Psalm 128 1:4
Happy are all who
fear the Lord,
who walk in the ways of God.
What your hands
provide you will enjoy;
you will be happy
and prosper.
Life a fruitful vine your
wife within your home,
like olive plants
your children
around your table.
Just so will they
be blessed who
fear the Lord.

Penitential Rite

In the gospel of Luke (18:10-14), Jesus told the parable of two men, who prayed in the Temple; one very religious, felt he was perfect; the other who stood at a distance, fearing God, who declared himself a sinner. Jesus praised the second man's prayer.

The Mass begins with the Penitential Rite and it is important to make use of this part of the Mass, because it focuses on our sinfulness and creates a deep sense of our need for God. In the last forty years there has been a general loss of consciousness of sin, and that is, as some say, the greatest success of Satan: making us feel we have no need for God and His forgiveness.

In his Sermon on the Mount (Matthew 5:23-24), Jesus told His disciples that broken relationships can hinder our relationship with God. If we have a problem or grievance with a friend, we should resolve the problem as soon as possible. We are hypocrites if we claim to love God while we hate others. Our attitudes toward others reflect our relationship with God (1John 4:20).

At the beginning of the Mass there is a public confession. This prayer is directed not only to God, but to everyone present. We acknowledge our acts that separated us from God: through our own fault, in our minds, in our hearts, in our actions and –very important– in what we have not done. It is an admission that we are in desperate need of God to rescue us from our plight. Our sins have consequences: they separate us from God, they create discord, cause pain. Not only do we need God who can rescue us, but we also need God to empower us to change our lifestyle.

We must note one thing about the Jewish idea of prayer. The Jews believed that a prayer of an individual runs a risk of being centered on oneself, and so, the highest kind of prayer– the Jews believed– is the prayer of the community, from which we should not separate ourselves. It has always been the belief of the Church that when we gather to pray as a Community, we are joined by the angels and the saints: heaven comes down to us. We acknowledge the “unseen” world that joins us. We ask the Mother of God, the angels and the saints to do, what the people gathered with you and the priest are asking you to do and do it: ask God to hear their prayers!

The Penitential Rite is a general prayer of absolution. It does not have the power to forgive us of mortal sins in the way that the prayer of absolution does in the Sacrament of Penance, but in a general way it reminds us that this prayer is one way to accept the mercy of God that is given to the church through the merits of Jesus Christ. Open you heart to this gift.
Fr. Joachim

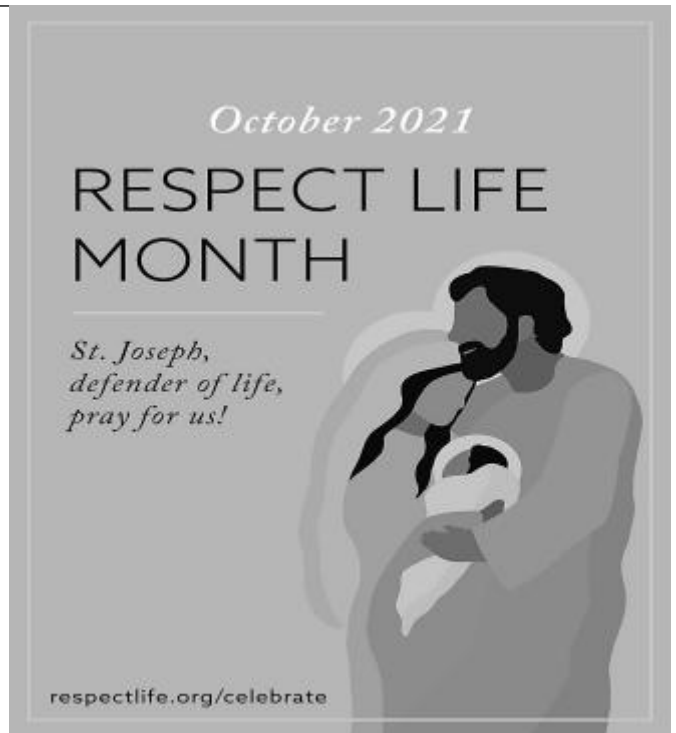

Dearest St. Joseph,

At the word of an angel, you lovingly took Mary into your home. As God's humble servant, you guided the Holy Family on the road to Bethlehem, you welcomed Jesus as your own son in the shelter of a manger, and fled far from your homeland for the safety of both Mother and Child.

We praise God that as their faithful protector, you never hesitated to sacrifice for those entrusted to you. May your example inspire us also to welcome, cherish, and safeguard God's most precious gift of life.

Help us to faithfully commit ourselves to the service and defense of human life especially where it is vulnerable or threatened. Obtain for us the grace to do the will of God in all things. Amen
