SUNDAY'S READINGS

First Reading:

Rise up in splendor, Jerusalem! Your light has come, the glory of the Lord shines upon you. (Is 60:1)

Psalm:

Lord, every nation on earth will adore you. (Ps 72)

Second Reading:

It was not made known to people in other generations as it has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit:

that the Gentiles are coheirs, members of the same body, and copartners in the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel. (Eph 3:5-6)

Gospel:

"Where is the newborn king of the Jews?

We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage." (Mt 2:2)

Due to bulletin deadlines over the holiday season, we had to delay publishing our November financial report until now. November's collections were over budget by nearly $4K. This brings our overall deficit on Sunday offerings down to $14K.

Overall, our ministries are doing quite well compared to budget. The school, of course, receives the largest subsidy of our ministries due to its size. This year's school enrollment has been greater than anticipated, which will be a positive impact to our budget.

We will report on December's finances as soon as possible, but rest assured that your ongoing financial support of our parish and its ministries is greatly appreciated.

If you wish to contribute online, you may set up a one-time gift or a recurring donation from your computer, smartphone or tablet. Go to our website, www.stluke.org, and click on the "Give to St Luke" button or go directly to <https://slccindin.infellowship.com/OnlineGiving/GiveNow/NoAccount>.

With our best wishes for a blessed New Year,

The Saint Luke Finance Council

A Letter from Msgr. Schaedel

PROVIDENCE NEVER FAILS

Dear Parishioners,

This Sunday, we celebrate the beautiful Feast of the Epiphany. We recall the visit of the three Wise Men or the Three Kings (Magi) to adore the Christ Child bringing their gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. The traditional date for this Feast is January 6. But in recent years, the observance of the Epiphany always takes place on the second Sunday after Christmas. This year it all sort of seems rushed since Christmas was on a Saturday.

In many countries, the Epiphany gets more attention than we give it here in the U.S. Many children do not receive gifts until the Epiphany in these places. People don't seem to know many Epiphany Traditions in the Church: the Epiphany Proclamation of movable feasts for the coming year, the blessing of Epiphany Water, the Blessing of the Chalk, incense, and myrrh, or the Blessing doors with the names of the Three Kings.

At each Mass this weekend, we will bless chalk for you to take home. Enclosed with it will be a blessing prayer for the head of each family to use in blessing your homes. Above the doorway is inscribed the year and the initials of the Three Kings: Caspar, Melchior, and Balthazar: It looks like this: 20+C+M+B+22.

The Epiphany Proclamation is closely aligned with the modern-day practice of giving parish calendars. The Church wants us to be aware of key dates in the liturgical life of the Church. I hope that by the time you read this, they will be available in the Narthex. We got our order in late. I hope they are not a victim of "supply chain issues" and waiting on a barge at some harbor somewhere!

In some parishes, the proclamation is chanted. In response to requests, here is the Epiphany Proclamation:

Dear Brothers and sisters, the glory of the Lord has shone upon us and shall ever be manifest among us until the day of His return. Through the rhythms of times and seasons, let us celebrate the mysteries of salvation.

Let us recall the year's culmination, the Easter Triduum of the Lord: His Last Supper, His crucifixion, His burial, and His rising celebrated between the evening of April 14 (date of Holy Thursday) and the evening of April 17 (date of Easter Sunday).

Each Easter—as on each Sunday—the Holy Church makes present the great and saving deed by which Christ has forever conquered sin and death.

From Easter are reckoned all the days we keep holy. Ash Wednesday, the beginning of Lent, will occur on March 2. The Ascension of the Lord will be commemorated on May 29. Pentecost, the joyful conclusion of the Season of Easter, will be celebrated on June 5. And this year, the First Sunday of Advent will be on November 27.

We have another Christmas and Epiphany tradition here at Saint Luke. In our Nativity, we also display La Befana, the "Christmas Witch" of Italy. Epiphany is the big day for the children of southern Italy. Around Rome, it's not Santa Claus. Italian children all know a witch named La Befana. Befana brings the gifts on the Feast of the Three Kings—the Epiphany.

Christmas trees or store windows in Italy are decorated with images of Befana. She looks like a witch; she has a big nose and a broom. She uses the broom to slide down chimneys. Contrary to others, she is actually a good witch who brings presents to all the southern Italian boys and girls on the Epiphany.

The legend of Befana goes back to the journey of the Magi. Befana is an old widow. And the Wise Men, looking for the Christ Child, stop at her house to ask directions. Befana—busy with all of her housework—comes to the door. But she does not know anything about a star or the child.

As they take their leave, the Magi invite Befana to go with them—to follow the star—to find the child—to bring gifts to the newborn King. But because she is so busy, she has so much to do; Befana declines. But she does say that when she gets things done when her work is finished, she will catch up with them. The Wise Men leave. Befana finishes her work. Then she takes off. But she cannot find the star. The Wise Men have vanished.

Befana spends the rest of her days looking for them and for the child. At every house she comes to, if she finds a child, the Witch Befana leaves a gift for the child. Just in case this child is the child she seeks. And her search continues to this day. La Befana brings gifts to little children.

Each one of us is a "Befana." We have not really dropped everything to find Jesus.

He waits. Imagine the Three Wise Men at our door. Will we go with them now—right now—to seek the Child of Bethlehem? Yes!

Like Befana, we also must bring gifts: love, concern, and gifts of our precious time to everyone we meet along the way. Just in case. We never know. It might be Jesus.

A Tip of My Biretta (Hat) to: Gary Gadowski.

Every year Gary assembles our outdoor Nativity Scene along 75th Street and then stores it away another year. He is also a great help in arranging our other Christmas decorations inside and outside the Church. Gary is a faithful K. of C. member and an invaluable help in the parish throughout the year!

Stewardship in Action!

Ask Monsignor a Question: Two weeks ago, you mentioned the loss of two wonderful people here: Father George Joseph and Patrick Jendraszak. Where do we stand with replacements? (Via email)

Let me begin by saying that we will miss them both! I have no idea when we will get another priest—an associate pastor or even a resident priest. The archbishop keeps telling me that I will be "the first to know." Keep praying.

We have a Search Committee headed by Judy Palmer, taking resumes and interviewing for Patrick's position as Parish Manager. I suspect this will be completed by mid-January. Again, keep praying!

Of one thing, I am convinced; of one thing I am certain: Providence never fails!

Faithfully yours in the Providence that so far had never failed us,

Msgr. Joseph Schaedel

Providence 2021 Building Project Update for January 2, 2022

Masonry Walls Take Shape

Limestone continues to be installed on the east and south walls of the East Addition. Over the school's Christmas break, we have updated the circa 1961 fire alarm control panel (which also prepares for the new facility) and replaced the smartboards in the existing classrooms.

Thank you for your support of the Providence 2021 Building Project.

First Sunday Sharing is This Weekend

This weekend is 1st Sunday Sharing. Please donate non-perishable food items for Boulevard Place Food Pantry and Men's clothing for Beggars for the Poor. Please place your donations on the shelves in the hallway by the church office.. Thank you so much for your generosity!

Sisters of Strength Starts Back up in 2022

2022 will be a great year! Sisters of Strength or SOS, will return after a pandemic break. This group is open to women of the parish 18 and older. We will meet on Thursday Evenings this year from 6:30pm to 7:30pm. We will read the scriptures for the upcoming weekend and share how they impact our daily lives. We start up January 20th in the Church Staff Lounge.
