A Letter from Msgr. Schaedel

PROVIDENCE NEVER FAILS

Dear Parishioners,

The Christmas Season is about over. Officially, on the Church calendar, it ends today—the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord. A depressing event for the power companies. For them, the holidays are when the electric bills skyrocket. Money-makers! Christmas tree lights, decorations on houses, flickering candles in windows. That huge Christmas tree on Monument Circle. Power companies love it!

Christmas is the season of lights. Many lights likely because of the light of the star that hovered over the Savior's birthplace in Bethlehem. The light of a star led the Wise Men there. Christmas is a season of lights.

A light announced our birth. Just as candles or lights signal the birth of the Christ Child, a light also came into play when we were born. The Christ Child had the star in the East. We had a candle—our baptismal candle. Each of us had a lighted candle as part of our baptismal ceremony.

Today, people keep the candle. People who were baptized fairly recently probably know where their baptismal candle is. Years ago, when many of us were baptized, churches recycled them. You didn't get to keep it. But we each had a candle.

The priest presented that lighted candle with some pretty serious words: "Parents and godparents, this light is entrusted to you to be kept burning brightly. This child of yours has been enlightened by Christ. Keep the flame of Faith alive in this child's heart." That lighted candle is symbolic of the light of Faith each of us received in Baptism.

If we are parents or godparents, then we have other candles to be concerned about too. We took on the serious responsibility for other souls—our godchildren. We put candles on birthday cakes. The older we are, the more the candles—at least until it becomes a fire hazard. We had a special candle on the day of our spiritual birth: the day we were "born again" in water and the Holy Spirit—the day we were baptized. We had a "light."

Today's feast is a good time to check our candles. Take a look—a symbolic look. Not the candle itself; it's probably long gone. But examine our own "flame of Faith closely." Our souls! The life in God we received on the day we were baptized. The baptizing cleric said this light was "to be kept burning brightly." Our candles must still be lit, or we would not be at Mass today. But how brightly the flame burns can vary. For some, the flame of Faith in our souls may be the brightest it's ever been. For others, it could be flickering, in danger of going out. Our Faith is so faint nobody even notices.

The light in our souls is like other lights; there is a cost involved. The price is fighting temptations attempting to extinguish it. And evil may have succeeded in putting out the flame of Christ's life in us. Yet all it takes is a good confession to light it again.

Today, the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord is the ideal time to check our own "spiritual power and light." If we are parents or godparents, then we have the grave responsibility for our godchildren. We need to make sure their "flame of Faith" received in Baptism is protected. Inside each of us, that flame of Faith burns. Imagine God looking down on us. Would God say as He does in today's Gospel "that He is well pleased?" Today is the time to reflect on the importance of our Baptism.

On today's feast, the Baptism of the Lord, reflect on our baptismal commitment. The promises made, the water that was poured, the lit candle symbolizing the light of Christ Who came to live within us. What did it all mean? What does it mean to us today? Let's renew it. Resolve to protect that flickering flame of Faith in our souls, or even to re-light it if we need to.

We will have a chance to renew our own baptismal promises at each Mass this weekend. We will be sprinkled with the holy water that reminds us of the waters of our own Baptism.

I invite all parents to reflect carefully and seriously on the promises they made when they had their children baptized. I fear too many either do not understand the solemn promise they are making. When they stand before God on Judgment Day, this will be a primary question God will ask.

If parents are not making certain their children attend Mass each weekend and are being instructed in their Catholic Faith, I fear for their fate on that day!

A couple of practical issues: One is that we have been changing over our "systems" for both the parish phones and our email. If you have had trouble on either one—that's why. I think we are okay now.

Second, every once and a while, someone sends out phony emails pretending to be me. It's not me. If I need something, I'll call you, and you will hear my melodious voice!

A Tip of My Biretta (Hat) to: Our parish manager of 27 years, Patrick Jendraszak! Patrick officially retired from this position on December 31. He will continue very part-time through the completion of our Providence 2021 Building Project scheduled for Spring. We wish Patrick and his wife, Loretta, happiness as they enjoy his retirement! Stewardship in Action!

Ask Monsignor a Question: How was attendance at Christmas Masses this year? I thought the Mass we attended was nearly full capacity. (Via email)

Our total attendance for all five (5) Masses was about 2,215. Last year, in 2021, in the middle of the worst of COVID, it was 1,205. Two years ago, before the pandemic affected things, it was 3,115. So we were about 70% of what it was two years ago.

The most attended Mass is the 4:00 p.m. This year the attendance was 850. The seating capacity in the church is 740. The overflow was in the Narthex. Oddly enough, the smallest crowd the past few years has been at the Midnight or the Late Night Mass. This year we had 230 at the 10:00 p.m. Mass.

Of one thing, I am convinced; of one thing I am certain: Providence never fails!

Faithfully yours in the Providence that so far had never failed us,

Msgr. Joseph F. Schaedel
