Weekly Total of Daily Masses: 1044

Total of Vigil and Sunday Mass: 1065

Divine Mercy: 300

The Most Reverend Charles C. Thompson
Archdiocese of Indianapolis
1400 N. Meridian Street
Indianapolis, IN 46202-2367 317-236-1403

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Our eyes turn from the needs of the Church overseas to the needs of mission dioceses in the United States in the upcoming Catholic Home Missions Appeal, April 24-25. There are more than 80 home mission dioceses in the United States and in its dependencies in the Caribbean and Pacific regions. Poverty, the shortage of priestly and religious vocations, and territorial distance are just a few of the challenges faced by Catholics. Without our help the basics of providing the Mass and Sacraments, religious education, ministry training for clergy and religious, and outreach are difficult and sometimes impossible.

Just as with the other national collections, funds collected by the Catholic Home Missions Appeal are distributed through a grant process. Because of the generosity of Catholics across the country, 77 awards totaling nearly $10 million were awarded in 2020 to support pastoral services in dioceses like, Belleville IL, El Paso TX, Juneau AK, and Samoa-Pago Pago. Funds are used to strengthen the presence of the Church where it weak or where the Church is not now present.

In the Diocese of Santa Rosa CA, a project to bring justice and healing receives Catholic Home Missions Appeal funds. The activities of the diocese's Catholic Restorative Justice Ministries bring the experience of Catholic pastoral care to criminal offenders reentering society, to victims of crime and their families, and spiritual support to justice system personnel. When you participate in the Catholic Home Missions Appeal, you join in the Church's healing mission of mercy to all.

Your support of this appeal makes a difference in the lives of our brothers and sisters right here in the United States. Please prayerfully consider how you can support the Catholic Home Missions Appeal this year. Thank you for strengthening the Church at home.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Charles C. Thompson Archbishop of Indianapolis

Thursday Evening 'Prayer for Life

"Prayer is the raising of one's mind and heart to God or the requesting of good things from God."

- Catechism of the Catholic Church #2559

Every Thursday evening following the 5:30 p.m. Mass, the Pro-Life Committee invites you to join them in the Daily Mass Chapel
as they raise their hearts to God praying for an end to abortion and euthanasia, and for the recognition that all life is sacred.

The Flame of Love Rosary and Chaplet of Divine Mercy are prayed.

Act, and God will act.

- St. Joan of Arc

PROVIDENCE NEVER FAILS

Dear Parishioners,

You know that I rarely yield this space for my weekly letter to another writer. But I'm going to do so this weekend. I'm reprinting here a recent letter from Timothy Cardinal Dolan to the people of the Archdiocese of New York.

Cardinal Dolan has been a long time friend. I met him over 25 years ago when I was the vocation director for the archdiocese and then Msgr. Dolan was the rector of the North American Seminary in Rome. He has a great way about him. His letter is spot on in making the points I wish to make:

God told us, "Remember to keep holy the Lord's Day!" For two millennia, we Catholics have believed that we best keep Holy the Lord's Day by Sunday Mass.

Yes, for the last year, we have prudently been able to decide that the emergency health crisis can allow us to excuse ourselves from that God-given obligation. Our elderly or people with compromising conditions that weaken them can still excuse themselves, as has always been the case.

But for the majority of us—are we going to restaurants? To the kids' soccer and little league games? To the store? To the beauty parlor? To gatherings with family and friends? Well, then, it's time to get back to Mass.

One of our fine pastors gave me this incident. He stopped at the supermarket in his neighborhood for a bit of shopping. There he kept meeting parishioners who greeted him and told him how they missed Sunday Mass and wanted to get back. Finally, exasperated, he replied, "Here you are in a crowded store shopping, taking your time, in contact with items touched by hundreds of people. Church is a lot safer! Come back to get food for your soul!"

A year ago, we, your pastors, advised you not to come to church. We had no choice, since wise health guidelines required us to close our church buildings. We reminded our people that protecting our health, and that of others, in the midst of an international pandemic were very good moral reasons not to attend Mass.

Our parishes responded with live-stream

Masses, but all know those, however much appreciated, are not the same as "being there." In the summer, those health precautions eased up a bit, and we could re-open and invite a limited number back.

Our parishes rose to the occasion with scrupulous cleaning, sanitation, ventilation, distancing, and restrictions—masks, no holy water or sign of peace, no contact or Communion from the chalice—and you gradually began to return. No more gradual about it! It's time to get back to Sunday Mass!

We have just celebrated our highest holy day—Easter! Jesus has risen from the dead! That very night, the gospel tells us, He celebrated Mass with the two disciples He had met on the road to Emmaus. He did that evening what He had done the Thursday before at His Last Supper. And, "They recognized Him in the breaking of the bread!"

We recognize Jesus at Mass and Holy Communion. We enter again the eternal, infinite mystery of His death on the cross and resurrection from the dead. Every Sunday Mass is a renewal of the Last Supper, Good Friday, and Easter. It's time to get back to Sunday Mass!

Wear masks, yes! Get tested, you bet! Wash hands, please! Get vaccinated as soon as you can, sure! Keep social distancing, of course! Don't go if you're sick, elderly or your health is shaky, obviously! Don't shake hands! Be grateful for the good folks carefully sanitize the Church after each Mass. But, for God's sake, get back to Sunday Mass!

We need medicine! We need food for the soul! We need vaccination from sin, Satan and eternal death! We need herd immunity as sheep under Christ our Good Shepherd. All this we behold at Mass! How can we stay away? Easter blessings! See you at Mass!
(Timothy Cardinal Dolan)

A Tip of My Biretta (Hat) to: The organizers of our Divine Mercy Devotion last Sunday afternoon! It was beautiful. The number of persons attending was wonderful—over 300.

Profound appreciation to these organizers, musicians, and cantors who made it so beautiful: Tanya Martinez, Cash

Moore, Diane Schafer, Jane Spahn, and Buff Whaley. We appreciate you very much. Stewardship in Action!

Ask Monsignor a Question: During Lent Catholics are supposed to abstain from meat on Fridays; fasting and abstaining on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. I love fish and so I generally eat fish or a vegetarian meal at least once a week usually on Fridays all year round. So the rule for abstaining in Lent does not seem to make any difference for me from my normal routine. Is there something else I should be doing? (Via email)

This is a great question. It also applies to me personally. I too like fish very much. And the short answer to your question is "Yes."

For years Catholics were obliged to do penance by abstaining from meat on all Fridays of the year. When the Second Vatican Council began to make some changes in our practices, the obligatory "no meat Fridays" were dropped. Everybody seems to know that.

Yet, what everybody does not seem to know is that Canon Law #1250 says that "All Fridays through the year are penitential days and times throughout the Universal Church." In other words, we are obliged to do some form of penance on all Fridays.

The bottom line then is that everyone should do some form of penance every Friday. During Lent the penance is specified: no meat. It seems then that if abstaining from meat is not a penance for you or for me, we need to substitute some other form of penance. These can include works of charity or piety.

Last month I mentioned in this letter that former Notre Dame Irish Coach Lou Holtz jokes that we abstain from meat because the apostles were fisherman. Doing without meat on Fridays would promote the sale of fish! I don't think that's true. Coach Holtz goes on to say that it's too bad the apostles were not ranchers!

Of one thing I am convinced; of one thing I am certain: Providence never fails!

Faithfully yours in the Providence that so far had never failed us,

Msgr. Joseph Schaedel

Diaconate Ordinations
 ~Last Saturday, April 10, 2021 ~
 Saint Meinrad Archabbey Church

Seminarians Michael Clawson and Matthew Perronie were ordained transitional deacons on Saturday. Please continue to pray for them as they prepare for their priestly ordinations next summer. Thank you for your continued support to all of our seminarians!

Please see below if you would like to offer any specific prayers for Deacon Michael and Deacon Matthew.

Vestry Takes Shape

The photo above (left), shows the interior of our new vestry. You may recall that we have decided to call the new sacristy space the “vestry” – leaving the designation of “sacristy” for our existing, older space.

There is a large, walk-in closet for vestments and sacred vessels, as well as an area for the celebrant to vest or sit down.

Our timeline has the vestry scheduled for completion in late Spring.

Begin Preschool Site Work

Preschool site work began at the conclusion of Spring Break, due to contractor schedules. As you can see, the bocce ball courts have been removed but they will be in their new location for the start of their league on April 26.

STEWARDSHIP

How to Fail Your Way to Heaven

You know what are some of my favorite moments in Scripture? The little “Easter eggs” of Jesus’ humanity, things like Jesus falling asleep, Jesus drawing in the sand, Jesus playing with kids. And how about Jesus rising from the dead, appearing to his disciples and saying, “So, have you got anything to eat?”

It’s right for us to always keep in mind that Jesus is God. But we also have to remember that he was man. He got hungry. He cried when he felt sad and laughed when he felt happy. He got tired. He got bored.

Because he was God, none of those feelings ever led him into sin, like they do us. He never spent a car ride trying to pass the hours by seeing how annoyed he could make his older sister. He never smacked Peter over the head for saying something really stupid. But he did unleash some Biblically righteous anger on those traders in the temple, didn’t he? And he wasn’t shy about calling Peter “a Satan” when his friend tempted him to take the easy way out.

It’s the tightrope walk we all try to balance every day, honoring our human emotions while still answering God’s call to be better. Being perfect isn’t the domain of the Christian — that’s the domain of Christ only. Trying and failing, then trying again (and failing again) and again and again? That’s the domain of the Christian.
