From the Pastor's Desk

Praised be Jesus Christ! Many of you have been asking about my new dog. The first time I was dumbfounded by the question, as I could not fathom how this rumor got started. When the parishioner mentioned that she had read about my dog in the church bulletin, I was even more confused. Then I realized that there's a second column that immediately follows mine and many of you have presumed that I am the author. No wonder a few months ago friends remarked that they were surprised that I was learning how to cook from YouTube videos. Another time my Mom asked about a picture I mentioned that used to hang in her bedroom. Well, it's good to know that people are reading the bulletin! For the record, I do not have a dog, I am not learning how to cook, and my articles rarely spill on to page two of the bulletin. We'll probably include the name of the priest who writes those short (and effective) articles on page two to avoid confusion in the future.

Speaking of confusion, there is always an ample amount of it surrounding the most important issues. I once knew a retired man who watched "Jeopardy" every day and, while he was impressed by the contestants' vast amount of knowledge covering a remarkable range of topics, he was equally impressed by their high level of ignorance when it came to questions about faith, especially fundamental questions about Christianity. As a sort of comparison, one is reminded of a famous Oscar Wilde quote: "Today we know the price of everything, and the value of nothing."

Continuing our theme of confusion, just this afternoon I received the weekly Pro-Life Wisconsin update and it contained a telling exchange that occurred last week. Here is the communication in full:

"Thank you to all who joined us for the first-ever Spring Social last Thursday, April 27! And congratulations to Senator Julian Bradley, recipient of the 2023 Pro-Life Wisconsin Legislator of the Year award, for his courageous and optimistic pro-life voice in the State Senate!

As many are aware, the location of the event changed last minute. This occurred due to a released email from our former venue, The Great Dane, in response to a pro-abortion activist:

"Thank you for caring enough about this issue to share your feelings. It is an awkward situation.

The Dane certainly does not share the values of the Pro Life group that we will be hosting. In fact, this very group has posted complaints about how progressive our company is. We plan on making a sizable donation to either NARAL (National Abortion Rights Activist League) or PPWI (Planned Parenthood of WI) or both the day after the event. The donation will be larger than the amount that the group spends at the Dane. (I would prefer if you didn't post that, but wanted you to know about it.) Would you like to speak with me about this? If so, I would be happy to talk. Let me know.

Sincerely, Eliot Butler, President Great Dane Pub & Brewing Company 608.284.0000"

The above email was indeed shared with us, and Pro-Life Wisconsin immediately decided to terminate our contract, find a new venue, and communicate the change to all of you. Pro-Life Wisconsin does not back down in the face of spite or attempts to subvert our mission. Thank you for your flexibility as our staff worked diligently to find a solution. We encourage all Pro-Life Wisconsinites to refrain from patronizing The Great Dane. A business that openly celebrates the barbarism of the abortion industry, the dismemberment of babies, and the violent killing of innocent preborn children has no place in Wisconsin."

Disappointing, but not terribly surprising. There is a lot of confusion about basic truths: we know when human life begins in an incontrovertible way. There is not a shred of doubt that a human embryo is alive and well on its way to becoming a person like you and me. But the confusion is not all of our fault: there is an enemy of human nature and he is God's ancient enemy too. That enemy never takes a day off. And because he is relentless, we get tired, discouraged, and then downright demoralized. Wisconsin, for example, is possibly headed in the direction of legalized abortion again . . . wasn't it just a year ago that we were rightly celebrating the end of Roe vs. Wade?!

Confusion can be countered by courage. During this month we celebrate the mighty Feast of Pentecost: fortitude or courage is one of the Holy Spirit's perennial gifts to our fallen race. Recently I came upon an insightful description of courage, its connection to happiness, and its foundation in faith:

"The secret of happiness is liberty, and the secret of liberty is courage," (Thucydides, History of the Peloponnesian War; Pericles' funeral oration for the Athenian dead after the first year of war). George Weigel adds this: "For if the secret of happiness is liberty and the secret of liberty is courage, the secret of courage is faith: faith in a larger reality than ourselves; faith in a destiny beyond this life and its great but inevitably transient satisfactions; faith that we are creatures capable of nobility and self-giving, not merely self-assertion and willfulness; faith that solidarity is possible amid plurality; faith that courage can overcome evil, some day," (First Things, May, 2023).

In a land of confusion, faith in Jesus Christ is still the best response. Because Jesus was not afraid to empty Himself for our sake, He gives us the courage to die to self-preservation and learn to live for others. Without faith, our courage is weak at best, and we tend to go with the crowd. "Increase our faith," – that was the Apostles' request of Jesus and He answered their prayer over and over again. May is a month characterized by deep devotion to the Mother of God because she had the greatest faith of all. Praying the Rosary every day is a way to become more like her: obedient, trusting, and unafraid to stand up for others. "Oh Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee!"

God bless you and your families with deeper faith, greater courage, and more joyful hearts!

Your friend in Christ,
Father Samuel Martin

May 7, 2023 - 5th Sunday of Easter. Gospel Meditation - Father John Muir

If you had to summarize the essential core of the Christian life, what would it be? Mercy, truth, or love, perhaps? The readings today suggest another word which may surprise you. That word is priesthood.

St. Peter says to us, "You are a 'chosen race, a royal priesthood...'" To be part of a priesthood is to offer a particular sacrifice in order for the community to survive and thrive. Jesus is the great high priest because he offers the one perfect sacrifice which heals and perfects the entire human race. Peter the Apostle wants us to know that all the baptized share in this priestly ministry. The whole of our lives, including every detail, is meant to become our acceptable offering to God.

The baptized exercise this priesthood in many ways, I'll mention three. At Sunday Mass, in private prayer, and in daily work. At Mass, we offer the sacrifice of our lives with that of the priest, who symbolizes Christ the Priest. In our prayer, a "morning offering" prayer is a great way to offer up all the joys and sufferings of the day to come. In our daily work, we sacrifice our time, comfort, money, and energy to do good for others. All this gives the deepest possible meaning to our lives: we share in the priesthood which saves the world. That's at the core of our faith.

Please consider becoming a mentor to help participants in a successful St. Vincent de Paul program called "Getting Ahead in a Just Getting-By World." This program helps individuals build their own personal plan to increase stability and get out of poverty. Participants meet weekly for a workshop over the course of 19 weeks, with a graduation event upon completion. The program helps participants examine their life now, learn about the change process, and develop their "Future Story." Mentors are a powerful part of this process. Those living in unstable environments need people in their lives who can support them through the very difficult changes necessary to build skills, change relationships, and connect with resources. Typically, Mentors meet with their mentees once a week for one hour. Mentors are not a 24/7 hotline, nor do they provide financial support. Training is available.

The Getting Ahead program is also seeking volunteers to prepare a home-cooked meal for our participants as they attend the weekly workshop. Please call 715-298-3028 option 3 or email gettingahead@svdpwausau.org for more information.

HOMEBOUNDED MINISTRY

If you or someone you know is indefinitely or temporarily unable to attend Mass and would like to receive Holy Communion, we can help. Volunteers will bring you Communion and pray with you. For more information, please call Angie at 715-436-0133. or Judy at the parish office 715-842-4543. All calls and information are kept confidential. Thank You.

Summerfun Raffle Tickets

Please pick up your Summerfun envelope at the entrances of church. They are in alphabetical order and have your name and address label on them. Inside is this year's information letter and tickets. If you would like additional tickets to sell, stop by the Parish Center or take an additional pack.

Please help us by taking any family members, neighbors or friends to them. This will help the committee from driving to your home and hand delivering them!

Home Town, Flip IT, Property Brothers. If you have ever wanted to be part of a house renovation, now is the time. We are starting the process of updating the 'Holy Name' house on 10th Avenue for future parish use.

The house needs a face lift! Most of the work is cosmetic and includes thorough cleaning, prepping for painting inside and out, light landscaping, porch repair, and so forth. We are looking for folks to Adopt a Room. Anyone can sponsor a bedroom (there are 6 in the house!) or another room. Adoption can include purchasing the paint for that room or painting it.

We don't have a budget for this project so we're relying on the generosity of our parish family.

Below gives you an idea of what we are looking for:

- Time – cleaning, patching, and prepping walls for painting, hauling away 'junk'
- Talent – painting inside and out, installing floor tile, repairing porch boards, installing 2 ceiling fans
- Treasure – if you are unable to physically help, donating to the purchase of needed items

We'll be putting a board in the back of the church with a picture of the Holy Name house along with sheets containing needed items or tasks that you can take off the board and volunteer for.

If you can help, please contact the parish office at 715-842-4543 or Betty Thompson at 925.216.2668. Betty will contact you to coordinate dates and times to get in the house and get started. Thank you for your prayerful consideration.

May is the Month of Mary

FORMED PICK OF THE WEEK

The 13th Day

In a world torn apart by persecution, war, and oppression, three children in Fatima were chosen by God to offer an urgent message of hope to the world. Based on the memoirs of the oldest seer, Lucia Santos, The 13th Day dramatizes the true story of three young shepherds who experienced six apparitions of Our Lady, which culminated in the final prophesied miracle on October 13.

Confirmation with Father Martin
Sunday, May 21st at 2:30 pm at Holy Name

Father Martin will be celebrating the Confirmation Mass and fully initiating the Candidates from Holy Name, St. Matthew, St. Agnes, St. Florian and St. Mark parishes. Please keep these teens in your prayers.

Wednesday, May 17th at 6:30 pm at Holy Name
 All candidates and sponsors must be present. If a sponsor cannot make it, one parent must come in their absence.

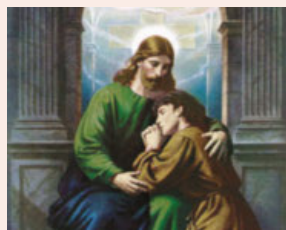

Eucharistic Revival - A Minute with Jesus

Confession - a preparation for receiving the Eucharist

The best way to prepare to receive Jesus in the Holy Eucharist is by going to Confession (also known as the Sacrament of Reconciliation, Penance). We want to receive Him with a clean heart. If it is not possible to go to Confession before receiving Jesus, make a sincere Act of Contrition in your heart, and as always pray with sincerity the prayer at Mass, "I confess to Almighty God..." A sin that is mortal - serious or grave - requires Sacramental Confession before receiving Holy Communion. If you are not sure about this, speak with a priest.

Let's pray this right now and every day this week: Jesus, please give me the grace to be truly sorry for my sins.

This week read how God calls us out of darkness into His own wonderful light in 1 Peter 2:9-10.
