FROM THE DEACON'S DESK . . .

Mercy is defined as heartfelt sympathy for another's distress. Divine mercy is God's refusal to leave us in our fallen condition. Jesus enters the "locked doors" of our hearts, banishing fear and sin and saying, "Peace be with you." Today on this final day of the Octave of Easter we celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday. It is a day when the floodgates of God's mercy are opened wide and God pours out on us more mercy than we could ever hope for. Divine Mercy Sunday has been celebrated for years as a private devotion. But in the year 2000, Pope Saint John Paul II, put this feast on the Church's official calendar as he raised Sister Faustina to sainthood. Saint Faustina was a member of the Congregation of Sisters of Our Lady of Mercy in Krakow, Poland. She died in 1938. She came from a simple and poor family of farmers, had only three years of simple education and performed the humblest of tasks in her convent. But she also was a mystic who was privileged to have many private revelations from our Lord which she recorded in her diary of Divine Mercy.

As we celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday, we are asked to intensely reflect upon the abundance of this free gift that God wishes to pour forth upon each of us. There is no limit to how much we are loved by God. So, turn your eyes toward our merciful Lord and be open to all that He wishes to bestow on us.

Jesus I Trust in You!

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

Life is about to get very interesting for the disciples. Finding themselves questioning what happened to Jesus and whether he actually was raised from the dead, they are afraid and uncertain. In the midst of this fear, questioning, and uncertainty, Jesus decides to surprise them with a visit! This visit, complete with the gift of peace, fills the disciples with great excitement and joy. But their detailed testimony is not enough to convince their absent friend Thomas. He wants to see for himself. We struggle with belief as well. It is hard for some to give themselves over to the testimony of another. We want to see the resurrected Christ in person. God, through the gift of eyes of faith, gives us the ability to do precisely that: when we witness the healing that comes from forgiveness, the beauty that flows from love, the wonder of creation, the new life that comes after we fall, and the unique soul that lives behind each person's life. Christ is risen. Life will get very interesting for us too, when we stop unbelieving and believe!

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Central America's first saint, St. Pedro de San José Betancur (1626-1667) was born a poor shepherd in the Canary Islands. His family lands were seized because of debt, and he worked as an indentured servant until his early adult life when Pedro left his home to travel to Guatemala. His money for the journey ran out long before he arrived. He was destitute when he did arrive and was forced to join the bread line the Franciscan Friars had for the poor.

In 1655, he joined the Third Order of St Francis. Pedro began to serve the poor, the enslaved, immigrants, abandoned children, anyone that needed him. In 1658 he was given a hut which he made into a hospital for the poor. This small start grew into a shelter for the homeless, a school for the poor, an inn for priests, and several small chapels in poor areas. He was supported by many patrons and was joined in his work by both men and women, who became the Bethlehemite Brothers and the Bethlehemite Sisters.

Pedro prayed for the souls of those in purgatory, walked through the streets of rich neighborhoods ringing a bell and calling the wealthy to repent, and ministered to prisoners. Most accounts credit him with beginning the tradition of posadas, a procession in which people representing Mary and Joseph ask for lodging from their neighbors. This tradition continues today in Mexico and Central America. Because of his work with the poor and marginalized Pedro is often referred to as the "Saint Frances of the Americas". St. Pedro was canonized on July 30, 2002, in Guatemala City, Guatemala by Pope John Paul II.

FAITH FORMATION

The last class for the Faith Formation program for the year will be on Wednesday, April 27 at 6:00 p.m.. This will be a closing Mass for all grades. Children and parents should meet in the church and sit with their classes. I would like to take this opportunity to thank all the families who participated in the program. We still faced some challenges as we navigated coming out of COVID, but we managed to have a successful year. I would like to especially thank all the catechists for their dedication to the children and to the parish. Enjoy your summer, but please watch for the registration announcement for next year, which will come out in late July.

May God continue to bless each of you.
