A SEASON OF HOPE

A Prayer of Hope for the New Year!

Your hope dear God, transforms every aspect of our lives; anxiety and fear are diminished in the light of hope; doubt becomes confidence with the grace of hope.

Thank you God for the promise of hope to all who believe, and inspire us to give this gift of hope to others.

Wishing you hope and peace through the power of God's love.

CONVERSATIONS ON the Journey

This weekend we begin Ordinary Time on the Church's Liturgical Calendar. But I don't care much for the name. I think it is anything but ordinary.

The non-green times on the calendar are Seasons within the Liturgical Year. Advent, Christmas, Lent, Triduum, and Easter. These times are known by their season name.

The rest of the times on the calendar are not seasons, although they still contain Feasts and Solemnities.

The first week of Ordinary Time celebrates The Baptism of the Lord and next weekend we read of Jesus' first miracle and the beginning of his public ministry. The final Sunday in Ordinary Time is the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe.

The Sundays and weeks of Ordinary Time take us through the life of Christ. This is a time of conversion and of living the life of Christ.

Why is it called Ordinary Time?

I think the answer is a bit ordinary... English translators chose to present it as Ordinary Time, which has at its root the Latin word ordo, or in English, "order." In a sense this season takes its name from the ordinal numbers by which the Sundays are known (Second, Third, Fourth, etc. Sunday in Ordinary Time).

Ordinary Time blessings,

Deacon Tim

Please contact me, or the parish office by January 24th if interested! If no one comes forward, our parish (St. Mary, Hilbert) will no longer be involved in this event. Thank you! Sandy Schumacher

Thank You.

A huge thank you to the following people who helped in the Packer stand at Lambeau Field on Christmas Day. We are so blessed to have volunteers who gave up family time to help in this ongoing fundraiser. Our day was long and memorable but a great experience as we worked together to serve our fans. It also helped to have a Packer win!!
