Prayer to Our Lady of Sorrows

O Holy Virgin, in the midst of all your glory, we ask you not to forget the sorrows of this world. Cast a look of pity upon all who struggle against life's difficulties, and who cease not to feel all its bitterness. Have pity on all who have been separated from those they love. Have pity on the lonely and friendless. Pardon the weakness of our faith. Have pity on those whom we love. O Holy Mother, show a mother's compassion toward the sorrowful and those who tremble under life's afflictions. Give them hope and peace.

Amen

September 29th Feast of the Archangels Saint Michael, Saint Gabriel, and Saint Raphael

Edited & used with permission
Catholic News Agency

The three Archangels Michael, Gabriel and Raphael are the only angels named in Sacred Scripture and all three have important roles in the history of salvation.

St Michael is the "Prince of the Heavenly Host," the leader of all the angels. His name is Hebrew for "Who is like God?" and was the battle cry of the good angels against Lucifer and his followers when they rebelled against God. He is mentioned four times in the Bible, in Daniel 10 and 12, in the letter of Jude, and in Revelation.

Michael, whose forces cast down Lucifer and the evil spirits into Hell, is invoked for protection against Satan and all evil. Pope Leo XIII, in 1899, having had a prophetic vision of the evil that would be inflicted upon the Church and the world in the 20th century, instituted a prayer asking for Saint Michael's protection to be said at the end of every Mass.

Christian tradition recognizes four offices of Saint Michael:

1. to fight against Satan
2. to rescue the souls of the faithful from the power of the enemy, especially at the hour of death
3. to be the champion of God's people
4. to call away from earth and bring men's souls to judgment

"I am Gabriel, who stand before God." (Luke 1, 19) Saint Gabriel, whose name means "God's strength", is mentioned four times in the Bible. Most significant are Gabriel's two mentions in the New Testament: to announce the birth of John the Baptist to his father Zacharias, and the at Incarnation of the Word in the womb of Mary.

Christian tradition suggests that it is he who appeared to St Joseph and to the shepherds, and also that it was he who "strengthened" Jesus during his agony in the garden of Gethsemane.

"I am the angel Raphael, one of the seven, who stand before the Lord" (Tobit 12:15) Saint Raphael, whose name means "God has healed" because of his healing of Tobias' blindness in the Book of Tobit. Tobit is the only book in which he is mentioned. His office is generally accepted by tradition to be that of healing and acts of mercy.

Raphael is also identified with the angel in John 5:1-4 who descended upon the pond and bestowed healing powers upon it so that the first to enter it after it moved would be healed of whatever infirmity he was suffering.

Feast Day - October 1st - Saint Therese of the Child Jesus

"Sometimes, when I'm in such a state of spiritual dryness that I can't find a single thought in my mind which will bring me close to God, I say an Our Father and a Hail Mary very slowly indeed. How they take me out of myself then; what solid satisfaction they give me then! Much more than if I'd hurried through them a hundred times over."

St Therese of Lisieux,
of the Child Jesus

"The things that we love tell us what we are."

Saint Thomas Aquinas

Gospel Meditation A Deeper Understanding of Scripture

"If they will not listen to Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded if someone should rise from the dead." Regardless of how the message of faith is received, a total conversion of mind and heart is needed for it to take root and have meaning. It is easy to become complacent and comfortable with all that life can afford us. Life can become "all about me", preserving my livelihood and protecting my securities. Often, this drive can become so strong that we eagerly strive to protect our self-interests at the expense of others. Other people are necessary only to the extent that they are "useful" to us and profitable.

Merriam-Webster defines entitlement as "the belief that one is deserving of or entitled to certain privileges". In a world that pretends to offer us so many necessities, this is perhaps the greatest contemporary sin. When we feel "entitled" to something, even if it is perceived necessary, our relationships can get skewed. Unless we adopt a global vision of entitlement wherein everyone is entitled to the same things, we risk becoming extremely self-focused and selfish. All we care about is defending our rights and protecting our turf. This impulse can be so strong that we pursue it even at the expense of another. Is this what God intends for His children?

Holding on to this myopic vision, the plight and station of others are off our radar and of no real concern to us. Relying on our own merits and becoming resilient to life's challenges, we replace the true and real God with the one we created ourselves. Jesus and the prophets before Him have consistently reminded us of the dangers of wealth, ignoring the poor and the needy, and becoming too fiercely independent and arrogant. Yet, we conduct our lives as if that message has never been preached. We give our faith a nod and never consider for a moment that we may be wrong in terms of what we see as important. "The things that we love tell us what we are." (attributed to St Thomas Aquinas) Ponder those words a bit and remember that when we leave this world and go to the next one, what we loved here is what we will look for there. What we sought here may not be there.

HELPING HANDS is Looking for Ladies Who Like to Sew

We are making reusable sanitary pads for young girls in Kenya. It is a very simple pattern and Helping Hands supplies the precut pattern (out of flannel) and thread.

To date, eight schools have been supplied with these pads for girls in grades 5, 6, 7 and 8. We would like to add several more schools and then continue to supply them all with pads as the 4th graders become 5th graders.

If you would like to help with this project please contact: Mary Pat Roovers (715) 842-4270. Thank You.

Can you spend an hour with Jesus? Eucharistic Adoration on Wednesday and Friday

We would like to have at least 2 or more adorers signed up to spend an hour with Jesus on Wednesdays or Fridays between the hours of 9:00 am and 5:00 pm.

You won't regret the time you spend with Jesus. Archbishop Fulton Sheen said that "Eucharistic Adoration has two effects. The first is personal, where over time we change just by being in the presence of the Lord and the second is social and communal where we will begin to think of others more."

Think of all the graces being poured out from our Loving Lord upon each adorer - family, friends, community, nation, and our parish of St Matthew!!

Men of the Cross Catholic Men's Conference "Sons of the Father" Saturday, November 12th

La Crosse Center 300 Harborview Plaza La Crosse, WI

Cost: $40 per person After October 24th: $45 per person.

It has been said, "Insanity is doing the same thing over and over and expecting different results." Throughout recent history, Catholic men, in general, have been suffering from this very issue.

Mass attendance is down, prayer lives are mediocre at best, and men being spiritual leaders in their families has been substituted by achieving worldly success.

Who is going to lead these men back to the faith? The time for men to realize their identity as sons of the Father is now!

Come to the Men of the Cross Conference to reignite and reaffirm your identity as a son of the Father! Gather your family members, best buds, men at your parish and even acquaintances, and join your brothers from all over the Diocese of La Crosse.

September 29th
Feast of Saint Michael

Starting on September 20th we will recite the "Chaplet of St Michael" daily after Mass until September 29th the Feast Day of St Michael, St Gabriel, and St Raphael the Archangels on September 29th. Booklets and the chaplet will be available in church.

The Chaplet of St Michael is a wonderful way to honor this great Archangel along with the other nine Choirs of Angels. What do we mean by Choirs? It seems that God has created various orders of Angels. Sacred Scripture distinguishes nine such groupings: Seraphim, Cherubim, Thrones, Dominations, Powers, Virtues, Principalities, Archangels and Angels (Isa. 6: 2; Gen. 3: 24; Col. 1: 16; Eph. 1: 21; Rom. 8: 38). There may be more groupings but these are the only ones that have been revealed to us. The Seraphim is believed to be the highest Choir, the most intimately united to God, while the Angelic Choir is the lowest.

The history of this Chaplet goes back to a devout Servant of God, Antonia d'Astonac, who had a vision of St Michael. He told Antonia to honor him by nine salutations to the nine Choirs of Angels. St Michael promised that whoever would practice this devotion in his honor would have, when approaching Holy Communion, an escort of nine angels chosen from each of the nine Choirs. In addition, for those who would recite the Chaplet daily, he promised his continual assistance and that of all the holy angels during life, and after death deliverance from purgatory for themselves and their relations.

Please, please, please help us!!!
