A Letter from Msgr. Schaedel

PROVIDENCE NEVER FAILS

Dear Parishioners,

I am not sure how many of you will be around to read this letter this weekend—at least the hard copy in the bulletin. Spring Break for Saint Luke Catholic School and many other schools began last Friday. I think half the world is gone somewhere else on Spring Break.

I think Spring Break is a somewhat relatively new invention—at least since I was in school. Back in those days, we got Easter Monday off—and that was it. We survived. No wonder schools want to begin so early in August or even before. Another recent invention is Fall Break. We got two days off for what they called Teacher's Convention. The poor teachers got no break at all.

Yet, by the time I began teaching in the early 70s, we did have Spring Break. As a teacher and later as a principal, I really appreciated it. I have many fond memories of times spent with families, other priests, and fellow teachers in Daytona Beach, Florida. O, those were the days! Can you imagine me on the beach? Luckily, no one had a harpoon in tow when I was around Daytona.

The situation in Ukraine continues. Pray for peace and the people of Ukraine. And, as Our Lady asked us at Fatima, pray for the conversion of Communist Russia. Last Friday, we had a special prayer service in union with the Holy Father's Consecration of Russia and Ukraine to the Immaculate Heart of Mary as requested by Our Lady in the apparitions at Fatima.

We prayed the rosary for peace. Earlier in the week, Archbishop Thompson sent us pastors a lovely prayer uniting us with the pope and the bishops around the world begging Our Lord and His Immaculate Mother for peace in the Ukraine and Russia.

I feel sorrow for the Russian people as well. By and large, they are wonderful people filled with Faith. They kept the Christian Faith alive in times of terrible persecution by the atheistic Communist government. And still do today.

I read a story last week about a poor Russian mother. She said that when her son was called into combat, he had no idea where he was going and why. Imagine the plight of many Russian soldiers being forced to fight in a war they do not support nor believe in. Pray for all involved. It is a mess!

Lent is well underway and into our fourth Sunday. Attendance-wise, we are ever so slowly improving. Weekend Mass attendance has been creeping up, but we are still not back to where we should be. Last week it was well over 1,100. Thanks be to God! But that's still not back to "normal." And I refuse to accept that it should be or will be the so-called "new normal."

We were able to reopen our Perpetual Adoration Chapel last August. We still have some slots that we need to fill. Please consider taking an hour regularly. If you cannot make it, someone will sub for you. Some of the open hours are at rather "regular times," not just in the middle of the night.

We have additional Masses and devotions during Lent. These were listed in the Lenten insert and each week in this bulletin. We will have Mass twice every weekday as usual. The best Lenten practice is to attend an extra Mass or two on weekdays. The Mass is the perfect prayer!

Unless you are sinless, no Lenten program is complete without the Sacrament of Penance. Confessions are heard seven days a week at Saint Luke. Check this bulletin or the website for the schedule.

Almsgiving is giving to the poor or to charity. We have some second collections each weekend for this during Lent. This weekend, we have a chance to support the work of Catholic Relief Services. It's sort of a "Catholic Red Cross" providing humanitarian aid to other countries around the world. I know they are doing quite a bit now to aid the victims of the war in Ukraine. I know that you will be generous as usual.

Next weekend the Little Sisters of the Poor will be here for a second collection. Most of us are familiar with the remarkable work they do among the aged poor at Saint Augustine Home on West 86th Street. A couple of weeks ago, I had the privilege of giving a Morning of Recollection to the ladies of their Saint Augustine Guild who volunteer so much of their time to help the Sisters.

This Wednesday, March 30, we continue our popular Soup Suppers after the evening Mass. We have our popular adult education series for Lent: Soup and Spirituality. The evening begins with the 5:30 p.m. Mass, then down to the parish hall for a simple soup supper and speaker. We have this week as our speaker Mary Carmen Zakrajsek. She is a popular pro-life speaker. Her topic is: "No Woman Stands Alone...In a post-Roe America."

Before I forget, mark your calendar. I will celebrate my 40th anniversary of priestly ordination on Sunday, May 22. It will feature four of my favorite things (in order): Mass at 4:00 p.m., then food, drink, and a band in a huge tent in the North parking lot. Everyone is invited.

A Tip of My Biretta (Hat) to: Michelle Duncan and her group who pulled off our most successful Saint Patrick's Party ever! Michelle and her helpers are members of the M.Y.O.C. (Mothers of Young Children) group.

We had over 400 people in the gyms to celebrate Saint Patrick on March 5.

Now that the pandemic is waning, one of the groups I am most interested in rejuvenating is M.Y.O.C. It is a great group where young (and sometimes not so young) mothers get to know one another. Most often, it leads to greater involvement in parish life and, therefore, their spiritual lives.

Thanks, Michelle, for your leadership and hard work!

Stewardship in Action!

Ask Monsignor a Question: What happened to Trivia Night? (In-person in the Narthex)

It has been rescheduled, and it is coming up on Friday, April 8. See you there! It is one of my favorite nights around here.

Of one thing, I am convinced; of one thing I am certain: Providence never fails!

Faithfully yours in the Providence that shall not fail us,

Rev. Msgr. Joseph F. Schaedel, V.G.,
Pastor
