Experience the Power of Prayer

"For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them."

(Matthew 18:20)

We will be starting a prayer ministry on Pentecost, May 23. Volunteer ministers will be available to pray with people after Mass every month on the 4th Sat/Sun of the month. There will be 2 prayer ministers praying with each person for their intentions and other needs such as greater peace and hope, being filled with God's love, and/or healing in their life. Prayer ministers will be available in the parents' room in church after mass. People wanting prayers can simply wait near that room by the baptismal font. People will be prayed with one at a time. "For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them." (Matthew 18:20)

THERE'S NO PLACE LIKE HOME

Where do you get the best night's sleep? For me, it's in my own bed. I don't even really know why. There's something about the texture of the sheets, the groove I've worn in the pillow. The mattress seems to recognize my shape. I've got a job that sees me traveling often and I've stayed in plenty of nice places. But there's just no sleep like the sleep you get at home.

There's a feeling that we have when we're at home. Our bodies seem to recognize it when we walk in the door. There's a relaxation that kicks in, a peace that falls over us. I think that's what Heaven will be like. It won't be pleasure or happiness — those words aren't enough to describe what it feels like to be at home, are they? It's more than that.

If you ever wonder why there is pain in this world, it's because we're not at home.

That's not to say we don't belong here. Through God's mercy, this beautiful world is where we live out our earthly existence, and those existences can be filled with amazing relationships and profound experiences. In fact, we might enjoy our time here so much that we don't want to leave.

But there's a reason this life has so many things that don't make sense: loss, fear, anger, sickness, hatred. It's because we weren't made for this place. For our souls, it's like a never-ending night in a hotel bed.

HOME MISSIONS-OUR OWN NEEDS COLLECTION – MAY 23, 2021- STRENGTHENING THE CHURCH AT HOME

The four major beneficiaries represented in this collection and their mission;

Black and Indian Missions exist to build Christian communities among the Native American, African American and Alaskan Native people in the United States. Know every penny collected is distributed as diocesan grants to support and strengthen evangelization programs. Locally, we receive a grant each year through this collection to assist our parishes in Neopit and Keshena to bring the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ to our brothers and sisters of the Menominee Indian Tribe.

The Catholic Communications Campaign connects people to Christ through internet, television, radio, and print. They connect people to Christ to spread the Gospel message locally and nationally. Half of all funds collected for the CCC remain in our diocese to support our local communication efforts.

The Catholic University of America is the National University of the Catholic Church. Your gift enables the University to prepare the next generation of Catholic leadership, both religious and lay. Every donated dollar supports scholarships to assist financially deserving students in completing their education. Alumni include 19 living Cardinals, and 58 Bishops and over 12,500 priests.

The Catholic Home Missions assists 85 Home Mission dioceses in the United States. They provide financial assistance for basic pastoral services such as Mass, the sacraments and faith formation. Your gift brings the Gospel of Jesus Christ to these mission dioceses to form vibrant faith communities while strengthening the Catholic Church here at home.

Thank you for your prayers and generosity! Envelopes are included in this bulletin and extra ones at the entrances.
