September - The Month of

“The Seven Dolours of Mary” or “The Sorrowful Mother”

September is traditionally dedicated to the Seven Sorrows (or Dolours) of Mary, and the Feast of Our Lady of Sorrows is on September 15th.

By D. D. Emmons writes from O'Fallon, Ill.

Edited from: <https://www.simplycatholic.com/what-are-the-seven-dolours-of-mary>

What are the Seven Dolours of Mary?

Catholics have long associated the Latin term dolor, meaning “sorrow” or “pain”, with the sorrows of Mary, the Mother of God. She is often pictured with seven swords, representing seven sorrows, piercing her sinless heart. ...

The Seven Dolours

The Seven Dolours identify seven events or periods in the Blessed Mother's life when her suffering, prompted by events in her Son's life, was most intense. Bible scholars have pointed out that while some of the sorrowful events contained in the devotion are not specified in Scripture, they likely did occur.

1. Simeon's prophecy during the presentation of Jesus (see Lk 2:35). Like all firstborn Jewish males, the baby Jesus was taken to the Temple in Jerusalem to be presented to God. According to Luke's Gospel, there was, in the Temple, a devout old man named Simeon who joyfully recognized Jesus as the long-awaited Messiah.

The happiness of this moment turned somber, however, when Simeon prophesied that the Child's life would be one of “contradiction”. This prophetic announcement would indeed be fulfilled as the very people Jesus came to save from sin would reject, insult and eventually murder Him.

Simeon further indicated that Mary, too, would suffer, that sharing in His life of rejection would be like a sword piercing her soul. Certainly, such foreboding prophecies must have troubled the young mother.

2. The flight of the Holy Family into Egypt (see Mt 2:13). Simeon's prophecy was soon realized. The Gospel of Matthew tells us that when alerted by the Magi to the birth of Jesus, King Herod of Judaea worried that this Child, proclaimed as the King of the Jews, would become a threat to his throne. So, Herod ordered the killing of all boys 2 years old or younger, in and around Bethlehem.

During a dream, an angel warned Joseph to take Mary and Jesus into Egypt. Despite the prospect of such a long journey, Joseph left without hesitation, and the Holy Family remained in Egypt until Herod died. That the Son of God would begin life fleeing from His homeland was yet another indication to Mary of the difficult road Jesus was destined to walk.

3. The loss of the Child Jesus for three days (see Lk 2:41-46). When Jesus was 12 years old, St. Luke reports, He went with His parents from Nazareth to Jerusalem to celebrate the Passover. The men traveled together in one group, the women in another; the children could travel with either group.

On the way home, Mary and Joseph discovered that Jesus was not with the men or the women. Greatly distressed, they rushed back to Jerusalem and, after three days of desperate searching, found Him unharmed in the Temple conversing with teachers of Jewish law. He was not lost and wondered aloud to a relieved but confused Mary and Joseph, “How is it that you sought me?” In this event, Our Lady was painfully reminded that Jesus belonged first and foremost to God.

4. Meeting Jesus on His way to Calvary (see Lk 23:27-31). Tradition holds that Mary was among the women that Scripture tells us lamented Christ's painful walk with the cross along the way to Calvary. Mary's grief must have been extreme as she witnessed Jesus, unjustly accused, stumbling, falling with the cross on the road to the place He would die.

She had also likely been part of the crowd that was present when Pilate handed Him over to be crucified, but she could only watch in agonizing sorrow. Now, coming face to face with Him, Mary saw the bleeding, swollen, pitiable state of her Son. His helplessness, desolation and abandonment penetrated her heart.

5. Beneath the cross (see Lk 23; Jn 19). The Romans used public crucifixion as the form of execution for non-Roman criminals. The Gospels tell us that Mary stood with a few followers of Jesus watching His crucifixion. She no doubt wept to see Him cruelly nailed to a cross, to see the soldiers gamble for His clothes, and to watch His slow, torturous death.

How awful it is for any parent to watch a child die — and no one ever endured more agony than Mary. She was the only person who truly understood who He was and, in her heart, she died with Him.

6. Jesus is taken down from the cross (see Lk 23; Jn 19). According to Scripture, Joseph of Arimathea took the body of Jesus down from the cross; according to popular tradition, Joseph laid Him in the lap of His grieving mother.

Mary saw the bruises and wounds from all the physical torture Jesus had experienced, including the great open wound caused by the Roman soldier's lance. She who had given Him His Body and Blood cradled her lifeless Son, the Son of God, in her arms.

7. Jesus is placed in the tomb (see Mk 15; Lk 23; Jn 19). Mary, broken and grief-filled, no doubt watched as Joseph of Arimathea and Nicodemus prepared the body of Jesus for burial. They acted without delay, since the Mosaic Law required burial before nightfall.

We can only try to comprehend the immensity of Our Lady's suffering when the tomb was sealed, as she thought about all the anguish and pain He had endured. On all these seven occasions, and no doubt many more, our Blessed Mother shared the sufferings of her Son. The sword, as Simeon predicted, did indeed pierce her soul. When we meditate on these events, we learn to join our own sufferings to those of Jesus and Mary, so that we ourselves might grow in holiness.

Gospel Meditation - A Deeper Understanding of Scripture

What virtue is the cornerstone of discipleship? Love. Jesus preached about it, lived it, and summarized His greatest commandment featuring it. Love is in our DNA. To follow Jesus, then, is to follow the path of love. While this may appear to be an attractive and easy option, it most assuredly is not. Authentic love always comes with sacrifice. It is the complete giving of oneself to another. The sacrificial character of love always requires that we leave something aside and pursue something else. This is at the heart of self-denial. Love asks us to make choices that are often difficult.

There is a reason Jesus asks that the love of God come first. “Charity is the right attitude of mind which prefers nothing to the knowledge of God. If a man possesses any strong attachment to the things of this earth, he cannot possess true charity (St. Maximus the Confessor).” “If anyone comes to me without hating his father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters, and even his own life, he cannot be my disciple.” A devoted disciple must be single-minded in her quest for God. She cannot allow anyone or anything to have more power over her soul than God. When any earthly attachments become more important than Love, we can get ourselves into trouble.

The Gospel calls us to walk boldly into the darkness, confusion, and emptiness of the world clothed in the mantle of love. We are asked to walk with others on their journey, offering a supportive, healing, challenging, and faithful presence. Ours is not to judge. To walk this sacrificial journey means that I must put myself aside and focus on the needs of others. “A sacrifice to be real must cost, must hurt and must empty ourselves (St. Teresa of Calcutta).” Love helps us walk straight and focus to see things more clearly and help others to do so as well. Many folks struggle to find joy and meaning in life. People may simply need someone with the freedom to sit with them in their pain, so they don't feel so alone. Through acts of kindness, gestures of acceptance, and words of compassion, burdens can be lightened. Believe in God's love and seek it above all other things! ©LPI

 Getting to know Jesus Christ in a deeper way:
Reading the Catechism in 10 months
 We grow in our love for someone as we get to know them better. Would you like to grow in your love for Jesus Christ through coming to know Him better?
 Reading the Catechism, a few pages each day, will help you deepen your understanding of His incredible love for you. A modest schedule of 15 paragraphs per night (roughly 3 pages) has been arranged that will take about 10-15 minutes of reflective reading, 5 nights a week over 38 weeks. A schedule is emailed to participants every two weeks.
 To sign up, email Ann Lankford at alankford@diolc.org with the word Catechism in the subject line. There are usually more than 100 people who participate each year and they express that the fruits are well worth the effort. Invite your friends to join.

Suicide is the second-leading cause of death for youth and young adults. Yet despite the many TV shows, movies, and articles on this topic, suicide, depression, self-harm, and loneliness remain difficult subjects for adults of any age to discuss. Speaking with honesty, humor, and personal experience, Noelle Garcia tackles these issues head-on, encouraging those who are struggling (or know someone who is) that God's mercy and love are waiting for them; that you, and your life, truly matter.

Noelle Garcia is a nationally known Catholic recording artist who has been a keynote speaker at the National Catholic Youth Conference, Steubenville Youth Conferences, and hundreds of diocesan and parish events around the country. Noelle has four talks published on formed.org and appeared in Augustine Institute's "The Search". She has a Masters of Theological Studies from Newman University. Noelle lives in Oklahoma City with her husband and six children.

Eucharistic Adoration

Thank you to all those who came forward to fill the necessary Holy Hours on Wednesdays. With our committed St. Matthew members, I'd like to reach out to more of our parish family to consider signing up for an hour of adoration on Wednesdays from 9:00 am - 5:00 pm so that we could have two or more "adorers" on each hour.

The same Jesus that we receive at Mass - Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity - is waiting for us to "visit" Him in Eucharistic Adoration. This is an extension, a reaching out to Him with our love and thanksgiving for all that He has sacrificed for us. Think of all the graces being poured out from our Loving Lord upon each adorer - family, friends, community, nation, and our parish of St. Matthew!!

To spend time with Him is to become more like Him (2Cor 3:18).
If you feel the Lord calling you, please call me! Nancy 715-675-6796

HELPING HANDS is Looking for Ladies Who Like to Sew

We are making reusable sanitary pads for young girls in Kenya. It is a very simple pattern and Helping Hands supplies the precut pattern (out of flannel) and thread.

To date, eight schools have been supplied with these pads for girls in grades 5, 6, 7 and 8. We would like to add several more schools and then continue to supply them all with pads as the 4th graders become 5th graders.

If you would like to help with this project please contact:
Mary Pat Roovers (715) 842-4270. Thank You.

Have you left behind any personal items from the Treasure Sale?

If anyone has any personal items left in the gym storage room from the Treasure Sale, please contact Jason at 715-581-2005 and come and get them. Thank You!
