Embracing Jesus

Imagine standing at the foot of the cross when our Lord Jesus was crucified. The Blessed Mother is there, along with Mary Magdalene and the Apostle John. As you look up at Jesus, you see Him suffering, bleeding, and struggling to breathe. Out of love and compassion for Jesus, you might want to wrap your arms around Him and embrace Him. You might climb a ladder to reach Him. But the body of Jesus is nailed to the cross. It is impossible to embrace Jesus without embracing the cross.

Jesus' poor body is exhausted from carrying the cross, and His skin is cut and bleeding in so many places because of the scourging. To embrace Jesus, you will need to become covered in His sweat and blood. Jesus' head is crowned with thorns, which pierce deeply into His skull. If you embrace Jesus closely, and press your head against His, your own head will be pierced by those same thorns. It is impossible to embrace Jesus without embracing the cross, without becoming stained with His blood, and without feeling His pain.

Sometimes we imagine a relationship with Jesus which excludes the cross. We only want to be comforted by Him, be blessed by Him, and to share in His joy. Peter also wanted such a relationship. His rejection of the cross led to him denying Jesus three times. But our Lord Jesus had taught His disciples, "Whoever wishes to be my disciple must take up His cross daily and follow me." We cannot embrace Jesus without also embracing the cross.

To embrace us, Jesus had to embrace the cross. In taking up the cross, it was our sins He carried. He took our sufferings to Himself, and experienced death for each one of us. On the cross, Jesus was not just suffering as one man: on the cross Jesus was suffering every pain and sorrow of every person who will ever be born into this world. On the cross He experienced countless deaths. By embracing us, Jesus accepted the condemnation which is rightfully ours, and suffered the pains of hell for us that we might be spared eternal damnation.

Jesus is not ashamed to embrace us, and He does not turn away from us in disgust. By His love He humbled Himself to bear the cross for our salvation. Jesus is not ashamed to embrace us when we are bad. He does not turn away from us in our pain, but instead enters into it and makes it His own. As Christians, it is impossible for us to suffer alone, for our suffering is the suffering of Jesus. When we are lost, Jesus comes to find us. And when we face death, Jesus is already there ahead of us, calling us to pass through death to eternal life. For in embracing us, Jesus embraced the cross, and through His death destroyed death, and opened to us the Kingdom of eternal life.

To embrace us, it was necessary for Jesus to embrace the cross. Likewise, it is impossible to embrace Jesus without embracing that same cross.

Fr. Roberts

Food Pantry Garden

Believe it or not, our food pantry garden has a national audience! One of our gardeners works for Anthem and they are encouraged to “give back” to their communities. In her team meetings she has been sharing updates about the garden. Now they want to know what the status of the garden is when she participates in meetings with folks from across the country such as Atlanta, St. Louis and Virginia. She has shared about what we plant, what we harvest each week and even about the SNAKE EGGS we found last year tucked between layers of a bale of straw.

It is encouraging to hear that folks across the country are interested in our garden, and recognize the value of sharing their time & talent with their communities.

THANK YOU to everyone who has worked in the garden in the past, which supports the St. Anthony & Holy Trinity food pantry. If you would like to receive regular garden updates and maybe come join us playing in the dirt, you can email Connie Merkel at connie\_merkel@gmail.com

The Family of Josephine Healy wishes to extend our sincere gratitude to all at St. Barnabas who attended her funeral, giving us your loving support.

We especially wish to thank Fr. Guy and Deacon Jerry for their spiritual and pastoral care during Mom’s final weeks; the caring support and guidance of Patty Cain, and the selfless support of the Funeral meal Ministry.

One Minute Meditations

Healthy worship

Recent medical studies revealed that people who attend church at least weekly have longer life expectancies and fewer complications from illnesses or surgeries than non-churchgoers. Going to church may not protect us from health crises, but it does help us cope with them.

Empty and fill

There are times in our lives when we have to empty our minds of negativity so God can replace it with peace and joy. Each day, take time to rid yourself of anger, fear, self-pity, jealousy, and bitterness. Then look for God's gifts of peace, wisdom, friendship, forgiveness, and love.

Speak the truth

Do you have the courage to speak out against injustice or sin? Yes, when you do, you may be called "intolerant" for sharing Gospel truths, but tolerance doesn't render truth untrue. In fact, saying nothing can be worse. Christ is clear: "When your brother sins, rebuke him and when he repents, forgive him" (Luke 17:3).

Give Sundays to God

God intended Sundays as days for worship, rest, and charity for His people. In today's world, however, it can be challenging to "keep holy the Lord's Day." Try these suggestions to recapture your Sundays for God:

Worship: Mass is a direct encounter with God. Make it the center and highlight of your day. Prepare yourself to receive Jesus in the Eucharist by going to Confession regularly and staying aware of your conscience so as to avoid sin. One of the best ways to honor Him is respond to His love with your own.

Rest: Make Sunday different from the rest of the week. Avoid unnecessary work. Finish errands and chores by sundown on Saturday. Serve leftovers or casseroles on paper plates to minimize washing up. Limit screen time, social media, online shopping.

Joy: God rested on the Seventh Day and delighted in His creation (Genesis 1:31-2:2). Find time today to do something that brings you joy. Spend time with loved ones, take a nature walk, indulge in a hobby, read a good book.

Charity: Traditionally, charitable works are performed on the Lord's Day. Consider putting money in the poor box at church, donating food or clothes to a shelter, or visiting a lonely neighbor. Don't forget, praying for others and treating them with kindness is a much-needed act of charity.

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Why do Catholics believe Jesus "descended into hell"?

In the Apostles Creed, we profess that Jesus "descended into hell" – Hades in Greek or Sheol in Hebrew. Used here, it means "the realm of the dead," not necessarily the place of punishment.

Human sin closed the gates of heaven even to righteous souls, until Christ's coming. After accomplishing our redemption on the Cross, Jesus descended to the underworld, bringing news of their salvation to the righteous souls who were waiting to enter heaven (Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC), #633).

Keep Easter joy alive throughout the year

Easter Sunday celebrates Jesus' victory over death, sin, and Satan. In fact, it is the most important event in human history. This joy Easter inspires can't be contained to just one day; the Church gives us a whole season to celebrate. Try these ideas to prolong the joy of Easter:

Keep a Lenten practice that helped you grow closer to God – a small sacrifice to honor His sacrifice. For example, attend an extra Mass during the week, or perform an act of charity to share God's love.

Decorate the house. Celebrate the victory Christ won for you. Display an image of the Risen Christ in your home.

Decorate crosses and statues with white sashes. Put out bouquets of flowers (real or silk) for the garden in which Jesus rose (John 19:41).

Proclaim the Good News. Mary Magdalene was the first to share the news of the Resurrection (John 20:17). Share it, too, by wearing a cross or crucifix, saying grace in public, talking about His grace, imitating His forgiveness.

from Scripture

John 20:19-31, "Jesus, I trust in You"

The two Resurrection appearances of Jesus to His disciples in this passage highlight God's merciful love. The first appearance was on Easter Sunday. Jesus could have abandoned His Apostles, just as they had abandoned Him in the Garden of Gethsemane, but He didn't. Instead, Jesus appeared to them and gave them His peace, His Spirit, and the power to forgive sins in His name.

The second visit was for "Doubting" Thomas, who wasn't present for the first appearance. Thomas couldn't believe that Jesus was really risen, despite the accounts of eyewitnesses.

He demanded physical proof. Jesus appeared in the Upper Room and invited Thomas to investigate. St. Thomas, moved to faith, cried out, "My Lord and my God!" (John 20:28).

This passage reminds us we can always bring our doubts, fears, and need for forgiveness to God, especially on the Sunday after Easter — Divine Mercy Sunday. To the disciples who abandoned Him, Jesus extended His peace and forgiveness. For St. Thomas who had been struggling with doubt, Jesus came in person to strengthen his faith. "Jesus, I trust in You!"

Q & A

Why do Catholics display crucifixes?

Catholics display the Crucifix because it reminds us of Jesus' sacrifice, His victory, and His love for us.

His sacrifice. Jesus willingly sacrificed Himself for us on the Cross. At every Mass, the moment of Jesus' sacrifice is made mysteriously present again in the sacrifice of the Eucharist in an unbloody manner. The Crucifix indicates that the sacrifice of the Cross and the Mass are one sacrifice (CCC #1545).

His victory. The Crucifix looks like defeat, but in fact, it's a sign of victory. Jesus' sacrifice reconciled us with God, reopened Heaven to us, and broke the grip of death. Jesus took on death, sin, and evil, and rose again in triumph.

His love. "Greater love has no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends" (John 15:13). The Crucifix reveals how precious we are to God. Jesus taught us that true love seeks the good of the other. Jesus put our good first. He endured the crucifixion so we can be with Him forever in Heaven.

Feasts & Celebrations

April 5 – St. Vincent Ferrer (1419). Against his parents' wishes, St. Vincent Ferrer joined the Dominican Order. He preached through much of Europe. He was called the Angel of Judgment because his sermons aimed to prepare his listeners for judgment.

April 8 – St. Julie Billiart (1816). Born in France, St. Mary Rose Julie Billiart was devoted to the care and education of the poor. After receiving a vision of her future religious order, she later founded the Sisters of Notre Dame.

April 24 – Divine Mercy Sunday. In 1931, Jesus appeared to St. Faustina and asked that the Sunday after Easter become the "Feast of Mercy." Jesus promised special graces to those who honor him as the King of Mercy and pray The Chaplet of Divine Mercy.

April 25 - St. Mark (1st century). St. Mark wrote the second Gospel largely based on St. Peter's perspective. He accompanied Saints Paul and Barnabas on their journey through Cyprus and is credited with founding the Church of Alexandria.
