PRAY FOR

Sick: Suzette Jorgenson, Toni Stemwedel,

Lorraine Hopfensperger, Ty West

Crossroads (Weyauwega): Gail Cox

Bethany (Waupaca): Mary Gain, Shirley Sexton

Strong Haven (Weyauwega): Carolyn Tryba, Richard Weller

"Please call the parish office if you or a fellow parishioner is in the hospital and would like to receive pastoral care. We want to walk with people like Christ accompanied those who were in need."

Pope Francis' September Intention

We pray that we all will make courageous choices for a simple and environmentally sustainable lifestyle, rejoicing in our young people who are resolutely committed to this.

Bishop Ricken's September Intention

That all returning to school may be given the safety and freedom to learn and grow in discipleship.

Twenty-fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

There is something about being first. Whether it be first in line, first to be picked for the team, or the first one to finish their work, great satisfaction is achieved. Our egos love being first. It somehow sets us apart from everyone else, gives us a sense of pride and positions us to feel better than others. When we are first, we can glory in our efforts, skills, and achievements. Isn't that what really matters? After all, we are taught from a very young age to be proficient, stay on top, be the best at what we do, and win the praise and esteem of others. This is the stuff that makes us successful and provides us with a comfortable, satisfying life.

Jesus wants none of it. All of the details we anguish over mean little to the kingdom of God. You want to be first? Then, be a servant and welcome a child. All of this is the opposite of our often vehement pursuits. If we are serious about following Jesus and living the Gospel, then we must put the needs of others before our own. If we continue to listen only to the noise of the world, we are going to continue to believe the illusions we inherit. Those illusions come in many forms, but all have things in common: me before you, being on top and not the bottom, us versus them, personal security over universal harmony and peace. When are we going to learn that always striving to be the best and first is an empty pursuit in our struggle for happiness? While satisfying our ego with this momentary boost of esteem may feel good for a moment, is it what we really desire?

If we can break from the world's noise and create a space of sacred silence in our lives, we can begin to listen and see that we are being called in another direction. What we really desire is not the bolstering of our egos but the innocence we lost somewhere along the way. When we can be playful, joyful, and even somewhat carefree, life is good. We want our relationships to work, a place to call home, and to live peaceful lives with our sisters and brothers. Only a servant can do this. The servant's prayer seeks to detach from self-concern in order to be used by God. Rather than worrying about being first and coming out on top, we can be inspired, guided, empowered, and led to do good works. Stop worrying about being first and put greater energy into feeling joy. ©LPi

At the request of the USCCB, Bishop Ricken is asking all parishes in our Diocese to have a voluntary special collection to support the USCCB Bishop's Emergency Disaster Fund. The funds received from this special collection will be used for humanitarian needs, long-term recovery and Church needs arising from these calamities. We will be having the collection next weekend, September 25-26th. You may use the envelope attached to the bulletin for your donation.

Encounter Youth Group

All 6th-12th graders are invited to join us Wednesday, September 22nd at 6:30 for a fun and inspirational evening of games, snacks, connecting with others, a talk, discussion and prayer. Invite your friends of all faiths. All are welcome!

N.E.T. Retreat

There will be a retreat put on by N.E.T. (National Evangelization Team) on Sunday, September 26th for 7th-12th grade students and their friends (of any denomination).

Yard Clean-Up Day

Do you need help cleaning up your yard for the winter? The Squires will be doing a yard cleaning day, if you'd like to get on the list, please call Jake Wagner (920) 460-3487.

There will be a blood drive here on

Please Call the Red Cross to make an appointment.
