Congratulations and Thank You to Anne Ratterman!

Anne Ratterman has just accepted the role as one of our Cathedral's two representatives on the Board of Central Louisville Community Ministries.

CLCM is the oldest area community ministry in the Association of Louisville Metro Community Ministries, with over 50 years of service. The Cathedral is one of nine downtown member churches of CLCM.

CLCM provides emergency assistance to low-income residents in 40202, parts of 40203, and 40208 zip codes with rent, utilities, prescriptions, food, clothing, personal care items, and other re-

Stewardship Meditation

Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me.
Matthew 10:37

We all have loved ones in our lives; people who we cannot imagine being without. Each of those loved ones is a gift from a loving God. We must not however place these special people at a level above God himself. God is to be our center-most point from which all blessings radiate.

Are you a member of the Bishop Flaget Society? If you have included the Cathedral in your estate plans, but have not notified us, please contact the parish office at administrator@cathedraloftheassumption.org or 502-582-2971 so that we can welcome you to the Bishop Flaget Society.

quests. It is a good neighbor to area residents and an amazing vehicle for connecting area residents to one another and to beneficial services.

Joe Best has been a longtime volunteer at CLCM and has been serving on the Board for a couple of years. Anne is new to CLCM as a volunteer and has attended her first board meeting as a Cathedral representative.

The Cathedral is very blessed to have Anne and Joe represent us so well in an organization that serves our community with heart and commitment.

White Fragility: A Four-Week Exploration of Whiteness and Systemic Racism

Mondays 5:30 - 6:30 pm

June 29, July 6, 13

Online Via Zoom

In the collective moment of grief and pain around police violence and systemic racism, are you looking for a way to engage but unsure how to go about it? Please join us for a 4-week series of challenging conversations as we collectively read and unpack White Fragility: Why It's So Hard for White People to Talk About Racism by Robin DiAngelo. These conversations will offer a spiritual and intergenerational space for people to engage in the tough conversations needed for us to begin to wake up to the pervasiveness of white privilege, implicit bias, and systemic racism in our community. This exploration will equip you with information, meditations, discussions and tools to begin taking sustainable and meaningful action to stand in solidarity with communities of color for racial justice.

The value of this course is $45, but we don't want cost to be a barrier to any participants. The course enrollment is limited. Register soon to hold your spot. You can visit: www.earthandspiritcenter.org.

The Louisville Chorus "will not" have its annual 4th of July concert. If you would like to view their 2017 Fanfare for the 4th, please visit: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=P0vofpxl93M&feature=youtu.be>. The Louisville Chorus wishes safety and good health for everyone.

We will be back with our live concerts as soon as it is permitted within the choral realm.

The 171st St. Joe's Picnic For The Kids Goes Virtual

A time-honored tradition, steeped in history -- is about to take a giant leap into the modern age. St. Joseph Children's Home is excited to announce that one of the largest fundraising events in Louisville will go virtual this year!

"The decision to go virtual was made with a lot of thought and care. The health and safety of our kids and staff are our top priority every day. When you take into consideration the large crowd size that gathers on St. Joe's front lawn, as well as that many of our beloved volunteers and picnic attendees are in the high-risk category for contracting COVID-19, we know we have made the safest decision for our kids, staff and community. We are hopeful the community of picnic goers will step up to help us again this year by joining us in our new, virtual Picnic adventure," said Grace Akers, St. Joe's CEO.

What to expect on August 7 & 8? Highlights include: Online raffle items, merchandise sales, #PicnicAtHome social media contest sponsored by Kentucky Select Properties, online fundraising contests, as well as a live streamed celebrity karaoke contest hosted by Norae Bar on August 7. Details for these virtual concepts will be shared in the coming weeks, with an overall focus on the need to raise money to help support the 1,500 children and family members served each year by St. Joe's programs.

"We humbly ask our community that whatever you would normally spend by taking a chance at a wheel game, playing bingo and blackjack, winning a cake, or enjoying your favorite beverage and food at the Picnic, to consider making a direct donation this year to St. Joe's kids," said Cheryl Fischer, St. Joe's Picnic Committee Co-Chair.

Stay tuned for more details about the 171st St. Joe's Picnic. For The Kids! For questions, please contact info@sjkids.org.

Volunteers Needed to be Mentors for Refugee Students

Catholic Charities of Louisville is looking for volunteers to serve as mentors for refugee students. Mentors will help refugee students reach their academic and personal goals while participating in a cultural exchange. Don't miss out on this great opportunity to be a positive role model for a student during a time of change and uncertainty. Interested volunteers must have completed the safe environment training and have a background check on file with their parish or the Archdiocese. Mentors are asked for a one hour per week commitment, which can be done virtually at this time. Interested? Please contact Katie Norton at: knorton@archlou.org or 502-636-9263.

The latest pandemic update from Tek4Kids
The number of confirmed cases of the coronavirus in Haiti has spiked to 4,309 as of June 15, with 73 deaths. With only two labs in Haiti to process Covid-19 tests, the number of recorded cases is likely far lower than the actual number. In its continuing efforts to stop the spread of the virus in the community of Jérémie, Haiti, Tek4Kids has surpassed the 370,000 gallon mark in total number of gallons dispensed since the pandemic began. The free water for residents is purified at six partner school locations and distributed by 32 Haitian Tek4Kids staff members.

Since many Haitians lack access to clean water for hand washing and drinking, Tek4Kids ramped up its efforts to distribute this vital resource free of charge and plans to continue doing so for the foreseeable future despite mounting costs.

The virus is now in all 10 regions of Haiti including Grand Anse (where Jérémie is located), and medical authorities warn that the country's few Covid-ready hospitals and triage centers may soon be overwhelmed. Health officials are also concerned that Haiti will be unable to provide enough personal protection equipment for medical staff or oxygen for those with severe cases of covid-19. Economic and political factors are also contributing to the growing crisis in Haiti.

If you would like to help Tek4Kids continue its life-saving work to distribute clean water, please consider donating at www.tek4kids.org/donate/.
