CHING CUA--SALA MAT--DONGASHOEN-- KOP KHUN KOP--KOP KHUN MAT KOP-- GRACIAS--MERCI...

All these words in different languages are telling you that the words "Thank you" said a million times wouldn't be enough to share with you, my friends at St. Joan of Arc and St. Catherine's, for all the love, concern, faith, and hope I have received looking in my past years. Too many amily and friends passing on to the Lord--so many children of all ages in Thailand and others around the world having new lives. Sometimes I sit in our little chapel and go through all the cards, gifts, donations and love I have received tell me over and over again "God is good, all the time." Please know all of you are remembered, not just in a quick prayer, but in many moments just sitting in our little chapel with you in mind.

AS OF FEBRUARY 1, 2022 MY ADDRESS WILL BE:

After Jesus was baptized, he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and a voice was heard "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased." As we give to the poor, we also can hear these same words.

As you help those who are suffering, know in your heart the truth of the words "you are my beloved with whom I am well pleased."

Week of Prayer for Christian Unity 2022

God of every nation, the Lord Jesus Christ has been made manifest by becoming one of us and one with us. Born in homelessness, he is our King and Lord. The Magi bore witness to the Light of hope coming into the world as they faithfully followed the star.

The communion of God with created humanity in Epiphany calls us to a life of solidarity with the homeless, the refugee, the weakest and the rejected. Help us, O gracious Lord, to do this in unity and peace.

As we who bear the name of Christian hold a special place in our hearts for the ancient Christian communities in the land we call holy, remind us of our baptismal commitment to love.

Help your Church, merciful One, to be a light for unity within itself and a beacon of hope for all humanity. We ask this through Jesus Christ, who with you and the Holy Spirit reign as One God for ever and ever. Amen.

GRIEF WORKSHOP POSTPONED

“Honoring the Seasons of Grief” 6 week workshop scheduled in January and February has been postponed until spring due to the challenges of COVID continues to bring to our lives.

Please contact Linda Skosey, Parish Nurse, with any questions or concerns at 920-474-7000 or lskosey@scsjcluster.org.

BINGO AT SHOREHAVEN

SJA has been providing BINGO to the residents of Shorehaven for over 40 years. During that time, Dick and Dolores Rose have faithfully provided the leadership, most of the prizes and recruiting other parish members to help the residents have an enjoyable evening. We thank them for their dedication. They are unable to continue in this role, but we want to continue this service as a parish.

We do have a very small group of volunteers who have come back after the Covid -19 lockdowns, but we need a larger pool of volunteers to provide the help needed.

We hope you are interested in helping! If you are or have any questions, please contact Marsha Zelloth, at mzelloth@yahoo.com or call the parish office. Come spend an hour or so with folks who are happy to have us there! Thank you.

Advent Giving Tree

We want to say a huge thank you to everyone who helped make Christmas special for those in need. The response from the various agencies and both St. Vincent DePaul chapters connected to our cluster was one of deep gratitude for your generous participation in our Advent Giving Trees.

So many lives of men, woman and children were brightened during this Holy Season because of your efforts. You have once again generously shown your Faith in Action.

Thanks to all who volunteered to help in the collection and distribution of the cards and gifts.

Jane Braam, St. Catherine's Coordinator

FEAST OF THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

Make us Holy

Loving Father,
 you sent the gift of the Spirit
 upon your beloved Son
 on the banks of the Jordan long ago.
 And upon each of us,
 the Spirit called upon the waters,
 making them holy.
 Strengthen us in that same Spirit,
 make us holy, set us apart,
 that we answer your call.
 Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

January 9, 2022

In You I Am Well Pleased

Today's readings: Isaiah 42, 1–4 or Isaiah 40:1–5, 9–11; Psalm 29:1–2, 3–4, 3, 9–10 or Psalm 104:1b–2, 3–4, 24–25, 27–28, 29–20; Acts 10:34–38 or Titus 2:11–14, 3:4–7; Luke 3:15–16, 21–22. John the Baptist pointed away from himself and toward Jesus. He spoke God's Word to the people and baptized those who came to him, but he knew that he was not the messiah, the one who will baptize "with the holy Spirit and fire." And then one day, Jesus came to him to be baptized.

The heavens opened and the Spirit came down in the form of a dove. "You are my Beloved Son; with you I am well pleased." The Holy Spirit descended bodily, making Jesus ready for his public ministry. What joy John must have felt to see the fulfillment of God's promises to him and to the people of Israel! It was the beginning of Jesus' public ministry, in which he preached the kingdom of God but also revealed it in everything that he did.

On the day of our baptism, we receive the same Holy Spirit that descended on Jesus two thousand years ago. It is the beginning of our own vocation to reveal the kingdom of God in our words and our actions: to be like Jesus. How is God calling you today? You are God's beloved child, in whom God is well pleased. How will you carry the joy of that revelation into your life beyond the Christmas season?

THIS WEEK AND BEYOND

January 10—March 1 Ordinary Time

The word ordinary can feel like a synonym for “boring,” but Ordinary Time is far from it. This season takes its name from the ordinal numbers (first, second, third, fourth, fifth, and so on) that are used to count the Sundays and the weeks that follow them. While the seasons of Advent, Christmas, Lent, and Easter have a certain importance in the liturgical year, that does not diminish Ordinary Time. Consider that as the priest prepares the paschal candle at the Easter Vigil, he states, “All time belongs to him.” How might you use this season to grow closer to God?

January 18–25 Prayer for Christian Unity

The Week of Prayer for Christian Unity spans an octave, or eight-day observance, a time frame that lends significance to the week. It is a great sorrow to be separated from our brothers and sisters in Christ, unable to join around the Eucharistic table together to “do this in memory of me.” We wait in hope in a special way during this week for the day when all divisions among Christians will cease.

January 25 Conversion of St. Paul

This feast commemorates the day when Saul, an observant young Jewish man who opposed the early Christians and even participated in the stoning death of St. Stephen, had an encounter with the risen Jesus. Saul, also known as Paul, left behind his former life to become an apostle to the gentiles. To preach the Gospel, you might offer forgiveness and mercy to someone who is not sorry, serve a meal at a soup kitchen with a joyful heart, or drop off a box of diapers at a place that serves mothers and children. Today’s readings: Acts 22: 3–6 or Acts 9:1–22; Psalm 117:1bc, 2; Mark 16:15–18.

January 28 St. Thomas Aquinas

Known as the angelic doctor, St. Thomas Aquinas was a Dominican priest whose writings are essential to the way we understand what we believe. He was a great theologian and philosopher, engaging with the intellectual currents of his day as well as those of ancient philosophy. St. Thomas described the beatific vision, unending happiness and union with God, as the goal of human life. Today’s readings: 2 Samuel 11:1–4a, 5–10a, 13–17; Psalm 51: 3–4, 5–6a, 6bcd–7, 10–11; Mark 4:26–34.

January 31 St. John Bosco

St. John Bosco was an Italian priest who worked to improve the lives of young people who lived in poverty. He went into the world to encounter the young people who had traveled to the city to try to find a better life but were living in abject poverty and unsafe conditions. He began many initiatives and organizations to assist children and was the founder of a religious congregation. Today’s readings: 2 Samuel 15:13–14, 30, 16:5–13; Psalm 3:2–3, 4–5, 6–7; Mark 5:1–20.

February 2 The Presentation of the Lord

This feast, forty days after Christmas, is traditionally a time to bring candles to church to be blessed. In Luke’s account of the Gospel, we hear Simeon proclaim Jesus “a light for revelation to the Gentiles and glory for your people Israel.” The Gospel according to John is also a source of the imagery of light associated with Jesus. Anna and Simeon watched and waited for the light throughout their lives. At times, it can be difficult to wait for what we most hope for. Watching and waiting for the light, we can unite ourselves with the waiting of Anna and Simeon. What desires of your heart are you still waiting to have fulfilled? You might decorate a tealight holder and light the candle to remind you to wait in hope. Today’s readings: Malachi 3:1–4, Psalm 24:7, 8, 9, 10; Hebrews 2:14–18; Luke 2: 22–40.

Greetings from Mary Sue Reutebuch

Director of Christian Formation: Family and Youth Programs

We all, including children, may be feeling stressed and struggling with our feelings and emotions. If you're looking for an age-appropriate way to validate your child's feelings and use positive coping strategies, reach for a book!

Social distancing? No problem, you can find these books within the comfort of your home by calling your local library or searching online for audio and free printable versions. Below are a few that you might find very helpful to read and discuss with your child.

Ruby Finds a Worry by Tom Percival

Ruby discovers that everyone has worries, and uncovers ways to get rid of them.

When Worry Takes Hold by Liz Haske

When worry sneaks into Maya's mind she focuses on finding courage. She discovers strategies, including calming breaths, to break free from Worry's hold.

Me and My Fear by Francesca Sanna

This story encourages kids to share their fears with a trusted adult. It also normalizes this feeling by reminding readers that everyone carries some type of fear, 'even if it's small enough to fit in their pocket'.

When My Worries Get Too Big! by Kari Dunn Buron

This book provides kids with an opportunity to explore their feelings and emotions with a trusted adult. They will also discover relaxation techniques to lessen the size of their worries.

Listening with my Heart: A story of Kindness and Self-Compassion by Gabi Garcia

This book focuses on battling kids' worries and negative self-talk by promoting kindness, towards both others and yourself.

What to Do When You Worry Too Much: A Kid's Guide to Overcoming Anxiety by Dawn Huebner

A popular pick amongst mental health experts! This book provides clear how-to steps and prompts to draw and write which help kids master skills related to reducing anxiety.

What to Do When You're Scared and Worried: A Guide for Kids by James J. Crist

This book provides kids with reassurance, advice, and ideas when scared or worried. Kids will learn more about where fear and worries come from, and how they can seek help for fears they can't manage on their own.
