CONVERSATIONS ON the Journey

Last weekend's homily spoke about the Catechism of the Catholic Church and how it is a Catholic's single and most reliable source for what we believe. The Catechism is available in different formats. Some of the differences are described below.

Catechism of the Catholic Church 2nd Revised

This is my first choice, if you want the complete Catechism that includes a glossary, thorough index, and an index of thousands of Scripture references.

United States Catholic Catechism for Adults

This edition is often used for adults in the RCIA program. It has been adapted for use in the United States and includes information on Saints at the beginning of each of the book's chapters.

YOUCAT: Youth Catechism of the Catholic Church and YOUCAT for Kids

These are good references for kids of any age. The YOUCAT has helped me understand things in simpler terms.

Catechism of the Catholic Church – "Complete and Updated"

This version is physically smaller, but does not include all the extras that the Catechism of the Catholic Church 2nd Revised version contains. So it is my last choice of the three non-youth versions.

Understanding the Catholic faith can help you understand your faith and the Bible better. It can also help you practice, share, and explain your faith more effectively. It's wisdom can draw you and others closer to Christ – our Tri-Parish Mission.

If there is interest, the Tri-Parish may offer a study that combines the study of the Catechism with the Bible.

God bless,

Deacon Tim

chapter 2

Come join the Chapter 2 ladies book club!

Come join Chapter 2, a group of Catholic women who meet once a month to inspire each other, pray together and have great informal discussions around a good spiritual read. All women of all ages are welcome to attend this fun group.

Starting Thursday, January 27th, we are reading and sharing the book The "R" Father. The Lord's Prayer is so familiar to us that we risk reciting it, not praying it. Popular Catholic speaker and author Mark Hart says that the Our Father is an invitation into a daily relationship with God and suggests 14 ways we can respond to Him in this prayer.

WHEN: Every 4th Thursday of each month

TIME: 6:30-8:00pm

WHERE: St. John Parish Center, next to St. John Church

COST: You can purchase the book from The Word Among Us Press, Amazon, or another on-line retailer. Or contact Donna to order the book for you. Softcover book approximately $4.00.

Questions? Contact Donna Krippner at donnakrippner@gmail.com or 920-203-8038

We would like to thank the following people for all of their help in the Packer stand on a very chilly night on Saturday, January 22nd. We are so blessed to have such hardworking volunteers who are willing to give of their time and talent. Our group worked so well together, which shows such true dedication to this fundraiser!!

A HUGE 'thank you' to all who donated their time and/or a coat for COATS FOR KIDS! Our Tri-Parish Communities stepped up and we were able to collect over 85 coats! Because of your generosity, the distribution to those in need by the Salvation Army of Chilton and Calumet County Human Services will continue.

Thank you and God bless you all.
