Mission Statement:
To bring Christ's love to our Community through worship, education, service and outreach.

My God,

WHY HAVE YOU ABANDONED ME?

PSALM 22

Palm Sunday, so much to write about and reflect on that it can be intimidating and overwhelming. We read from Matthew's gospel this year and it features some notable features different from the other gospels.

Matthew 21: 9 states, "Hosanna to the Son of David. Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord." Matthew focuses on the Christ element where Jesus preached the kingdom of God and the early church preached Jesus as the Christ. Jesus announced the coming of the kingdom as the breaking in of the saving power of God in his own presence, words and works.

Matthew also tells us the response of the crowd to Jesus entering the city was, "This is the prophet Jesus from Nazareth in Galilee." Calling Jesus, a prophet informed everyone that final and decisive word to Gods people. Matthew has a way of addressing Jesus as such royalty but in a very humble way. This comes from suffering, something all of us are familiar with, how the rejection of one can cause suffering for all and our own self destruction.

When we read about Jesus entry into Jerusalem the people consider him a king and five days later they want him crucified. What inconsistencies in our own faith lives need attention? Who is this man called Jesus? A man who enters a city so humbly, a man who gives his own body and blood so we may receive him in the Eucharist, a man who died on a cross so that he could defeat sin and death forever. This is Jesus!

- Michelle Heeren, Pastoral Associate

Gifts from the Heart and Fish Fry Update: Thank you, everyone, for your generous donations of time, talent, and treasure as we enjoyed another wonderful Gifts from the Heart Raffle and Famous Fish Fry! With the Raffle we raised just over $22,500 and the Fish Fry served over 900 meals!

Kindergarten Registration: Registration is now open for our K3, K4, and K5 programs for the 2023-2024 school year! Please visit our school office or call 262-338-1148 to obtain registration paperwork. Schedule a visit, and come see if a Catholic education is a good fit for your family.

Are you experienced in Grant Writing? We would love to update our playground and are looking for volunteers to find grants to apply for to help with this project. If you are interested in writing grants for us, please contact our school office at 262-338-1148.

Social Media Initiative: One of the areas of focus for the marketing committee this year is beefing up our Holy Angels social media presence. We feel that these days it is one of the best ways to stay connected to both alumni and current families, as well as reach other young families and help promote our school! To that end, we have created a Holy Angels Instagram account (holyangelschoolwb) and are currently working to create a "stable" of great content to be posted throughout the year both there and on the Holy Angels Facebook page.

But we could use your help! If you don't already follow our school on Facebook and Instagram, please do! And, if you could like or share any relevant content you see us post, that would be hugely helpful to increasing Holy Angels' reach! For example, sharing posts about public events we have coming up like Gifts From The Heart and the Fish Fry could really help spread the word to a much wider audience about these critical fundraising and new enrollment opportunity events!

KNITTERS AND CROCHETERS NEEDED!

Do you knit or crochet? Members of our Holy Angels Prayer Shawl Ministry are in need of more people to make prayer shawls for those going through a difficult time in their lives. Our supply of prayer shawls has been depleted so we need to make more. Each shawl should be 18" wide by 60"-64" long. The shawls can be knitted or crocheted in any pattern you'd like. Preferably no fringe on the shawl. Please take them to the rectory or contact Carol Bork (262-338-8558, caroljbork@gmail.com) with any questions or to be picked up. Each shawl will be bagged with a prayer and blessed before being distributed. Thank you!

DISCUSSION ON HOUSING DISCRIMINATION

Milwaukee is one of the most racially segregated cities in the U.S. This is not accidental, but rather the product of decades of institutional policies and practices that have denied equal housing access to people of color. Holy Angels, All Saints, and Lumen Christi invites you to learn from local experts about the history of discriminatory practices in Milwaukee and surrounding areas and discuss what we can do to make a difference. The series finishes on Sat, April 22 at Lumen Christi from 8:30-11:30am. For more info: racialjustice@hawb.org.

RACIAL JUSTICE REFLECTION

Earlier this Lent our 9th-10th graders prayed with the CRS-Rice Bowl Stations of the Cross, recalling Jesus' solidarity in suffering with those on the margins in our world today. As we enter this Holy Week recalling Jesus' Passion, the CRS reflections are fitting for each of us. "When the governor asks the crowd, "Which of the two do you want me to release?" They answered, "Barabbas! ... Let [Jesus] be crucified!" (Matthew 27:21-22) As we imagine this scene, perhaps we see chaos, people pushing and pulling at each other, screaming and shouting.

There is manipulation and bribery afoot; a good man has been arrested and is about to be killed as a public spectacle, and the laws of the land stand in silence. Perhaps this scene seems far removed—something we may glimpse in the news, something that happens in faraway countries under foreign governments. Perhaps, too, it is something we know well, or have witnessed in our schools or cities. We are called to live in solidarity as one family, each of us made in the image and likeness of God. We are responsible for one another, for what happens to our neighbors next door and our neighbors in Milwaukee. Though we may not have experienced such personal upheaval, we are called to empathize with those who have. So then, do we stand silent in the crowd, or do we shout? And if we shout, what do we say?" Read more at helpinghands.crs.org. Ponder with us at RacialJustice@hawb.org.

EDUCATION AND ACTIVITY CORNER

Sunday Connection: Palm, or Passion Sunday begins the most sacred week of the Church year—Holy Week. During these days, we prepare ourselves for Easter by prayerful reflection upon the events of Jesus' Passion and death. Display a crucifix in a prominent place this week, as reminder of the salvation Christ won for us. The crucifix can also be the focal point for family prayer during Holy Week.

Because of the length and complexity of the Passion narrative, young children have difficulty remaining attentive when it is proclaimed in its entirety. Families can choose to read a portion of this Sunday's Gospel each day of Holy Week, providing ample opportunity for children to ask questions and respond to the events described there. In this way, the entire week can become a "way of the cross." Each day during Holy Week, the family can gather in a prayerful space with a crucifix as the focal point. The Passion as found in Matthew's Gospel might be read as follows throughout the week:

Sunday: Matthew 21:1-11 (Gospel at the Procession with Palms)

Monday: Matthew 26:14-25

Tuesday: Matthew 26:26-35

Wednesday: Matthew 26:36-56

Thursday: Matthew 26:57-27:14

Friday: Matthew 27:15-54

After reading from the Gospel each night, the family might reflect on the reading together. Conclude your prayer time together by praying the Lord's Prayer and/or singing an appropriate hymn, such as "Were You There?" or "What Wondrous Love Is This."
