Pope Francis' August Intention

We pray for small and medium sized businesses; in the midst of economic and social crisis, may they find ways to continue operating, and serving their communities.

Bishop Ricken's August Intention

For families, that the Holy Spirit may guide them in their journey toward holiness and unity in Jesus Christ through the practice of family prayer.

Please remember in your prayers those who are sick.

Karen Hoffmann, Mary Yahr, Blake Gonnering, Garret Darling, Victoria Bocik, Dominic Commisso, Ty Mursau, Wally Surma, Jim Borlen, Sandy Levezow, Anna Roberts, Salli Carew Bunno, Mark Zellmer, Bill Levezow, Brent VanBoxtel, Haley Raisler, Noah Prentice, Elizabeth VanHoff, Alen Jones, Gene Griffin, Cole Stoffel, Diane Treuber, Eugene Vosters, Meggen Burkard, John Levezow, Stella Cornelius, Jill Mauss, Lauren & Aspen Sheperd, Annabelle Hauser, Jim Besaw, Tom Zellmer, Matthew & Lukea Gasque, Jacob Kinney, Ahnna Groholski and Janice Steffek

Prayer for the sick: Dear God, we place our worries in your hands. We place our sick under your care and humbly ask that you restore your servants to health again. Above all, grant us the grace to acknowledge your will and know that whatever you do, you do for the love of us. AMEN.

Thank You for Your Support of the Seminarian Collection

Over the past seventeen years, the Seminarian Collection has supported 38 men in their formation to the priesthood. Thank you for your prayers and financial support that helped make this collection a success!

Our diocese has been blessed by a generous anonymous gift to the one by One campaign. This gift will cover the costs of our seminarians' tuition, room and board, as well as the Kairos formation house for the next five years. As a result of this generosity, the Seminarian Collection has been paused.

Please continue to pray for our seminarians and for an increase in vocations. If you know a man that would make a great priest, please tell him and ask him to be open to God's call. To learn more about how we are supporting ministries that are raising vocations, please visit www.catholicfoundationgb.org/vocations.

Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

St. Thomas Aquinas reminds us that, "Three things are necessary for the salvation of man: to know what he ought to believe, to know what he ought to desire, and to know what he ought to do." Everyone is called to work toward their salvation, which is ultimately union with God. Those who take this call seriously must embark upon a journey inward to the deepest recesses of their soul. In the adventure and wonder of that journey, we work out the details of our union with our Beloved. We cling to what we need to believe, remain firm in what we truly desire, and are guided by what we know we have to do. Once we know that our goal is to be one with our Creator, life becomes an exciting expedition to pursue that end. We make necessary preparations, follow the map, and remain on course.

Whenever we really want something, we put our entire selves into achieving it. Being fully invested in our labor, we willingly work extra hours, devote an abundance of energy and effort, and remain vigilant for beneficial opportunities that may come our way. We certainly do not passively sit by doing nothing! Such an attitude leads to laziness and the accomplishment of little. Worse yet, some look to others to do the work for them, hoping to reap the benefits of another's efforts. Conscientiousness and diligence are the only means to success.

For the one who eagerly awaits the day when they can be fully with God, life becomes a joyous adventure indeed! Alert, ready, focused, convicted, and willing to be a servant they constantly watch and prepare themselves for meeting the Lord. Loving the journey and being in love with their Creator, their lives become joyful witnesses of love and service. They are secure in their hope, confident in their faith, and perfect in their love. Never looking for recognition or gratitude, they stand as gentle inspirations of what the Holy Spirit can do in the hearts of those who believe. Because we do not know what tomorrow will bring, we stand ready to be used as God wills and run eagerly toward Him when He comes. How much do we desire to experience the joy of salvation? ©LPI

School Supply Drive 2022

The Social Concerns Committee at Sacred Heart will be collecting school supplies for the Manawa School District during the month of August. If you would like to donate supplies, please drop off at either church entrance. Shown below are a few ideas that were shared with the committee.

We will also accept monetary donations to help in purchasing the needed supplies. If you would like to give money toward school supplies, please put it in an envelope marked "School Supplies" and drop in the basket at church or mail out to the Sacred Heart Office. Thank you for your generosity.
