“Call Upon the Lord”

In the Book of Deuteronomy Moses reminds the people, as they gather, that when they called out in their distress God heard them and responded to their need. He states, “...we cried to the Lord, the God of our fathers, and he heard our cry and saw our affliction, our toil and our oppression. He brought us out of Egypt with his strong hand and outstretched arm, with terrifying power, with signs and wonders; and bringing us into this country, he gave us this land flowing with milk and honey.” (Deut. 26:7-10) When was the last time, or maybe a better question is, have you ever “called” out to the Lord in a time of distress? Our culture does not look kindly on anyone who asks for help. We tend to believe that one has to plan ahead and/or get their act together and work for what they need. To ask for help means one is weak or is not prepared. The sad thing about that way of thinking is, if we are not able to ask for help from one another how do we ask for help from God?

The sense of a “rugged individualism” so present in our world was not nearly as prevalent in the world of both the Old and New Testaments. There was a greater sense among people that they needed one another and even more so needed God. Though they needed reminders. There was a keen sense that ultimately, all came from God, their dependence on God was to make a difference in the way they lived, and when things got tough, they could call upon God to help them get through it. They believed God paid attention to them and would respond. Paul reflects this way of thinking in his thoughts and Jesus certainly believed that the Father would walk with him during his trials in the desert.

During this time of Lent, what do we need to call upon the Lord for – trusting that the Lord will respond? What holds us back from placing it all (whatever the all is – we all have something) at the feet of the Lord? Lent is a prime time to recognize that we cannot do everything on our own if we are to grow in discipleship, Moses knew that, Paul knew that and Jesus certainly knew that. Each cried out in their own way trusting God would respond to their time of pain, need, etc.

During this time of prayer, alms giving and fasting, may we recognize our limits and open ourselves to the limitless, grace of God offered to all.

Lenten Blessings, Fr. Howard

ELIZABETH MINISTRY

Elizabeth Ministry is an outreach to women in special times of motherhood. It is based on Jesus' vision of the radical goodness, beauty, and truth of human life. Its purpose is to affirm, support, encourage, and assist women in response to their needs during the childbearing years. Currently, Elizabeth Ministry at Holy Angels has our Rosebud program, which you see in the corner by the elevator, through which people can ask for prayers and other help. We also have our Baptism bag ministry which welcomes newly baptized members of the parish. We have been blessed in the past with donations of homemade baby hats, blankets, etc. that we put in the baptism bags, but our supply has run very low. If you like to create such items, we are thrilled to receive them and put them in the Baptism bags as a symbol of the love of our parish members for our newest parish members and their families. Donations may be left at the parish office, or in the Elizabeth Ministry corner near the elevator. If you would like to speak about Elizabeth Ministry, please call Paula Beine at 262-677-1254. We are open to new ideas and members. Thank you.

EDUCATION AND ACTIVITY CORNER*Sunday Family Connection:

In Luke's Gospel, the story of Jesus' temptation in the desert appears just after Jesus' baptism and before Jesus begins his public ministry. We can imagine this as a time of transition, a turning point in Jesus' life. Perhaps we can liken it to one of the important turning points in our own lives: the decision to marry, the birth of a child, the acceptance of a new job, or the decision to move to a new home. After the moment of decision, having reached the point of no return, we sometimes begin to wonder if we are prepared and ready for the task before us. Turning points can be times of doubt and insecurity. Jesus' response to the temptations of the devil offers an example for responding in faith when our doubts and insecurities tempt us to distrust God's sufficiency. Jesus rebukes the devil by quoting Scripture. Each citation is an affirmation of trust in God. We learn to trust in big things by practicing trust in little things. Our Lenten practices of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving invite us to trust God in these small ways. They remind us that God will suffice for us. They prepare us to trust in God in all things, especially in moments of doubt and uncertainty.

As a family, talk about ways in which trust has been built among members of the family. Observe how being trustworthy in small matters enables us to trust one another in more important matters. Offer specific examples if possible (e.g., children who establish their responsibility in household tasks can be granted greater independence and freedom to choose how they perform these tasks). Today's Gospel shows us how Jesus trusted God in all things. Read aloud today's Gospel, Luke 4:1-13. Discuss how Jesus showed his trust in God when he resisted the devil's temptations. Invite family members to name times when they have trusted God in matters small or large. Write a family prayer together. You might write the prayer so that each line begins with a letter in the word "trust." Pray this prayer together.
