3RD SUNDAY OF LENT

Since the Passover of the Jews was near, Jesus went up to Jerusalem. He found in the temple area those who sold oxen, sheep, and doves, as well as the money changers seated there. He made a whip out of cords and drove them all out of the temple area. - Jn 2:13b-15a

Baptisms-Parents must be registered members of one of the parishes and attend a Pre-Baptism Class. Expecting families please contact the parish office at 872-3234 to schedule a class for St. Catherine, St. Donatus, St. Joseph and Sts. Peter & Paul.

Weddings-Arrangements should be made at least 8 months prior to the marriage by contacting the St. Joseph Parish office. One or both of the parties needs to be a registered, practicing member of one of our parishes or a parish where they reside. The latest time for a wedding at St. Joseph is 1:30 p.m. if held on Saturday. In addition to the pastor/deacon, other priests/deacons may preside at weddings with pastor's permission.

Pastoral Care

Call the parish office for Anointing of the Sick, Holy Communion, and visits to the homebound. If no answer, call Deacon Loras Weber at 563-599-6717.

RCIA: Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

Adults who wish to become Catholic should call the office.

MESSAGE FROM FR. DENNIS/OTHER

A word from Fr. Dennis

Friends

Peace be with you.

If asked by people what is the hardest part of their vocation, most priests will say that it is obedience. I'm guessing that may be a surprise because you may have assumed I'd say that celibacy is more challenging. However, obedience is often much harder because obedience feels like the loss of liberty and freedom. Priests have to do what the Archbishop orders us to do under pain of obedience as long as it is reasonable and does not break either church or civil law. So, while the Archbishop cannot demand that I kill someone or eat meat on Fridays during Lent under pain of obedience, he can demand that I don't give out palms for Palm Sunday because of concerns surrounding the coronavirus pandemic and I would have to obey. That's why, at the end of this month, we will celebrate our second Palm Sunday Mass in two years without blessing and distributing palms. I know many of you are disappointed and maybe even upset at reading this. The Archbishop could not be any clearer that he doesn't want people to get blessed palms because of concerns he has with the ongoing coronavirus pandemic. When he sent out the first set of directions in January, he seemed to leave some wiggle room for pastors simply to bless the palms and then leave them for parishioners to pick up on their way out of church. However, in a recent February communication, he closed that loophole by saying we should not bless palms and parishioners should not get them. Still, despite the clarity with which the Archbishop has made known this message, some priests in this Archdiocese have shared with me that they intend to flagrantly disobey the express directives of the Archbishop and distribute them anyway. As I said at the beginning, Archbishop Jackels couldn't be clearer that he considers not distributing palms to be among a series of covid adaptations he has made to the liturgies of Holy Week and he has made it a matter of obedience to him not to distribute them. The reality is that the coronavirus is still among us and it will still affect any unimmunized elderly and immunocompromised people the hardest. The Archbishop is just doing his best to keep his people safe. Even as much as my "live free or die" side absolutely hates having to say this, as for me and my parishes, we will obey the Archbishop and I ask that we do so with a smile.

Okay, on to a much happier note. You will soon be noticing fliers for a retreat offered for our parishes on Sunday and Monday of Holy Week. I wanted to do some kind of parish mission for Lent but I couldn't decide on a speaker. Julie Schmidt came up with the idea of working with some of our recently graduated local people who are involved in their faith to give talks those nights. I'm absolutely sure that this will be a great experience for us all to grow in our faith. The sessions will be offered at St. Joe's in Bellevue so they can be both in-person and online. More information will be coming soon about this. I hope, most of all, that this will be an opportunity for us to realize that young people are interested in being catholic and growing in their faith.

Stewardship Quote ... The blind man was willing to let Jesus minister to him and willingly did all Jesus asked of him. The Pharisees were more resistant to His message, spending their time and energy to disprove the miracle. Which am I more like, the man born blind or the Pharisees?

WORSHIP AID FOR MASS

Third Sunday of Lent March 7, 2021- Worship Aid for Mass

Opening Hymn

Confiteor: I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, (Striking breast) through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

Opening Prayer: O God, author of every mercy and of all goodness, who in fasting, prayer and almsgiving have shown us a remedy for sin, look graciously on this confession of our lowliness, that we, who are bowed down by our conscience, may always be lifted up by your mercy. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Reading 1: Exodus 20:1-17

In those days, God delivered all these commandments: "I, the LORD, am your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, that place of slavery. You shall not have other gods besides me. You shall not carve idols for yourselves in the shape of anything in the sky above or on the earth below or in the waters beneath the earth; you shall not bow down before them or worship them. For I, the LORD, your God, am a jealous God, inflicting punishment for their fathers' wickedness on the children of those who hate me, down to the third and fourth generation; but bestowing mercy down to the thousandth generation on the children of those who love me and keep my commandments.

"You shall not take the name of the LORD, your God, in vain. For the LORD will not leave unpunished the one who takes his name in vain.

"Remember to keep holy the Sabbath day. Six days you may labor and do all your work, but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the LORD, your God. No work may be done then either by you, or your son or daughter, or your male or female slave, or your beast, or by the alien who lives with you. In six days the Lord made the heavens and the earth, the sea and all that is in them; but on the seventh day he rested. That is why the LORD has blessed the Sabbath day and made it holy.

"Honor your father and your mother, that you may have a long life in the land which the LORD, your God, is giving you. You shall not kill. You shall not commit adultery. You shall not steal. You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor. You shall not covet your neighbor's house. You shall not covet your neighbor's wife, nor his male or female slave, nor his ox or ass, nor anything else that belongs to him."

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 19: 8, 9, 10, 11

R. Lord, you have the words of everlasting life.

The law of the Lord is perfect, refreshing the soul; The decree of the Lord is trustworthy, giving wisdom to the simple.

R. Lord, you have the words of everlasting life.

The precepts of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart; the command of the Lord is clear, enlightening the eye.

R. Lord, you have the words of everlasting life.

The fear of the Lord is pure, enduring forever, the ordinances of the Lord are true, all of them just.

R. Lord, you have the words of everlasting life.

They are more precious than gold, than a heap of purest gold; sweeter also than syrup or honey from the comb.

R. Lord, you have the words of everlasting life.

Reading 2: 1 Corinthians 1:22-25

Brothers and sisters: Jews demand signs and Greeks look for wisdom, but we proclaim Christ crucified, a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles, but to those who are called, Jews and Greeks alike, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God. For the foolishness of God is wiser than human wisdom, and the weakness of God is stronger than human strength.

Alleluia

Gospel: John 2:13-25

Since the Passover of the Jews was near, Jesus went up to Jerusalem. He found in the temple area those who sold oxen, sheep, and doves, as well as the money changers seated there. He made a whip out of cords and drove them all out of the temple area, with the sheep and oxen, and spilled the coins of the money changers and overturned their tables, and to those who sold doves he said, "Take these out of here, and stop making my Father's house a marketplace." His disciples recalled the words of Scripture, Zeal for your house will consume me. At this the Jews answered and said to him, "What sign can you show us for doing this?" Jesus answered and said to them, "Destroy this temple and in three days I will raise it up." The Jews said, "This temple has been under construction for forty-six years, and you will raise it up in three days?" But he was speaking about the temple of his body. Therefore, when he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this, and they came to believe the Scripture and the word Jesus had spoken.

While he was in Jerusalem for the feast of Passover, many began to believe in his name when they saw the signs he was doing. But Jesus would not trust himself to them because he knew them all, and did not need anyone to testify about human nature. He himself understood it well.

Homily

Profession of Faith: I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of the Faithful

Offertory Hymn

Prayer Over the Offerings: Be pleased, O Lord, with these sacrificial offerings, and grant that we who beseech pardon for our own sins, may take care to forgive our neighbor. Through Christ our Lord.

Holy, Holy, Holy

Amen

Our Father

Lamb of God

Communion Hymn

Spiritual Act of Communion: My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if you were already there, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Prayer after Communion: As we receive the pledge of things yet hidden in heaven and are nourished while still on earth with the Bread that comes from on high, we humbly entreat you, O Lord, that what is being brought about in us in mystery may come to true completion. Through Christ our Lord.

Lent is a time to fast and feast

- Fast from judging others. Feast on the Christ within them.
- Fast from emphasis on differences. Feast on the unity of all life.
- Fast from apparent darkness. Feast on the reality of light.
- Fast from thoughts of illness. Feast on the healing power of God.
- Fast from the words that pollute. Feast on phrases that purify.
- Fast from discontent. Feast on gratitude.
- Fast from anger. Feast on patience.
- Fast from pessimism. Feast on optimism.
- Fast from worry. Feast on Divine order.
- Fast from lethargy. Feast on enthusiasm.
