 We invite you to spend an hour

From the desk of Deacon Mike:

What's the best way for our young people to fall in love with our Faith? The answer is the same for all of us – we learn to Love as God loves when we give ourselves away selflessly, just like Jesus did. In our Week of Work and Worship last week, we put this into practice. Teens, young adults, adult volunteers, and staff came together to create a fulfilling spiritual experience which benefitted many in the community.

Every day started with prayer or Mass, sharing of a meal, then we headed out to our worksites. More than half of the work was FIREWOOD! (Isn't July the Perfect time to split firewood? :) Actually, God blessed us with lower temperatures – and he blessed us with RAIN – LOTS OF IT – which also means MUD – LOTS OF IT. Fortunately, one of our resident saints in the parish moved all of the firewood into a barn so we could work without getting drenched. Splitting and stacking, splitting and stack, splitting and stacking... our young folks might never want to look at another piece of firewood. We also did yard work, power-washed some houses, washed windows, pulled weeds, weed-eated, spread mulch – basically any job we could find to help out.

In the evenings, we shared another meal and then enjoyed music, skits, and a speaker to give us something to stretch our minds. We had confession, personal prayer, adoration, and a personal encounter with Jesus.

It's hard to put into words what this week meant to everyone, but basically it was wonderful for rebuilding community – both among ourselves – and with the people we served.

(Thanks to all who helped with food, driving, splitting, lining-up jobs, providing tools, praying, music, technical support, all the many ways our parish supports our ministries.)

Brute' Award

It is that time of year when we look around to see who would be a candidate for the Brute' Award. That person or couple should have the following qualities:

- A life style that is in harmony with the teachings of the Catholic faith.
- An exceptional commitment to the principles of good stewardship. This is usually shown over a period of time through selfless giving of time, talent, and/or treasure to the life and work of a parish.
- An individual or couple whom fellow parishioners would be proud to have represent their parish by being accepted as members of The Bruté Society.

If you know of an individual or a couple in our parish that you would like the Parish Council to consider, please write a note telling us why you think they should be selected. Please send the nomination in the collection or to the parish office by September 2.

Stephen Ministry

Sometimes It's Hard to Ask for Help

We're brought up to be strong, self-sufficient, independent people. We tend to think that if we ask for help, it is a sign of weakness. So we try to keep our struggles hidden, stuffed deep inside. However, that's not God's plan. Galatians 6:2 says, "Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ." God wants us to care for others—and allow others to care for us in our time of need.

If you're sad or struggling inside, don't suffer alone. Ask for help. We've got a team of Stephen Ministers who are ready to listen, care, encourage, pray, and help you through a tough time. (It's confidential too!)
