Grace of the Sacraments

This week we celebrate with our younger members of the community and their parents the blessings and the joys of the sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation. As retired, Auxiliary Bishop Richard Sklba would remind folks:

whenever a sacrament is celebrated, it is not merely for the individual but for the whole church. As a result, I should more accurately say – the “whole church” celebrates with its younger members and their families the blessings of these sacraments of initiation.

The sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation provide us opportunities not only to marvel how the Holy Spirit has made a difference in the lives of those who will receive them but also an opportunity to reflect on how the Holy Spirit has made a difference in our own lives through them. Think about how you have grown since you received your First Communion. Does the Eucharist continue to nourish you, is it life giving, does the mystery of the Lord’s presence still bring you a sense of joy as it does these children? Yes, a lot has changed for most of us since second grade; however, it is still the same Lord present today that was present a long time ago. I encourage you to think about what has happened to your faith since you were “sealed with the Holy Spirit.” How has the Holy Spirit guided you through the joys and challenges that have been part of your life over the years? Have you been paying attention? The Spirit is always there, the problem is we too often live our lives with our hearts, ears and eyes closed and we miss the those “divine moments” when the Spirit is tugging at us!

The whole church may celebrate sacraments but it is now our responsibility to help these young folks discover what it means and will continue to mean to “be sealed with the Holy Spirit” and to receive the “Body of Christ.” Those who have received the sacraments have not “finally finished” their formation but have merely begun to discover what is yet to be revealed by the loving God we believe in. The question is will we walk with them or have we given up what is yet to be discovered in our own lives – God has certainly not given up on us.

Huge thanks to all the staff members, catechists, teachers and especially parents/family members that have helped these young folks to reach these milestones. Continue to journey with them for there is so much yet to discover, for all of us.

Easter & Sacramental Blessings,
Fr. Howard

FESTIVAL OF ANGELS—JUNE 10, 11, 12

- Pick up your raffle tickets! Take any raffle ticket envelope with you. Please fill out the volunteer form found with your tickets and return it to the box in the church vestibule. Consider working in a booth, the food stand, where ever you can.
- The Used Book Sale is always popular. Please drop off gently used books, fiction or non in the carport. Don't forget puzzles too!
- Are you detailed oriented? We are in desperate need of a few parish members to step forward to organize/coordinate the Chicken Plate, Parcel Post/Green Plants Booth, and the Sweet Corn. If you can help coordinate or make calls to schedule volunteers call Jim at 262-343-0914. If we don't find volunteers to manage these areas we will be unable to have them at the Festival this year.
- Sign-up to volunteer at the festival by going to hawb.org/festival and clicking on the link that interests you!
- If your business would like to donate new items or gift certificates for the raffle and/or silent auction please drop them off in the parish office. Please prayerfully consider ways to help and of course we look forward to seeing you there!

Please support our Festival Sponsors and remember to use the McDonald's coupons found with your raffle tickets.

RUN • WALK • FLY WITH HOLY ANGELS ON JUNE 11th

We had such a great response from last year's virtual event, this year we are taking it to the streets (well the Eisenbahn Trail)! On Saturday, June 11th Holy Angels is hosting an informal 5K walk. We will meet on the HA campus at 11am and walk down to the Eisenbahn Trail. We will end back at Holy Angels for a total of a 3.1 mile walk. This is an informal walk so there will not be any timing of the event or street closing.

By the time we return to the Holy Angels campus the "Festival of Angels" will be in full swing! Included in the cost of the event is a t-shirt and drink ticket redeemable at the Festival. If you can't make it to the event but you would still like to participate you can pick up your shirt at a later date or for additional fee we can mail your event shirts to you. For more information and to register for the event head to hawb.org/fly.
