STEWARDSHIP

Touching the Cloak of Christ

Look to today's Gospel and you'll find one of the most arresting images in all of Scripture. Christ in a crowd, everyone clamoring for his attention, pressing against him. Several feet away, is a chronically ill woman, weak and desperate for help. She knows she doesn't have a chance of getting his attention. She has no connections. She has no strength. All she can do is lift up her hand.

So that's what she does. She reaches out.

There comes a time, or maybe several times, in each of our lives when we become this woman. We're tired and we're sick. Is it with sin? With fear? With anger? It doesn't matter. Whatever it is, it's made us weak, and we feel like we've run out of options. We've looked for help and come up empty. We've consulted friends and gotten nowhere. We're lost in the crowd of life, unable to stick our heads above the pressing throng to wave for help.

And there is Christ, always passing by us. The hem of his cloak is never far from our grasp. We have no hope of a big miracle like the synagogue leader. We don't even bother asking for that. But that cloak ... we can touch that cloak. That's something we can do.

Do we do it, though? Do we have the confidence of that sick, beaten-down woman who knew so totally that healing was there for the taking? Or do we retreat back into the crowd, stumbling back home with our pain and our sinfulness? Reach out, friends. However, whatever, whenever — reach out. Christ will not fail you.

-Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

PROVIDENCE NEVER FAILS

Dear Parishioners,

We're back! Or did you even miss us? Both Msgr. Stumpf and I attended our Clergy Convocation this past week at Saint Meinrad Archabbey and Seminary. It was great to be with our archbishop and brother-priests for four days. We had not been together like this for two years.

It was also good to be back at Saint Meinrad. I have many fond memories of those days. It did not seem so great at the time, but it sure was. It also makes a difference when one can come and go as he pleases!

You know that I rarely yield this bulletin letter space to another writer. But I am going to do so again this weekend. Bishop Robert Barron, a successful evangelizer has written a wonderful essay on the necessity of returning to Mass each weekend:

The past fifteen months have been a time of crisis and deep challenge for our country, and they have been a particular trial for the Catholics. During this terrible COVID period, many of us have been compelled to fast from attendance at Mass and the reception of the Eucharist. To be sure, numerous Masses have been made available online, and thank God for these.

But Catholics know in their bones that such virtual presentations are absolutely no substitute for the real thing. Now that the doors of our churches are wide open, I would like to urge every Catholic reading these words: Come back to Mass!

Why is the Mass of such central importance? The Second Vatican Council eloquently teaches that the Eucharist is the "source and summit of the Christian life"—which is to say, that from which authentic Christianity comes and toward which it tends. It is the alpha and the omega of the spiritual life.

The Church consistently teaches that the Eucharist is sustenance for eternal life. In the measure that we internalize the Body and Blood of Jesus, we are readied for life with Him in the next world. Thomas Aquinas said that all of the other sacraments contain the virtus Christi (the power of Christ) but that the Eucharist contains ipse Christus (Christ Himself)—and this would help to explain why Saint. Thomas could never make it through the Mass without shedding copious tears. It is precisely at the Mass that we are privileged to receive this incomparable gift. Without it, we starve to death spiritually.

During the Liturgy of the Word, we hear not simply human words crafted by poetic geniuses, but rather the words of the Word. In the readings, and especially in the Gospel, it is Christ Who speaks to us. In our responses, we speak back to Him, entering into conversation with the second person of the Trinity.

Then, in the Liturgy of the Eucharist, the same Jesus who has spoken to us offers His Body and Blood for us to consume. There is simply, this side of heaven, no more intimate communion possible with the Lord.

I realize that many Catholics during this COVID period have become accustomed to the ease of attending Mass virtually from the comfort of their own homes. But a key feature of the Mass is precisely our coming together as a community. As we speak, pray, sing, and respond together, we realize our identity as the Mystical Body of Jesus. During the liturgy, the priest functions in persona Christi (in the very person of Christ), and the baptized in attendance join themselves symbolically to Christ the head and together offer worship to the Father.

There is an exchange between priest and people at Mass that is crucially important though often overlooked. Just before the prayer over the gifts, the priest says, "Pray, brothers and sisters, that my sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God, the almighty Father..." At that moment, head and members consciously join together to make the perfect sacrifice to the Father. The point is that this cannot happen when we are scattered in our homes and sitting in front of computer screens.

If I might signal the importance of the Mass in a more negative manner, the Church has consistently taught that baptized Catholics are morally obligated to attend Mass on Sunday and that the conscious missing of Mass, in the absence of a valid excuse, is mortally sinful.

I understand that this language makes many people today uncomfortable, but it shouldn't, for it is perfectly congruent with everything we have said about the Mass to this point. If the Eucharistic liturgy is, in fact, the source and summit of the Christian life, the privileged encounter with Jesus Christ, the moment when the Mystical Body most fully expresses itself, the setting for the reception of the bread of heaven—then we are indeed putting ourselves, spiritually speaking, in mortal danger when we actively stay away from it.

Just as a physician might observe that you are endangering your life by eating fatty foods, smoking, and refraining from exercise, so a doctor of the soul will tell you that abstaining from the Mass is compromising your spiritual health.

But come back to Mass! And might I suggest that you bring someone with you, someone who has been away too long or has perhaps been lulled into complacency during COVID? Let your own Eucharistic hunger awaken an evangelical impulse in you. Invite your co-workers and family members; wake up the kids on Sunday morning; turn off your computers. Come back to Mass!

A Tip of My Biretta (Hat) to: Saint Vincent Hospital Chaplains Father Ben and Father Jude. They kept all of our confessions and Masses on schedule this past week while Msgr. Stumpf and I were at Saint Meinrad. Thank you!

Ask Monsignor a Question: Will there be another Rummage Sale this August? (Via email)

No. The 8th grade parents will again not sponsor to the Rummage Sale this summer because of COVID complications and some lack of space because of our construction project. The sale raised money for the annual 8th grade trip to Washington, D.C.

However, the parents are sponsoring a spectacular Bingo Night on Saturday, August 28. Watch for details. It will be great fun with great prizes!

Of one thing I am convinced; of one thing I am certain: Providence never fails!

Faithfully yours in the Providence that so far had never failed us,

Msgr. Joseph Schaedel

June 30 - Fatima is the 2020 movie about the multiple visitations of Our Lady of the Rosary to three young Portuguese children in 1917. The children share with the people of their time the Blessed Mother's message that only through prayer and suffering would WWI end. The movie reveals the price the young visionaries paid as they obediently conveyed the messages of the Blessed Mother during a time of disbelief and rebellion. The message of Fatima goes beyond the turn of the 20th century and is also meant for our modern times.

CHRISTIAN SOCIAL ACTION

First Sunday Sharing is Next Weekend

As we all know, poverty exists throughout the year. Our own Saint Luke Christian Social Action Commission (CSAC) and our Saint Vincent de Paul Society (SVdP) work diligently to help those less fortunate than ourselves. First Sunday Sharing has been one of the primary ways in which we as parishioners have helped those in need.

Parishioners receive a CSAC-SVDP envelope in their mailings from the parish. It provides the financial support for these two ministries.

Non-perishable food and men's clothing is collected on the first weekend of each month. The food is distributed at the SVdP "Boulevard Place" Food Pantry (4202 Boulevard Place) and the clothing is given to homeless men who are served each weekend by Beggars for the Poor. The Boulevard Place Food Pantry, a St. Vincent de Paul ministry which is supported by St. Luke and four other north side parishes, provides food assistance to over 900 families in need each month.

Next weekend, July 3/4, is our monthly First Sunday Sharing collection. Thank you for your generous support!

Please consider joining the USCCB's nationwide effort to uphold the "Hyde Amendment" during the month of June (when Congress will begin the legislative process), by signing the petition on NoTaxpayerAbortion.com. The "Hyde Amendment" has been in place since 1976 and ensures that federal tax dollars are not spent on abortions.
