give us a lasting spirit of solidarity, O Lord.

When it becomes easier to point fingers outwards, Help us to examine our own hearts, O Lord.

God of truth, in your wisdom, Enlighten Us. God of hope in your kindness, Heal Us. Creator of All People, in your generosity, Guide Us.

Racism breaks your heart, break our hearts for what breaks yours, O Lord.

Ever present God, you called us to be in relationship with one another and promised to dwell wherever two or three are gathered. In our community, we are many different people; we come from many different places, have many different cultures. Open our hearts that we may be bold in finding the riches of inclusion and the treasures of diversity among us. We pray in faith. (Dr. Martin Luther King)

We wish you a blessed Christmas and a New Year filled with awakenings. For more info or to volunteer, email racialjustice@hawb.org.

EDUCATION AND ACTIVITY CORNER

Sunday Family Connection: Today's Gospel describes a time of anxiety in the life of Jesus' family. We can imagine their panic and worry as they discovered that Jesus was not with the caravan returning to Nazareth. The Holy Family journeyed with family members and friends because traveling alone was dangerous. When they found Jesus at the Temple, Jesus spoke like a typical adolescent, unsympathetic to his parents' concern. Yet his words teach an important lesson about reducing anxiety in our family life. In essence, Jesus says, "If you had remembered who I am, you would have known where to find me." In their panic, Mary and Joseph had forgotten what had been told to them before Jesus' birth, that their son was the Son of God. Knowing a person well helps reduce our anxieties for them because we can better predict how they will behave, and we know their capacity to handle the challenges life might present to them.

As you gather as a family, have fun playing the game "How well do you know me?" Take turns trying to stump one another by asking family members questions about yourself, such as "What is my favorite memory of a family vacation?" "Given a choice, what dinner menu would I pick?" "If I could travel anywhere in the world, where would I go?" One member of the family might prepare and read the questions aloud as each person writes down the answers. Family members then take turns guessing the answers, playing this game as a quiz show. Observe that one thing about families is that we learn to know each other well.
