St Vincent de Paul Annual Update

Sacred Heart Conference of St. Vincent de Paul helped 6 families this past year between May 2021-June 2022. The monetary assistance given to our friends in need totaled $1325.00. This assistance went towards rent, auto repairs and gas cards. In addition, vouchers from the thrift store were given for clothing, furniture and household items. We continue to urge you to donate your gently used items to SVDP. Call the store at 920-739-1679 or check their website for donation hours. They have a drive-up drop off located next to the store in Appleton. It's easy and convenient. The folks are friendly. You don't even have to get out of your car. We welcome new members. If you're interested and would like more information about SVDP at our parish, please call the parish office.

Saint Quotes of the Week

"Happiness can only be achieved by looking inward and learning to enjoy whatever life has, and this requires transforming greed into gratitude." ~ St. John Chrysostom

"There is nothing the devil fears so much, or so much tries to hinder, as prayer." ~St. Philip Neri

Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Our families need to ask for the gift of the Spirit! Through prayer, even in the busiest times, we give time back to God, we find the peace that comes from appreciating the important things, and we encounter the joy of God's unexpected gifts. Through daily prayer may our homes become, like the house of Martha and Mary, places where Jesus always finds a warm welcome (Pope Francis)." While it is necessary to attend to the details of hospitality, learning how to be present to people, experiences, and God is sometimes more important. Creating homes that are welcoming environments requires not only organization and structure but members who truly enjoy being there and celebrating life with one another.

Details can often get the best of us. While attending to details is important to success, our obsession with them can be problematic. Whether wanting to make a good impression, fear of failure, insecurity, or emotional immaturity, throwing ourselves into the "details" of hospitality can distract us from being present to those we want to serve. Conversely, focusing exclusively on being present without any attention to detail also sets our attempts at hospitality up for disaster! We need a balance of both. But creating a truly welcoming space in our homes and within ourselves requires still more.

We have to be empty of ourselves. Becoming a welcoming, hospitable person is not possible in someone focused on their own needs and desires. If the one we serve is the one who looks back at us in the mirror, then there is no space for anyone else. While Martha and Mary had different ideas of what it means to serve, they both had the inner space and freedom to do so. They were detached from themselves. Detachment becomes the challenge to hospitality and creating a God-centered, open-hearted space in our lives. When we impulsively act out of our personal agendas, violence, abuse, pride, greed, lust, power, control, passion, and self-aggrandizement encroach upon the space needed to be present to another human being. Not only can others not find a home in us, but even God cannot find a home in us! ©LPi

Social Concerns Committee Meeting
TODAY after the 8am Mass
New members are always welcome.

Missionary Appeal Thank You

It was a joy for me, Sr. Dorothy Fabritze, MSC to be present at the Sunday Liturgies the weekend of June 18-19, 2022. I shared with you the efforts of the Missionary Sisters of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus to empower the local church in 20 countries around the world to continue a tradition of compassionate presence through skilled and creative responses to needs. I am grateful for your hospitality during my visit, for the opportunity to meet so many new friends, and for your generous donations. Our indigenous Sisters are grateful that they can be the Heart of God in our world. Without your generosity and shared mission, much of our work would be in jeopardy. Our Sisters will continue to pray for all of you and your intentions.

In Jesus' heart,
Sr. Dorothy Fabritze, MSC

Pope Francis' July Intention

We pray for the elderly, who represent the roots and memory of a people; may their experience and wisdom help young people to look towards the future with hope and responsibility.

Bishop Ricken's July Intention

That all of those enjoying the warmth, rest, and recreation of summer may be protected and renewed in their faith and make sure to keep holy the Sabbath day, Sunday.
