Back-to-School Prayer

God of all knowledge, you knew us when we were still in our mother's womb. You know our comings and our goings. Grant us wisdom to act on the knowledge we have of you, and humility to admit when we do not know what to do. Bless our minds with the knowledge of you and how you sent your Son into the world to show us the way to you. Bless all students who are preparing to go back to school. Bless their teachers and aides that help them to learn. In addition, give us who are parents the ability to be the first teachers in the faith we have received from our parents. We ask all this through Christ our Lord and brother. Amen.

Seminarian Collection

Thank you to those who have participated in the 16th annual Seminarian Collection: Hope for the Future, Help them Today.

There is still time to respond to the great need we have to support our local seminarians. Have you made your gift? So far this year our parish has raised $1925. Last year, we raised a total of $3,243. Let us see if we can increase our support of this important part of the mission of the Diocese of Green Bay. Make your gift today by mailing in your pledge card or visit www.catholicfoundationgb.org/give.

Pope Francis' August Intention

Let us pray for the Church, that She may receive from the Holy Spirit the grace and strength to reform herself in the light of the Gospel.

Bishop Ricken's August Intention

That families may be drawn closer to each other through prayer and devotion to Jesus Christ.

Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Albert Einstein said that the “true measure of intelligence is not knowledge but imagination.” Being a disciple of Jesus Christ requires a great deal of imagination. It is not enough to simply attend to facts, rules and rituals and consider the job done. Quite contrarily, the Gospels demands creativity, of trying to discern how to put flesh on the Beatitudes and properly serve God’s children. Jesus never doled out a top down agenda. Not once did he ever demand conformity over conversion or sacrifice over mercy. The Gospel is always about putting people in touch with their compassionate, forgiving, and unconditionally loving God and meeting them where they are.

For Jesus, it often meant breaking a few rules. Well respected and time-honored traditions had to be set aside in order to attend to what really mattered. God’s compassion, mercy and true conversion were always the trump cards. The story of the Good Samaritan, healing on the Sabbath, and bypassing of purification rituals all display this theme. Human beings can get too hung up on protocol and tradition. This is so much so that often preserving all of these things is of greater concern than the beggar knocking on our door or the sinner looking for mercy. It is no wonder, then, that we can easily become hypocritical. Many can see us on our knees in prayer while our true heart and actions, rooted in judgment and self-preservation, are hidden from others. It is a trap into which we can easily fall. Who cares how we live our lives as long as our hands are properly washed!

Here enters the need for imagination and the distinction of truly being a wise and intelligent person. It takes a good measure of creativity and a lot of guts to really be a doer of God’s word and not merely a hearer. Being a person who doesn’t just tell people about God but shows people God requires courage and ingenuity. That’s why people like St. Francis of Assisi and St. Teresa of Calcutta are timeless. Their genuineness speaks volumes generation to generation. It’s risky business taking the step to allow God into our hearts. Permitting God to release us from the grip of our evil thoughts, infidelity, greed, malice, sexual improprieties, licentiousness, envy, arrogance, folly, and the like takes courage. That’s why we prefer to spend our energy rearranging the future rather than take measures to secure a foundation that is most certainly crumbling.

There’s a boarding school right here in Wisconsin helping young men become the champions and leaders they are called to be. St. Lawrence Seminary High School provides over 160 years of academic excellence and diversity with a foundation in faith. We support students as they dare to discover new talents, push the bounds of creativity and help change the world. We foster and encourage academic development, so students graduate as courageous and noble young men, prepared for college and beyond. It’s a brotherhood. It’s opportunity. It’s a chance for young men to discover themselves in all aspects. We might not be the high school you imagined yourself – or your son-- attending, but take a look. Before you know, you’ll feel right at home. Learn more about St. Lawrence by contacting Miss Moran at 920-753-7519 or mmoran@stlawrence.edu or visit www.stlawrence.edu
