Verse 1:2

When the Lord restored the fortunes of Zion,
then we thought we were dreaming.
Our mouths were filled with laughter;
our tongues sang for joy.
Then it was said among the nations,
“The Lord has done great things for us;
Oh, how happy we were!.

On the Mass
Liturgy of the Word

St. Justin (c.100-165), an early Christian philosopher, wrote about the Mass: "For as long as there is time, the Memoirs of the Apostles or the writings of the prophets are read. Then, when the reader has finished, the presider verbally gives a warning and appeal for the imitation of these good examples."

The Mass has two parts: Liturgy of the Word and Liturgy of the Eucharist. In the Liturgy of the Word we listen to the Readings prepared from the Bible that tell us of the wonders that God has worked throughout from the beginning of time until the time when His Son through the incarnation took upon himself our human nature and through His sacrificial death reconciled us with God. Whenever we hear the Word of God, after it is explained to us, we have to make a decision: will we agree what God is asking of us?

In the second part of the Mass we celebrate the sacrificial death of the Son of God as He instructed the disciples at the Last Supper to do. We do not sacrifice anymore oxen and lambs, goats and pigeons, but we repeat the sacrifice of our Lord at Calvary. In this part of the Mass we fulfill the command of Christ who commanded us to do this in His memory (Luke 22:19-20).

Most of the prayers and responses are taken from the Scripture.

During every celebration of the Mass we read parts of the Scripture. It is very important to be attentive to the Scripture readings. The two disciples, who were on their way to Emmaus, encountered the Risen Lord, who explained the Scriptures to them that concerned the Messiah, and He was disappointed at their lack of faith: "He said to them, "How foolish you are and how slow to believe all that the prophets have spoken" (Luke 24:25). They were slow to believeWhen we come to Mass, are we prepared to listen to the Word of God proclaimed in this church? Do we spend our time reflecting on His Word? The Scriptures are "living word," They will always speak to us in a way that nothing else can.

When you come back from church, read this: Isaiah 55:10-13
Fr. Joachim

Respect Life Word Of Life

"I would now like to say a special word to women who have had an abortion. The Church is aware of the many factors which may have influenced your decision, and she does not doubt that in many cases it was a painful and even shattering decision. The wound in your heart may not yet have healed...But do not give in to discouragement and do not lose hope...The Father of mercies is ready to give you His forgiveness and His peace in the Sacrament of Reconciliation."

God promised to give his people rich rewards, reassuring them that despite the punishments they had endured, He would not change His mind to bless them. However, He also said they had a job to do: "This is what you must do." God will be faithful, but we also have responsibilities:

"For this is what the Lord Almighty says: I did not change my mind when your ancestors angered me and I promised to punish them, says the Lord Almighty. Neither will I change my decision to bless Jerusalem and the people of Judah. So, don't be afraid. But this is what you must do: Tell the truth to each other. Render verdicts in your courts that are just and that lead to peace. Do not make evil plots to harm each other. And stop this habit of swearing to things that are false. I hate all these things, says the Lord" (Zechariah 8:14-17).

If we expect God to do His part, we have to make sure we do ours.
