As we celebrate the mystery of the Trinity we also realize the mystery of how much God loves and cares for us each day. Believing in this our lives can then overflow in thanksgiving and praise.

Your gift in the St. Vincent de Paul Poor Box will help the poor to believe in the mystery of God’s love for them.

Callie Smith is the young college student who volunteered to coordinate the reservations for our “Coming Back” to church. As some struggled with the postponement until June 14, Callie was inspired to express her thoughts. I was impressed and touched by her explanation:

I know you are disappointed that we are unable to celebrate Mass in church this weekend. Please know that all of our staff members are just as disappointed as this is what we long to be able to do. However, the reality is there are many things we know about the virus and many things we don’t know about the virus. That is why we said coming to Mass would be a huge risk. Fr. Mike polled the pastoral council and parish staffs and the decision he made was not out of fear, it was out of love.

The decision he made was very difficult for him as I could see the heartbreak and sadness take a physical toll of Fr. Mike. The most difficult decision was made out of love—love that Fr. Mike has for our parishioners and for his staff members, and ultimately for our whole community. Today as Christians, we should be like the disciples and go out to all of the world and tell the Good News, believe and have faith. We should not hide away in a building. “For whenever two or three are gathered in my name, I am with them” - Matthew 18:20. Church is not a building or a ritual. Church is the community of people uniting together to spread God’s love. I have found a great verse in the Bible—A message from God to help us through this difficult time. Ephesians 4:2, “Be completely humble and gentle; Be patient, bearing with one another in love.” God calls us to look beyond ourselves and put others before us in humility. He urges us to be patient and to bear all of our struggles, pain, concerns, frustrations, heart break together as one body in love. I urge you today, as a fellow Christian, to be patient and in the mean time we will share in the struggles and heartbreak together because we are the Body of Christ and we must love one another.

Peace and love to you and to all! Callie Smith
Greetings from Mary Sue Reutebuch—Director of Christian Formation: Family and Youth Programs

As we wrap up the school year, I'm reflecting back on what an unusual experience it has been. On our first day of school back in late August, I never imagined we would end the school year in the midst of a global pandemic with our students learning from their homes and we all would face unimaginable emotional, physical, and financial challenges.

In the midst of this uncertainty, one of the constants for our students has been their teachers. They rose to the challenge in uncharted waters, providing a sense of normalcy and routine when children were feeling unsure and scared. Our teachers continued to prepare innovative lessons with engaging content, and helped our students to keep moving forward in their education when the world seemed to come to a screeching halt. Most importantly, they were there to listen and encourage when at times it became more important to look after their spirits than their studies.

Please join me in congratulating our teachers on a most successful year!

Review by Goodreads.com:
Already an internet phenomenon, these wise and insightful lessons by popular newspaper columnist and Pulitzer Prize finalist Regina Brett will make you see the possibilities in your life in a whole new way.

This is one of those books where it didn't feel like I picked it; rather, it picked me. First, the title of this book intrigued me. When I opened it and read the table of contents it presented 50 powerful lessons/short chapters. A few of them called me loudly. For example, Lesson 8, "It's okay to be angry with God. He can take it." Lesson 9, "Everything can change in the blink of an eye. But don't worry; God Never Blinks." I read both chapters and knew this would be a book I came to know as "friend." 😊

The lessons are born from the author's experiences. Her authentic delivery is powerful, poignant, funny, and inspiring!
