THIS WEEK AT ST. PHILIP

Sunday: Unite- Bible Study 5pm, meeting 6pm
Tuesday: Legion of Mary 8:30am -St. Philip Rm.
Thursday: School Board 6:30pm– St. Philip Rm.

A note from Fr. Ryan.....

Thanks be to God, a basic rule of the spiritual life is that the Resurrection always follows the Cross. The Creed reflects this with its next statement – Jesus “suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.”

That’s a funny line, “in accordance with the Scriptures”! By the “Scriptures” the Fathers at Nicea meant the Old Testament. Where in the Old Testament can we find anything about the Resurrection of the God-man after death?

We have to read the Old Testament, especially the prophets, with the understanding that the authors were speaking of Christ without knowing Christ. The entire Bible points to Jesus, and in the Old Testament this is through prophecy. Look at Isaiah 53, Psalm 16, and the story of Jonah and the Whale to understand more about how the prophets point to Jesus.

Do you read your Bible every day? You should! It’s still early in the year, so this would be a good New Year’s resolution. Pick up your Bible, blow the dust off the cover, and start reading with the first chapter of the Gospel of Matthew. After you work your way through the New Testament, go back to the Old Testament. Once you’ve finished, you can start over again! Each time you read your Bible, you’ll gain new insight, have new questions, and deepen your relationship with God.

Fr. Ryan
