19th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus said to His disciples: "Do not be afraid any longer, little flock, for your Father is pleased to give you the kingdom. Sell your belongings and give alms. Provide money bags for yourselves that do not wear out, an inexhaustible treasure in heaven that no thief can reach nor moth destroy. For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be."

Gospel Meditation A Deeper Understanding of Scripture

St Thomas Aquinas reminds us that, "Three things are necessary for the salvation of man: to know what he ought to believe, to know what he ought to desire, and to know what he ought to do." Everyone is called to work toward their salvation, which is ultimately union with God. Those who take this call seriously must embark upon a journey inward to the deepest recesses of their soul. In the adventure and wonder of that journey, we work out the details of our union with our Beloved. We cling to what we need to believe, remain firm in what we truly desire, and are guided by what we know we have to do. Once we know that our goal is to be one with our Creator, life becomes an exciting expedition to pursue that end. We make necessary preparations, follow the map, and remain on course.

Whenever we really want something, we put our entire selves into achieving it. Being fully invested in our labor, we willingly work extra hours, devote an abundance of energy and effort, and remain vigilant for beneficial opportunities that may come our way. We certainly do not passively sit by doing nothing! Such an attitude leads to laziness and the accomplishment of little. Worse yet, some look to others to do the work for them, hoping to reap the benefits of another's efforts. Conscientiousness and diligence are the only means to success.

For the one who eagerly awaits the day when they can be fully with God, life becomes a joyous adventure indeed! Alert, ready, focused, convicted, and willing to be a servant they constantly watch and prepare themselves for meeting the Lord. Loving the journey and being in love with their Creator, their lives become joyful witnesses of love and service. They are secure in their hope, confident in their faith, and perfect in their love. Never looking for recognition or gratitude, they stand as gentle inspirations of what the Holy Spirit can do in the hearts of those who believe. Because we do not know what tomorrow will bring, we stand ready to be used as God wills and run eagerly toward Him when He comes. How much do we desire to experience the joy of salvation?

Caught in the Rising Action by Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

Think of some of your favorite iconic movies. I'm not talking about the feel-good comedies, I'm talking about the movies that you found had a profound impact on you or made you go "Hmmm." I'm willing to bet that the plot of this film features some tough moments and difficult scenarios. However happy the ending, at some point, the situation for the protagonist might look awfully hopeless. The script speaks some truth to you about what it is to be human in difficult circumstances. What it means to persevere.

We're attracted to the tension that exists when the hero is besieged. We're captivated by the decisions he makes in the darkest hour of the night when it seems like the dawn will never come. Why? Because we know that feeling so well. This is the essence of our human life on earth: waiting, hoping, doubting and enduring.

We know the ending to our story, but we don't know when it's coming. We live our whole lives in the rising action of the narrative. Sure, it gets old. Tiresome, even dull. We may start to despair that the climactic scene is coming at all.

But faith is the realization of things hoped for, and evidence of things not seen. We feel it watching a great movie, because we recognize it intuitively: it is faith which earns the happy ending. No one is drawn to the story when the hero gives up or gets tired of waiting for the payoff. Everyday stewardship is the collection of choices we make while we're waiting, because we are called to action, not idleness, even in our perpetual state of expectation. ©LPI

August Month of the Immaculate Heart of Mary

O Most Blessed Mother, heart of love, heart of mercy,
ever listening, caring, consoling,
hear our prayer.

As your children, we implore
your intercession with Jesus your Son.

Receive with understanding and compassion
the petitions we place before you today, especially those so deep in our heart.

Help all of us, Holy Mother, to bear our burdens in this life
until we may share eternal life and peace with God forever.
Amen

Feast Day: August 12th Saint Jane Frances de Chantal

Saint Jane Frances de Chantal was born to a noble family in Dijon, France, on January 28, 1572. Her mother died when she was an infant. Her father raised her and provided for her education. In 1592 she married the Baron de Chantal, the couple were devoted to each other. They had six children, three of whom died in infancy. As Baroness, Saint Jane Frances restored the custom of daily Mass, and was famous for her charitable works. Unfortunately, her husband died in a hunting accident only eight years after their marriage. Devastated Jane Frances was forced to live in her father-in-law's strict household where she took a vow of chastity.

In 1604 while visiting her father in Dijon, she met Saint Francis de Sales and he became her close friend and spiritual director. Although not many of their epistles have survived, the pair had a lively correspondence which lasted until Saint Francis died.

Under the direction of Saint Francis de Sales and with his partnership she established the Congregation of the Visitation at Annecy in 1610. This was a unique order, without the extreme ascetical practices typical in other religious orders, accepting women and girls and those rejected by other orders because of poor health or age. The new order was also unusual in its public ministry, rather than a strictly cloistered life. Saint Jane transformed her convent at Annecy into a hospital during the plague of 1628.

The saint died at the Visitation Convent in Moulins on December 13, 1641. At the time of her death, there were 86 convents of Visitation nuns. She was canonized in 1767 by Pope Clement XIII.

US Bishops’ Action Alert: “Respect for Marriage Act” Tell Senators to say “No” to codifying Same-Sex “Marriage”

In response to the life-saving overturning of Roe v. Wade, Congress instead of stepping up to assist women and children in need, is moving furiously to lock in other anti-family priorities.

The “Respect for Marriage Act” would prevent states from restoring the authentic understanding of marriage between man and woman, if given the opportunity by the Supreme Court.

It is critical to protect freedom for people like small business wedding vendors and faith-based foster care agencies who serve their communities.

Please tell Senators Ron Johnson and Tammy Baldwin to vote “No” on the poorly-named “Respect for Marriage Act”. To make your voice heard, and for more information, visit www.votervoices.net/USCCB/home.

Helping Hands Update

During the past several months, we have been asked if Helping Hands still provides support to Jamaica. It is with a heavy heart that we say no. We no longer take volunteers to Jamaica to do humanitarian service nor do we send containers.

There are several reasons:

We no longer have a supportive infrastructure in the Diocese of Mandeville, where we provided all of our support. At one time, there were 27 Missionary Priests (mostly from Africa) in the Diocese of Mandeville. Helping Hands had a great supportive relationship with them. Now there are three priests left! So no support for Helping Hands in terms of transportation, identifying needy families, etc.

As you may recall, Bishop Boyle first invited Helping Hands to the Diocese of Mandeville in Central Jamaica. He provided amazing support as he recruited priests from Africa. Bishop Boyle retired and since then there have been three different Bishops – none of them supported Helping Hands nor the Missionary Priests. Hence, no more supportive infrastructure.

Food for the Poor, who sent over 200 containers for Helping Hands to the Caribbean (most to Jamaica), no longer sends containers of donated items. Recent changes in Executive Management at FFP resulted in a change of strategy regarding how they support Third World Countries throughout the Caribbean.

The combination of all of the above resulted in Helping Hands finally admitting that it is no longer possible to provide the type of support which we did for over 24 years.

We keep in touch with several Jamaican families and priests who have been a part of Helping Hands. If the situation changes whereby Helping Hands can once again be effective in Jamaica, we will resume our activities there. We do continue to support Sr. Helen and the Aids program with annual financial support.

Helping Hands is most grateful for all the support that each of you have given to the people of South-Central Jamaica!

Please keep our friends in Jamaica as well as Helping Hands in your prayers!
