An ex-Satanist, a lice ridden, homeless wanderer and a little 17th Century nun who dropped dead from the shock of what she was shown, only to choose to return to life to suffer for the 20th and 21st centuries.

Come, be amazed, share thoughtful reflections and prepare yourself for October, the month dedicated to Mary.

It's a perfect opportunity to learn more about what we believe, take part in assisting our students on their journey into the faith and enjoy fellowship, prayer and worship. Besides our regular studies, we will have testimonials, praise and worship, food and wrap up our evening with chanted evening prayer.

This is a perfect opportunity to delve deeper into your faith and to bond with others who are just beginning to understand what we believe. What a perfect way for our students to learn about their parish and the wonderful people that make it the glorious place it is. We hope you will join us."
