HOW CAN I SERVE?

As members of our Pastoral community, we are asked to serve the church through active participation, not only in the Liturgy but also in the various councils and commissions that help to keep our two parishes vibrant and viable for years to come. Stewardship means that we contribute our time, talent and treasure to the activities of the Church.

Our Combined Pastoral Council serves a key role in envisioning and planning the direction that will allow our churches to serve our various constituents – parishioners, community, Catholic Church and the world.

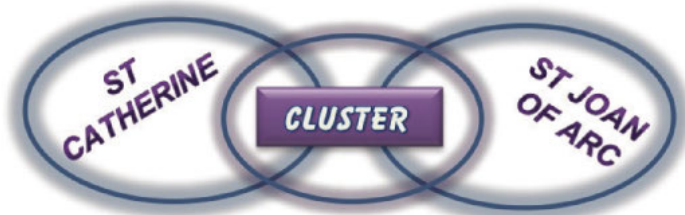

In spring of each year, our two parishes conduct a process for identifying candidates to serve on our Pastoral Council, either as at-large members or as Trustees. Council members must be baptized, practicing Catholics, registered members of the parish, participants in the parish worship life, especially Mass and the sacraments, and at least 18 years of age. (25 years for the Trustee position.)

This year, we will be looking to fill several at-large positions on the Council, as well as the Trustee-Secretary position at St. Catherine and Trustee-Treasurer position at St. Joan of Arc.

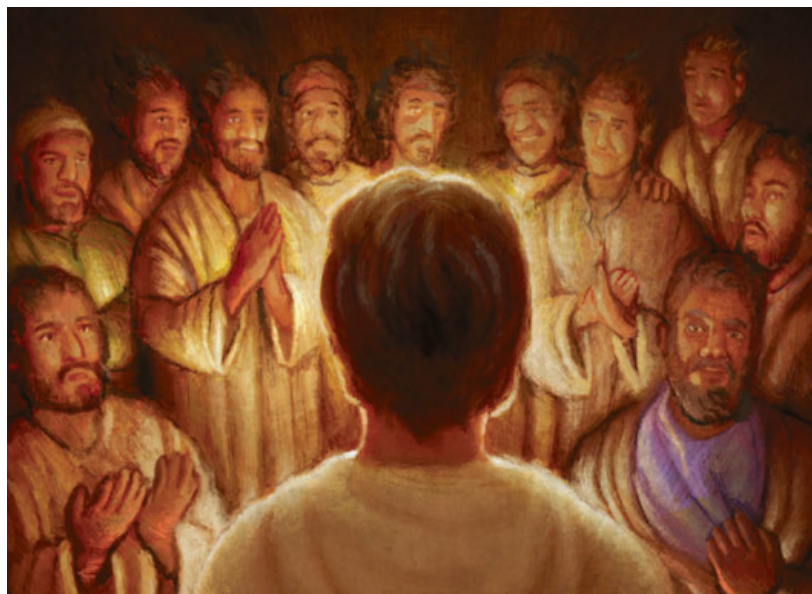

Over the next several weeks, information regarding the open positions as well as the process for choosing at-large members and electing Trustees will be provided during and after Mass, in the Bulletins and on our website. We encourage any parishioner who meets the requirements to consider this opportunity to serve our Parishes in these important roles.

SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER SUNDAY OF DIVINE MERCY

The Gift of Faith

Merciful God,
in this Easter season
you call us to see through eyes of faith.
Soften the hardness of our hearts that keeps us from seeing you in one another.
Give us the gift of your peace
and strengthen our belief in your presence;

especially when our vision is clouded by fear and doubt.
We thank you for the gift of faith so freely given
and for the courage to embrace that faith and give witness to it for the good of all people.
Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Sunday, April 24, 2022
All Things Are Possible

Today's readings: Acts 5:12–16; Psalm 118:2–4, 13–15, 22–24; Revelation 1:9–11a, 12–13, 17–19; John 20:19–31.
At times, it may seem farfetched to place belief in a person or a possibility. Having been sure at some time of an impossibility, we may identify with the apostle Thomas. He might have felt that Jesus could not have risen from the dead.

So sure was Thomas in his absence of belief that he told his friends, “Unless I see the marks of nails in his hands and put my finger into the nail marks . . . I will not believe.” Once Jesus entered the locked room, Thomas’ heart changes and he declared, “My Lord and my God!” Jesus accepted this change with mercy.

When tempted to lock ourselves away for fear of hurt or disappointment, it is good to be mindful that Jesus Christ can still be present to us. “Peace be with you,” he said to the disciples and he says to us in our tribulations. The gift of faith that he offers can provide the courage to step out of the locked room where we hide our emotions, our gifts, and our hopes. For our generation and so many others, Jesus said, “Blessed are those who have seen and have believed.” Where in your life are you unsure and need to change your heart? Spend time asking Christ to enter that place and bring you peace.

THIS WEEK AT HOME

Monday, April 25 Gospel Boldness

What does it mean today to speak the Word of God with boldness? To embrace a life that is based on Gospel values? Living out Gospel values can bring a beacon of hope to others. In the face of anger and hatred, such a way of living means to choose to love; in the face of weariness and sickness, it means to be a healing presence. Whenever we choose to hope, to love, and to heal, our faith is lived out loud. Such a faith alerts others to the presence of God. Today's readings: 1 Peter 5:5b–14; Psalm 89:2–3, 6–7, 16–17; Mark 16:15–20.

Tuesday, April 26 Creating a Community of Love

“The community of believers was of one heart and mind,” we hear in the reading from Acts. Imagine the Church acting with “one heart and mind.” The possibilities are limitless. The poor among us would be cared for, those in need of comfort and healing would find a place to rest, there would be no one marginalized because everyone would be welcomed. Pay attention to those who enter your life and how you welcome them. Your welcome reveals God’s love. Today's readings: Acts 4:32–37; Psalm 93:1ab, 1cd–2, 5; John 3:7b–15.

Wednesday, April 27 God So Loved the World

“For God so loved the world that he gave his only-begotten Son” has been heralded on posters, billboards, and T-shirts. As today’s Gospel states, it is up to believers to live out the truth of God’s love. Keep in mind that you reflect God’s light and love in how you greet others, show compassion, and offer encouragement. Today's readings: Acts 5:17–26; Psalm 34:2–3, 4–5, 6–7, 8–9; John 3:16–21.

Thursday, April 28 Open to the Spirit

In the first reading, the apostles tell the Sanhedrin of the witness of the Holy Spirit; in the Gospel, Jesus says that the gift of the Spirit is not rationed. This Holy Spirit surrounds us in every moment, energizing us to offer to our world mercy and compassion. Pray to the Spirit for courage to live the Gospel in word and action. Today's readings: Acts 5:27–33; Psalm 34:2 and 9, 17–18, 19–20; John 3:31–36.

Friday, April 29 Grace in Abundance

Many people worry about scarcity. They are concerned that they do not have enough and even that they do not love enough. God’s grace, though, is available in abundance. In today’s Gospel, we hear of the apostles’ concern that there was not enough food for the crowd. Jesus, however, provides more than enough for all to have their fill. He takes precious little food and transforms it into a feast that yielded twelve baskets of food when all had eaten. Imagine what God can do with our lives when we are open to transformation. Today's readings: Acts 5:34–42; Psalm 27:1, 4, 13–14; John 6:1–15.

Saturday, April 30 A Simple Prayer

Any parent or guardian stays constantly alert to the well-being of their children. Why is it so hard to imagine that God does the same with us? As God’s children, we are not unlike the disciples in the boat: sometimes we get tossed about by life and feel anxious. As the disciples discovered, Jesus was not far away. Just as Jesus calls out and reassures the disciples, he does so with us. When you are facing a moment of fear, pray, “Jesus, I trust in you!” Today's readings: Acts 6:1–7; Psalm 33:1–2, 4–5, 18–19; John 6:16–21.

A Youth Homeless Experience Event

WHO: All Youth in grades 7-11 with parent permission

WHAT: Experience a night of homelessness

WHEN: May 20-21, 2022
5pm-7am

WHERE: St. Catherine of Alexandria, Oconomowoc

HOW: Parents REGISTER your teen with Joanna Vanderhoef, Office Manager for Ministry Operations at jvanderhoef@scsjcluster.org

Carry each other's burdens, and in this way, you will fulfill the law of Christ.

— Galatians 6:2

An estimated 553,742 people in the United States are experiencing homelessness on a given night. This Christian Formation youth event offers our teens an opportunity to learn more about homelessness by engaging in various activities and conversations that will hopefully grow both awareness and compassion!

We welcome Joe Nettesheim, Executive Director of Family Promise of Waukesha County to speak to our teens about homelessness in our area.

Greetings from Janis Parker and Joanna Vanderhoef

Dear Cluster Family,

After years of serving as a Youth Minister and Lead Catechist for the youth at St. Catherine of Alexandria and St. Joan of Arc, I am resigning to prepare for the next chapter of my life. I am deeply grateful for the support of our Pastoral Staff, Parents, and Catechists who have walked side by side with me.

Our youngest, Gus, will be off to college fall of 2023. I will be taking the next year to pray, discern and plan. My body loves the desert; the dry heat does wonders for my joints and arthritis. It is also an incredible place to bike, hike, and play golf; three great passions. So, I'll be splitting my time between living in Tucson, AZ, and living here in Lake Country. I am also exploring opportunities with the Peace Corps for Seniors, AmeriCorps for Seniors, Ignatian Volunteer Corps, and various Catholic Worker Houses in both Tucson and Milwaukee.

It has been a privilege to spend time with our youth over the past 13 years. They are strong, authentic, positive, humorous, and give honest direction to the future of our Catholic Church. They give me great hope.

God Bless today and always,

Janis Parker

Dear Friends,

It is with much sadness – but also great hope for the future – that I will resign my positions at St. Joan of Arc and St. Catherine of Alexandria at the end of the 2021-22 school and program year.

Words cannot express how grateful I am to have had an opportunity to serve the people of our school and parish community – my friends. The ability to work in a warm environment close to my children has made all the difference in the past four years.

I truly hope my work here has had a positive impact and that I am leaving these ministries better than when I came in. My family and I plan to continue to be involved with our parish and school communities as before, and while I'm sad to leave my position as employee, I look forward to returning to my role as parishioner and volunteer.

Thank you, as always, for your care and support.

Joanna Vanderhoef
