In today's Gospel Jesus is quite clear in his message: "bear fruit or be cut down." This Lent we are called to cultivate and fertilize our spiritual lives through prayer, fasting and almsgiving.

Through your almsgiving you are performing a good work; far greater than you think. Know that your nickel, dime, or quarter is multiplied by the coins placed by others in the St. Vincent de Paul Poor Box.

NO GREATER LOVE

THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT

Make Us Whole

God of our longing,
 your love surpasses all understanding.
 Humbly repentant,
 we ask for your mercy in our Lenten journey.
 Though we have failed to love others,
 and you above all,

we pray for a new heart.
 Though we have fallen,
 feel broken and lonely,
 you call us to return to you,
 and we desire to be made whole.
 Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Another Chance

Today's readings: Exodus 3:1–8a, 13–15; Psalm 103:1–2, 3–4, 6–7, 7–8, 11; 1 Corinthians 10:1–6, 10–12; Luke 13:1–9. Jesus often taught through parables, stories that illustrate truths and moral principles through everyday encounters, situations, and activities.

Today, the parable comes from the world of agriculture. A fig tree has not borne any fruit for several years. The owner wants to cut it down, but the gardener wants to give it another chance, providing especially good care to it for another year. If after receiving increased attention the tree does not bear fruit, it will be cut down. Just as the gardener is willing to spend more time cultivating the fig tree, God will offer us many chances to change our lives. It is up to us to allow God's love to nourish us so that we can bear good fruit. Where do you need to be open to God's intervention in your life? Will you seek God to change your heart to mend a relationship or to help another person in need?

God graciously welcomes us when we repent and desire to be more of who we are called to be. Allowing Jesus to cultivate the soil of our hearts brings growth. As we give our hearts to the Lord, our compassion, generosity, and humility will increase. With changed hearts, we gain more clarity about the meaning and purpose of our lives, and will spread God's love to others.

THIS WEEK AT HOME

Monday, March 21

Attending to the Ordinary

The Gospel today notes how those with no status, such as an unknown widow, a leper, and a man from Nazareth, were overlooked. No one saw their greatness. The living God works in and through every part of creation, most notably through human beings. Pay attention to all the ways that God presents himself to you in ordinary ways—the sunrise, a budding plant, the person behind the counter when you get lunch, the laugh of a family member. Today's readings: 2 Kings 5:1–15ab; Psalm 42:2, 3; 43:3, 4; Luke 4:24–30.

Tuesday, March 22

How Many Times?

How many times should we forgive? Jesus says seventy-seven times. Furthermore, he doesn't mean an exact count either! If we are to expect God to forgive us, we must be willing to forgive others. Set aside time today for journaling, reflecting upon, and writing about any grudges you are holding or past grievances you have not released. Forgive in your heart, and vow to keep the grievance in the past. Today's readings: Daniel 3:25, 34–43; Psalm 25:4–5ab, 6 and 7bc, 8 and 9; Matthew 18:21–35.

Wednesday, March 23

The Greatest

Greatness often is associated with accomplishments, athleticism, or scholarship. Jesus presents another vision in the Gospel. He tells us that to be the greatest in the kingdom, we need only to follow God's commandments and teach others to do the same. The best way to teach is by example. Be mindful that your actions and words show love for God and your neighbor. Today's readings: Deuteronomy 4:1, 5–9; Psalm 147:12–13, 15–16, 19–20; Matthew 5:17–19.

Thursday, March 24

Listen, and Listen Again

Jesus strongly tells us that a kingdom divided against itself cannot survive. If hearts are hardened against God's Word, we cannot be unified—as a community, a country, or a Church. Pray for unity today, that we will listen to the voice of God and open our hearts to God and one another. Today's readings: Jeremiah 7:23–28; Psalm 95:1–2; 6–7; 8–9; Luke 11:14–23.

Friday, March 25

Annunciation of the Lord

Today we hear the story of Mary's encounter with the angel Gabriel, when Mary said yes to God's will. Mary's courage, faithfulness, and humility are examples for all seeking to live as disciples. The annunciation is the first of the joyful mysteries. (The other mysteries are the visitation, the nativity, the presentation in the temple, and the finding in the temple.) Pray the Rosary, reflecting on each joyful mystery. Today's readings: Isaiah 7:10–14; 8:10; Psalm 40:7–8a, 8b–9, 10, 11; Hebrews 10:4–10; Luke 1:26–38.

Saturday, March 26

Steadfast Love

The Pharisee was sure of his worthiness, while the tax collector was just as sure of his sinfulness. Though the Pharisee fasted, paid tithes, and kept the law, it was the tax collector who went home justified. Our God of steadfast love and mercy welcomes back sinners who seek forgiveness. Do not be afraid to acknowledge your sins and receive God's mercy and forgiveness through the sacrament of reconciliation. Check neighboring parishes and your own for schedules for confession. God will heal and bind up the wounds of contrite sinners. Today's readings: Hosea 6:1–6; Psalm 51:3–4, 18–19, 20–21ab; Luke 18:9–14.

Greetings from Mary Sue Reutebuch - Director of Christian Formation: Family and Youth Programs

Following the call of Christ is rarely easy - Meet Sister Lucía Caram, the nun who drove 4,000 miles in a weekend to save Ukrainian refugees

According to an article from, America, the Jesuit Review, Sister Lucía is a dynamic, contemplative Dominican living in Spain. Her work is very much in the spirit of Pope Francis, who knows her. She has extraordinary organizing skills and is well known in Spain for her assistance to refugees and her work to combat child poverty.

Last weekend Sister Lucía, age 55, drove 2,000 miles in a mini-bus from her convent in Manresa-to Romania's northern border with Ukraine.

"We cannot just look on the other side because peace depends on everyone," she said. "The Ukrainians are our brothers and sisters." Sister Lucía also said she was "deeply impressed" by the large crowd that came to protest the war. It revealed that "people want peace, not war."

Sister Lucía told America, the Jesuit Review reporters, regarding her findings at the refugee camp in Romania, "I was deeply moved as I watched a stream of coaches bringing Ukrainian refugees, and a river of refugees, arriving by foot, having walked many, many miles," she said. "They came with little or nothing, clutching their few belongings. They were exhausted. They all looked afraid; they were like sheep. I will never forget seeing very many men, some of them young and alone, walking back towards the Ukrainian border, carrying a rucksack or bag, with tears in their eyes," she said. "They were returning to fight for their homeland."

The refugees were given a warm welcome when they arrived at the convent. The sisters of Sister Lucía's community were waiting to greet them along with many young people, older volunteers and members of the press. News of Sister Lucía's daring enterprise had traveled fast.

For four years now, Sister Lucía and her community have been assisting three Ukrainian families, and more recently they have been caring for a mother and child who had come from Ukraine. Because of these experiences, Sister Lucía was already well informed about the situation before the war began.

Greetings from Mrs. Holly Cerveny Principal of St. Joan of Arc School

Our Lenten Sierra Cross

Telling the story of Christ's Passion in Prayers and Symbols

Each Wednesday morning during Lent, our whole school gathers to recognize our Sierra Cross. Each week, we pray and learn about the symbols in the story of the Passion of Jesus.

Here you will see just a few of the symbols—the INRI sign that was placed over he hung on the cross, the money Peter was given to deny Jesus and the rooster that crowed when Peter denied Jesus three times, the chalice which reminds us of Christ's blood shed for us when we receive Communion, the sword used to pierce Jesus's side, and the crown of thorns Jesus wore. By the time we complete the 40 days of Lent, our cross will be covered in these symbols.

Not only do these prayers and symbols help our students to learn about the Passion, students practice their public speaking in front of their peers and parents, and learn to practice reverence as they return to class in silence.

We also can't forget what a joy it is to be able to gather together after putting this tradition on hold!
