PSALM 119

I was recently asked “what are you planning to do for Lent?” Though it took me a little by surprise it was an excellent question and one I ought to have been thinking about as we quickly approach this sacred time – we are only one and a half weeks away from Ash Wednesday. One may say “but we have plenty of time before we have to think about that, which is true; but the reality is we most likely won’t think about it until we are sitting at mass for Ash Wednesday. We become so busy with so many things that we simply go from one project to the other and rarely give any of the projects the time they need and/or deserve. Believe me; I am not trying to place anyone on a “guilt trip.” This is simply the reality of our lives and I include myself in this reality. In the “church world”, it is easy for me to jump from one season to the next and miss the opportunity to reflect on how the Holy Spirit may have been speaking to my heart during a particularly sacred time such as Advent. There is the need for many of us, if not all of us, to slow down, be deliberate about our faith, and reflect on how the Lord may be inviting us to grow in faith through our words, example, family life and so much more. We have a lot of work to do.

This all brings me back to the question about Lent and what I was intending to do during that sacred time. A few things think about:

- Give the issue some time, after all time is one of the most precious commodities we have. Take a few moments, alone or with others and think about how you need to grow. The Spirit speaks - we need to listen.
 - Be creative; this could be a family project that helps everyone be a little more kind, gentle, forgiving, understanding and generous to each other and those we encounter. Share with each other how this was shown in work, school and play. Adults share too! Maybe we share how we could have done better also.
 - Prayer, alms, fasting – these cover a lot of area in the way we live - do something!
 - Work on a way and think about a way to hold yourself accountable. Lent is not a season about “pie in the sky theories,” it is about the hard work of living and loving better. Metanoia is about change for the better, turning away from evil and embracing the good.
 - Let the sign of “ashes” on our foreheads mean something.
 - We have all sorts of resources available through the parish, take advantage – even a little bit – of what they have to offer.
- This sacred time really can make a difference in our lives if we give the Holy Spirit a chance. Try not to let it take you by surprise this year.

Blessings, Fr. Howard

ADULT LENTEN SMALL GROUPS!

Come and join a small group for Lent! Our small groups will discuss the readings for each Sunday of Lent and talk about how they apply to your life. This is a great way to get into the spirit of the season. Come to one session, or all six! Our two session options are Monday nights at 6:30 pm in the church hall, and Thursdays at Noon in the rectory conference room. For the Thursday session you have the option of attending in person or over Zoom. Our Monday night dates are: February 27, March 6, 13, 20, 27, and April 3. Our Thursday afternoon session dates are: February 23, March 2, 9, 16, 23, and 30. To register or for more information, please contact Hannah Bergland at 262-334-9393 or berglanh@hawb.org.

MEN'S AND WOMEN'S RETREATS—SAVE THE DATE!

During Lent, we will be offering Men's and Women's retreat opportunities again! The retreats will be held at the Redemptorist Retreat Center in Oconomowoc. Women's Retreat weekend is March 24-26 and the Men's Retreat weekend is March 31-April 2. Transportation to and from Holy Angels will be provided. The theme for the retreats is, "Taking Time for Peace in the Quiet". The cost is $100, and checks can be made out to Holy Angels Parish. This includes the retreat itself, lodging for the weekend, all meals, including dinner at the parish on Friday night, and transportation to and from the retreat center. If cost is an issue, funds are available. For more information and to register, please contact Hannah Bergland at 262-334-9393 or berglanh@hawb.org.

SPRING BREAK VBS

We had an awesome Spring Break VBS last year, and we are excited to hold it again! Our theme is Food Truck Party! This VBS invites children to pray as Jesus teaches us in Matthew 6:11; "Give us this day our daily bread." These words serve as a reminder that everything we have comes from God — and that it's by turning to God in prayer that all of our daily needs are met. We will also be talking about the Eucharist. Our dates are March 27-30 (this is the spring break for West Bend School District students and Holy Angels School students). It will run from 8:30-Noon each day. Cost is $25 per child with a family max of $75, and is for children in grades K4-5th. For more information and to sign up, please contact Hannah or visit www.hawb.org/vbs

Jan 30-Feb 3 Students of the Week - Joy: "You will go out in joy and be led forth in peace; the mountains and hills will burst into song before you, and all the trees of the field will clap their hands." - Isaiah 55:12

All Holy Angels Students were recognized for showing joy during Catholic Schools Week!

Congratulations to the recent Calendar of Ca$h Winners: Ted Young and Michael Scott

Social Media Initiative: One of the areas of focus for the marketing committee this year is beefing up our Holy Angels social media presence. We feel that these days it is one of the best ways to stay connected to both alumni and current families, as well as reach other young families and help promote our school! To that end, we have created a Holy Angels Instagram account (holyangelsschoolwb) and are currently working to create a "stable" of great content to be posted throughout the year both there and on the Holy Angels Facebook page.

But we could use your help! If you don't already follow our school on Facebook and Instagram, please do! And, if you could like or share any relevant content you see us post, that would be hugely helpful to increasing Holy Angel's reach! For example, sharing posts about public events we have coming up like Open House, Gifts From The Heart, and the fish fry could really help spread the word to a much wider audience about these critical fundraising and new enrollment opportunity events!

Last but not least, we can always use more content! If you have any school, sports, club, field trip, etc, information you think we could use for a post, please send it to either Molly Fies (mollyfies@gmail.com) or Jamie Reinheimer (jamie.salonlux@gmail.com)! We would really appreciate it! As you might imagine, there are some fairly strict Archdiocese guidelines with regard to social media, so we may not be able to use everything, but we really feel we can make a big impact for our school and are excited to contribute!

Kindergarten Registration: Registration is now open for our K3, K4, and K5 programs for the 2023-2024 school year! Please visit our school office or call 262-338-1148 to obtain registration paperwork. Schedule a visit, and come see if a Catholic education is a good fit for your family.

EDUCATION AND ACTIVITY CORNER

Sunday Connection: Families have rules. Without rules, family life would be chaos. As a family, brainstorm a list of rules that you are all called to follow in your home in order for you all to get along together. Think about rules for play time, rules for eating, rules for how to speak to one another, rules for going out with friends, and so on. Emphasize that families follow rules as a way of showing love and respect for one another. Explain that in this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus talks about following the Law. Say: God's Law of love can be thought of as rules that we are to follow in order to show our love and respect for one another. Read aloud this Sunday's Gospel, Matthew 5:17–37. Talk specifically with one another about how anger is to be dealt with in your family. Conclude by praying for the grace to overcome anger and to show respect for one another as a family by following God's Law of love.
