Mission Statement:
To bring Christ's love to our Community through

2nd SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

There was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the wedding. When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine."

- Jn 2:1-3

Angels of Hope

Are We Back to “Normal” Yet?

I would really like to say we are back to normal, unfortunately we are not. I believe we will get there but from what we are told it will take more time. The sacred scriptures express it well, “when O Lord?” In light of how contagious the COVID variants are and the numbers of people getting ill (not to mention the cold and flu season being upon us), I am asking you to please take these steps to help keep everyone healthy to the best of our ability. (Starting – the weekend of January 23rd)

- If you are sick, whatever you might have, please stay home. There is no sin in not going to church and keeping others healthy. There is no grace in coming to church and getting others sick. Take advantage of watching the Holy Angels mass online at 9:30am on Sunday mornings or a televised Mass.
- If you are sick and insist on coming to church, out of respect for those who gather with you and around you please wear a mask. There are no certainties, but wearing a mask does help to prevent the spreading of the virus, etc.
- Please use hand sanitizer, it is at all the entrances of the church.
- For the foreseeable future, all musicians will play and sing from the Choir Loft during Masses.
- We are creating a mask only zone in the small chapel on the south side of the sanctuary at all the Masses. If you sit in that section, you will be required to wear a mask.
- We will continue the practice of receiving communion in the hand and not on the tongue. The practice of receiving in the hand has been with us for over 50 years, the church has made it clear that it is neither holier nor more sacred to receive on the tongue. For the safety of all involved we will use the hand option for the foreseeable future – this is not forever!
- Ministers of the Eucharist will continue to wear masks when distributing the sacrament.
- I have chosen to wear a mask when I am at the altar, this is to avoid the possibility (to the extent I can) of contaminating the Eucharist while speaking and/or singing.
- Starting on January 23rd at the 11am Mass only, the north side of the church will be for those that choose to wear a mask. Every other pew will be blocked off. It is by far the smallest mass we have and the space is available to create a safe-zone in the main body of the church.

As you can see, I am not “mandating” all sorts of things, therefore I need your cooperation to make this work. I want to be sensitive to the issues many folks are dealing with but I also want to give options to those who have health issues. I want to be able to say more than “don’t go.” As mentioned above these guidelines will take effect on the weekend of January 23, 2022.

Blessings to all and let’s pray for each other and do what we can to keep each other safe,

Fr. Howard

Student of the Month: Every month the Middle School teachers choose a student from 6th, 7th, & 8th grade and recognize them for their outstanding character, service, classwork etc. Here are Students of the Month for Dec.

6th Grade: Nikolas Guminski - Nikolas is an easy-going, friendly, and out-right funny kid who can be found joking around with his classmates whenever the time is right. However, Nikolas is not all fun and games. He is a serious student who has a curious mindset and an interest in learning, particularly liking math. He pays attention, learns quickly, and can recall important information weeks after it is taught. He is willing to work hard and practice, making great progress in learning how to play guitar. Outside of school, he enjoys playing tennis and the piano.

7th Grade: Zachary Fechter - If you look up likable in the dictionary, there is probably a picture of Zach. It's hard to imagine a student with more likable qualities. Zach has a good sense of humor and is friendly and kind. Zach is not afraid of getting involved in class discussions and volunteering to answer questions even if he might be wrong. He works well in groups and is a responsible student. Zach is one of the morning patrols who takes care of the kindergarteners. Zach is passionate about baseball which is his favorite sport. He says he would love to talk to Christian Yelich.

8th Grade: Colton Steinmetz - Colton is one of a small minority of boys in the eighth grade, and he has earned the praise and gratitude of the class (and music teacher) by agreeing to play the lead male role in the upcoming class musical. Not only did he volunteer, but he is giving the role his best effort. In fact, his teachers are noticing that he is spending his last year at Holy Angels setting goals and working to reach them in all of his classes. Colton is a happy person and fun to be around. Colton is a patrol and can be counted on to tend to the flag. Colton enjoys playing football, basketball and baseball as well as video games. He is proud of his brother who serves in the military.

There are no Faith Formation classes tonight, Sunday. Classes resume on Wednesday, January 19 for our virtual students, and Sunday, January 23 for our in-person students. The 7th and 8th grade parent and student night is also on Sunday, January 23, during regular class time in the Walnut room. 7th and 8th grade students and at least one parent is expected to attend. Please let Hannah know if you have any questions!

We are back to Ordinary Time after the Advent and Christmas seasons. These two seasons in our Church year allow time for us to grow and to recognize God's joy and blessings. Now that we are on to a new Church season of Ordinary time, it is important to not forget the blessings and joy that God gives us. The Gospel story for this weekend is about the wedding at Cana and the wine ran short. Imagine how embarrassing and frustrating this would be if it happened today! Jesus says to Mary, "Woman how is that our problem? My hour has not yet come." The Greek says that Jesus called her, gune, woman, as if she represented all of Israel, the bride of God. John is framing this incident as a symbolic depiction of God's people who have run out of joy. It's important to take what we have gleaned from the Advent and Christmas seasons and keep it burning in our hearts in this new season of the Church year. Blessings, and may the joy and love of God be with you always.

RACIAL JUSTICE REFLECTIONS: MARTIN LUTHER KING JR. DAY

In the same way, let your light shine before men, that they may see your good deeds and praise your Father in heaven. Matthew 5:16
 January 17 marks the 27th anniversary of The National Day of Service established in 1994 by Congress and observed on the third Monday in January to honor the life and legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr and to encourage all Americans to volunteer. Dr. King was a minister, husband, father, friend, and fierce advocate for the betterment of all people. He believed that greatness comes from serving others. Let YOUR light shine! Make it a day ON, not a day OFF, for you and those around you! For more information or to volunteer, contact us at racialjustice@hawb.org.

EDUCATION AND ACTIVITY CORNER

Sunday Family Connection: Weddings are wonderful family celebrations. We go out of our way to make the occasion festive and extraordinary. People work hard to please one another. What better image of the Kingdom of God! Not every day is a wedding celebration, but we can anticipate the Kingdom of God each day in our attentiveness to one another's needs.

If your family has attended a wedding celebration together, talk about the experience and the planning and cooperation that made the celebration memorable. Talk about how weddings and feasts are images in Scripture for the Kingdom of God. Consider how these festive occasions are images of God's tremendous love for us and examples of how we can show our love for one another. Then read together today's Gospel, John 2:1-11. Talk about Mary's attentiveness to the needs of the hosts and about Jesus' response. What could your family learn from this story? Consider ways that you might show these values in your family's daily life. Pray together Saint Ignatius' Prayer for Generosity:

Eternal Word, only begotten Son of God,

Teach me true generosity. Teach me to serve you as you deserve.

To give without counting the cost, To fight heedless of wounds, To labor without seeking rest,

To sacrifice myself without thought of any reward Save the knowledge that I have done your will. Amen.
