SEEKING ADULT GROUP FACILITATORS FOR ADULT FORMATION SERIES

Hannah and Lindsey are looking for adults that are interested in helping to facilitate small groups for adult formation series. The facilitator is there to guide the conversation. They are not there to know everything! They are not there to answer questions. A facilitator might start the conversation, keep the conversation going, and make sure no one person is overtaking the group. You will receive training and a leader guide that has all the answers! By being a facilitator you will grow in your faith and meet new people! If you are interested or would like more information, please contact Hannah Bergland at berglandh@hawb.org or 262-334-3038.

Student of the Week Jan 31-Feb 4: The virtue for the month of February is Service: being helpful to the entire family of man. This can also be called beneficence, which means helping the greater community for the common good. "Generous persons will prosper; those who refresh others will themselves be refreshed." Proverbs 11:25

Happy Valentine's Day: Valentine's Day is big business for the aluminum foil industry. The shiny, silvery, substance seals Hershey kisses, supports pink frosted cookies on baking sheets, and covers school-made valentine mailboxes.

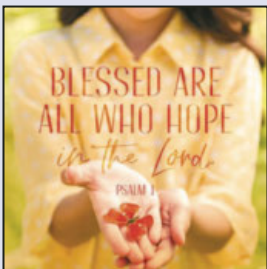

When I was in grade school, classmates and I were afforded an hour or two in early February to cut, crumple, and cement aluminum foil onto shoeboxes as we prepared for our Valentine's Day party. After a wrapping of reflective silver, we added sculpted pipe cleaners and symmetrical hearts cut from folded pink, red and white construction paper. "Don't forget to cut into the fold," teachers reminded us. Ah, how Valentine's Day brought out the looove in our classroom. I actually liked Valentine's Day (then again I loved spelling tests—with bonus words). Valentine's Day provided a forum whereby we could actually tell our friends how much we appreciated them.

I learned it doesn't take Valentine's Day to remind us of the need to communicate kindness. We can recognize and acknowledge the inherent goodness in each other on a daily basis. One needs only to chat with the students, witness the supportive acts of the teachers, marvel at our daily volunteers, attend school events, or participate in one of our many service projects to recognize that huge hearts are alive and well at Holy Angels School.

May your hearts continue to shine like luminous aluminum foil, and may every day be Valentine's Day.

Kindergarten Registration is Open: Kinder Round-up was in person this year and we had a great turn out. We had several new families come visit the school and sign up their child(ren). We are currently enrolling for our 3K, 4K, & 5K classrooms for the 2022-2023 school year. If you missed our Open House during Catholic Schools Week you can call the school and schedule a time to take a tour. If you would like more information, you can find brochures and registration forms on our website: www.haswb.org. Click on the Forms tab and you will find all the information. If you would like to speak with me, please email weisea@haswb.org or call (262) 338-1148.

We are Looking for a Refrigerator: The Teacher's Lounge is needing to replace its refrigerator. The current refrigerator is apartment size and is filled to capacity each day with teacher lunches and it is unable to accommodate much more. If you or someone you know is looking to replace your home refrigerator or have a spare full-size refrigerator, please reach out to the school. The teachers will be so appreciative.

RACIAL JUSTICE REFLECTIONS: DO YOU KNOW YOUR FAMILY HISTORY?

This month we celebrate Black History Month. I am not Black. Thanks to the efforts of extended family members, I can trace my family history back to Irish immigrants arriving in Milwaukee by way of New York, and Polish family members still living in Eastern Poland. This summer someone I met in West Bend discovered we are related on my maternal great grandfather's side. I am amazed! White people's ancestors, it seems, are comparatively easy to find.

When tracing family history, many Black people can't go any farther back than 1870. The names of enslaved people weren't listed on Census documents. Forced relocation, immigration, and premature death all blot out the histories of families of color. Racial disparities even infect the supposed objectivity of genetic analysis. Companies like AncestryDNA and 23andMe determine your background by comparing your DNA to the DNA in a "reference panel" of people of different ethnicities. Most of the DNA in that data set is from European-descended people, meaning results are significantly "more detailed for white people."

Do you know your family history? If you are fortunate in this regard, consider the reality of those who are not so lucky. This month, take time to explore Black History, and discover how Black Americans have contributed to our shared culture today. For more information, contact us at racialjustice@hawb.org.

EDUCATION AND ACTIVITY CORNER

Sunday Family Connection: Today's Gospel offers a contrast to many of the messages we hear in our society today. If we were to accept uncritically the "get ahead" messages of our culture, we would think that happiness means having money, being successful, and having many possessions. In this way, we are not unlike the people who heard Jesus teach on the day that he taught the Beatitudes. They too associated happiness with possessions and success. The report of the Beatitudes in Luke's Gospel, however, takes things one step further. Not only will we not find happiness through the "get ahead" messages of the world, but relying upon these messages will cause us harm. The warnings spoken are particularly challenging because they suggest that our way of life must change if we are to gain the lasting happiness of eternal life.

Talk together as a family about what society tells us makes a person successful. Make a list of the traits that you associate with a successful person. Then read together today's Gospel, Luke 6:17,20-26. Reflect on Jesus' description of blessedness in the Kingdom of God. Then consider the warnings. Why are these surprising and challenging? What, then, is the measure of success in the Kingdom of God? Together write prayers of petition based on your discussion. Pray these prayers together, asking God to help your family seek the blessings of the Kingdom of God.
