Update on Parish Pictorial Directory

Our publisher, Universal Church Directories updated us recently that we can expect to receive our new parish pictorial directories sometime in May. They have been experiencing production delays on their end.

Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion (EMHC) Training

There will be an EMHC training session on Monday, May 2, at 7:00 PM in the Church (meet in the Narthex).

Anyone who is interested in joining the EMHC Ministry is welcome to attend.

Current Ministers who are in need of refresher training are also welcome to attend.

- To be eligible to serve, EMHC must have received the sacraments of Baptism, Holy Communion, and Confirmation in the Catholic Church.
- High school students may be eligible to earn service hours for their service as an EMHC.

Fear and Doubt

Three times in today's Gospel reading Jesus says, "Peace be with you." Jesus wants us to have peace in our souls, but most of the time we are not truly at peace. That lack of peace gnaws at us inside, causing us to be restless, and to behave in strange ways. Most of life's problems arise from two sources: fear, and doubt. When we doubt God's existence, we find limited meaning in our own. This lack of meaning in our lives causes us to go in search of something to make us feel we have some value within ourselves. When we do believe in God, but doubt His love for us, we live in constant fear of Him. But Jesus wants us to have peace. And this peace can come to us in the midst of our fear and doubt. In fact, these are the very places where Jesus comes to meet us, to say to us, "Peace be with you!"

On that first Easter evening, the Apostles were hiding behind locked doors, out of fear that what had happened to Jesus would also happen to them. They did not yet believe that Jesus had arisen from the tomb; for them, Jesus was dead. Yet, in spite of the locked doors, Jesus entered into their midst, saying, "Peace be with you." Once they witnessed their risen Lord, they rejoiced. A second time, Jesus said, "Peace be with you," as He declared that He was sending them out into the world, just as the Father had sent Him. By this, the Apostles found their purpose. They had been fishermen, and tax collectors, but now they realized their higher calling: to bring peace to the world by proclaiming God's love in Jesus Christ. Then, Jesus breathed the Spirit on them. This giving of the Spirit was for the authority to forgive sins; later, on Pentecost, they would receive the power of the Spirit to become missionaries.

Thomas was not with the other Apostles when Jesus came to them alive. When he returned, Thomas refused to accept their joyful testimony. He doubted, and in his doubt placed conditions on his belief in the resurrection of Jesus. He declared that he would not believe until he saw Jesus with his own eyes, and touched the nail and spear marks in Jesus' body. A week later, Jesus came again into the locked room, and said, "Peace be with you!" Then, He told Thomas to touch the marks in His body, as He admonished him for his refusal to believe the testimony of his brothers.

There is something very fascinating here to which we must give our attention. Thomas placed restrictions on his belief in Jesus' resurrection. What Thomas wanted proof of is that the man, Jesus of Nazareth, had risen from the dead. Thomas knew that dead people simply do not rise from the grave. But Thomas' encounter with the risen Jesus took him to a greater experience: upon seeing Jesus, and touching Him, Thomas did not say, "You fellows were right: the man, Jesus, our teacher, is alive again." No, Thomas was seeing more than a dead man alive again. Thomas declared, "My Lord, and my God!" Thomas came to a new understanding that Jesus was in fact God made flesh. Now, he would have a truly profound and supernatural peace in his soul.

Although Jesus had appeared to the Apostles a week earlier, on that second Sunday they were still behind locked doors. And, even after Jesus' second visit, the Apostles were not yet ready to go out and evangelize. They were still growing in God's grace, and working through their fear. Only weeks later, after receiving the Holy Spirit, were they equipped to leave their room and go out to proclaim the resurrection to the world. On that occasion, they had been praying together in the upper room, preparing themselves for the mission Jesus would give them.

Jesus comes to us when we are locked away within ourselves due to fear and doubt. In fact, Jesus uses fear and doubt to cause our faith to grow. As our faith grows, so does our peace. Let Jesus meet you in your fear and doubt. Say to Him, "Jesus, I'm afraid, and I feel locked away in my fear. Jesus, I doubt, but I want to believe. Jesus, I want to know you, and to have peace." Jesus always knows where to find us, and He can even come into our locked rooms. When He comes, all we must do is to accept Him, on His terms. When He comes, He takes us beyond our expectations to experience Him in ways beyond our comprehension. Today, simply say to Jesus, "Here I am, Lord. Here I am in my doubts, my fear, my confusion." There, Jesus will come and say, "Peace be with you. I am here for you, even in your fear and doubt."

HOOP NEWS

Thank you to Vivian Bailey and the Bible Study group that prepared a delicious meal for our friends living on the streets of Indianapolis. The cold, damp weather had returned, and the chicken noodle soup hit the spot.

As you may have noticed on the HOOP box, HOOP will no longer be collecting items in the box at St. Barnabas. HOOP is collaborating with two other homeless ministries and will be combining our collection efforts in order to be better stewards of our storage costs and supplies. In the future, if we have specific needs we will ask for those items through the bulletin and newsletter. HOOP will continue our outings serving food and offering supplies to our friends experiencing homelessness. We will continue to need groups to prepare food for those outings.

Thank you to those who expressed interest in HOOP on the time and talent sheets. We are collecting those names and will contact you about a meeting to answer any questions.

Thank you for your continued support. We need a group to prepare food for us on 24th.

Gabriel Giving Tree

For several years our parish has supported a Gabriel Project Giving Tree. This tree will be displayed in the narthex in late April and early May to coordinate with Mother's Day! Help us honor the Mothers served by the Gabriel Project by choosing a tag/tags from the tree, purchasing the items and placing them (unwrapped) in the pack & play in the narthex. Donations may be dropped off between April 30th & May 15th. Any items returned after those dates may be placed in the Gabriel Project box at the main entrance to church. We are truly so blessed and humbled by the support we receive from St. Barnabas! Thank you!

St. Anthony & Holy Trinity Food Pantry

For the past 7-8 years our pantry has received "Easter baskets" from the northside deanery churches. Each church collects food during Lent and together they assemble 1000 "baskets" which have the makings of a complete Easter dinner,, including the ham! Our pantry receives 50 baskets for our families so that they can celebrate the holiday with a nice meal.

St. Matthew, St. Lawrence, St. Joan of Arc, St. Luke, St. Pius, Christ the King, & Immaculate Heart of Mary parishes work together on this amazing project.

Thank you also to our parish family for supporting the pantry with donations each week at the doors of the church. Current needs include shampoo, toothpaste, dish soap and laundry soap. These items are always in short supply!

Handing in Rice Bowl Contributions:

- Please convert the money you donate into a check payable to St Barnabas with CRS Rice Bowl on the memo line.
- the collection box is under the CRS Rice Bowl poster in the Narthex.
- Thru Faith Direct indicate CRS Rice Bowl as your intention.

Many Thanks for participating in this campaign to raise funds for people in need all over the earth.

CATHOLIC SOCIAL TEACHING: Care of Creation

As part of our Outreach Ministry team meetings we are discussing the Principles of Catholic Social Teaching, and how we are promoting those teachings here at St. Barnabas. Recently we discussed Care for God's Creation.

Pope Francis tells us that "Everything is connected. Concern for the environment thus needs to be joined to a sincere love for our fellow human beings and an unwavering commitment to resolving the problems of society."

At St. Barnabas we offer recycling opportunities for our parishioners. In the front parking lot there are 2 bins for paper recycling. That includes; newspapers, magazines, office/school paper, sales catalogs and mail. These bins DO NOT take phone books or cardboard.

Also in the front parking lot is the St. Vincent de Paul clothing bin. This bin accepts SOFT goods; clothing, shoes, linens, blankets etc. NOTHING BREAKABLE. These items are given to the families served by SVdP or may be sold at the Mission 27 shop to support SVdP programs.

In the back lot is a recycle bin for aluminum cans. They DO NOT TAKE GLASS OR PLASTIC.

Please take advantage of these opportunities to make use of items that you no longer want or need. Pope Benedict XVI tells us "we must recognize our grave duty to hand the earth on to future generations in such a condition that they too can worthily inhabit it and continue to cultivate it." Recycling is just one small way to protect our earth for future generations.

From the Sidewalk

A review of January, 2022 abortion numbers vs January 2021 shows that Planned Parenthood had a drop of almost 20% in abortions! Our efforts are working!

Do you feel a calling to be a witness to the sanctity of the life of unborn children? Would you like to learn more about how YOU can participate in this beautiful lifesaving ministry? Please consider attending a Sidewalk Advocates for Life training program, which will be held on Saturday, April 30th from 8:30 am to 4 pm. Registration is $10 (payable at the door). Training manual included. No special skills are needed-just a humble desire to reach out in love to those experiencing an unplanned pregnancy and a willingness to volunteer as a sidewalk advocate or prayer partner outside the Planned Parenthood facility on Georgetown Rd. in northwest Indianapolis after training is completed.

Deadline to register is Tuesday, April 26th.

For more information call or email Sheryl Dye at smdye1@gmail.com or 317-407-6881. Training location will be provided upon registration.
