From the desk of Fr. John Pfister:

I googled the question, "Why is change so hard?" I laughed as I saw, there were nearly six billion responses to that question. Billions! Scientists, sociologists, psychologists, therapists, gurus, geniuses, engineers, and preachers all have the answer. Well, not just the answer, but many answers. And I too, could wax poetic here, but I won't do that. Suffice it to say this, yes, change is hard.

Jesus guides us through change. Wherever Jesus went, whomever he ministered to, wherever he preached, no matter what challenge he faced, his disciples were with him to record whatever he said or did. The scriptures help us deal with change, and to the scripture we turn, in the hard times we face.

In Matthew 4:17, Jesus began to proclaim, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven has come near." This is a lesson we can take to heart. In turning from sin, we open our lives to the power of God through us and in us. Jesus understood completely how hard this is for us humans; but he also explained God's joy when it happens. "Just so, I tell you, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous persons who need no repentance." (Luke 15:7).

Another way to follow Christ is to live like Him in word and deed. We do this as community, the Church of Saint Isidore. We learn to help one another. Jesus said this, "Be on your guard! If another disciple sins, you must rebuke the offender, and if there is repentance, you must forgive." (Luke 17:3). That means an end to gossip, selfishness, slander, calumny, pride, jealousy, irreverence and so many other offenses against God.

No one ever claimed a life in Christ is easy. In Luke 9:23, Jesus teaches his followers; "Then he said to them all, 'If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross daily and follow me.'" Taking up the cross is hard! We know this. But it is easier when we share the burden with those who love us, those who love Christ, and those we call friend. Let us look to each other for guidance. This is my prayer for you and for me.

Stephen Ministry

A Great Way You Can Help a Hurting Friend

How can you help a friend, neighbor, coworker, or relative who has suffered a loss or is going through a difficult time? Here's a great way you can help them - tell them about our Stephen Ministry! Stephen Ministers are members of the St. Isidore Parish who have received special training to provide high-quality, confidential, one-to-one, Christian care to hurting people. Stephen Ministers meet weekly with their care receivers to listen, care, encourage, and provide emotional and spiritual support. The caring relationship lasts for as long as the person needs care. It's free, and it's a powerful way you can help a hurting friend. To learn how to connect someone you know with a Stephen Minister, talk with one of our Stephen Leaders:
