Like St Paul in the second reading, the good steward can say, "I do all that I do for the sake of the gospel in the hope of having a share in its blessings."

I, Stephen, renounce the devil and all his pomps, and offer myself to God the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, the one true God in three Persons.

Parish Prayer

Almighty God, my parish is composed of people like me. I help make it what it is. It will be friendly, if I am friendly. Its pews will be filled, if I help fill them. My parish will do great work, if I work with my parish. It will make generous gifts to many just causes, if I am a generous giver. It will welcome other people to our worship and fellowship, if I invite and welcome them. It will be a church of loyalty and love, of fearlessness and faith, and a church with a noble spirit, if I am filled with these same qualities. Therefore, with the help of God, I shall dedicate myself to the task of being all the things that I want my parish to be. Bless our journey together, Lord God. Amen!

Reflection on the Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Gospel: Mark 1:29-39

HE HELPED HER UP. THEN THE FEVER LEFT HER. Jesus visits the home of Simon and Andrew who have left everything to follow Jesus. Told that Simon's mother-in-law lies sick with a fever, He heals her. She immediately waits on them, attending to the needs of Jesus and His disciples. She thanks Jesus for the healing by using her recovered strength for renewed service.
Besides Simon's mother-in -law, Jesus cures people who are sick with various diseases and drive out many demons. At the beginning of His public ministry, Jesus announces the time of fulfillment, with God's kingdom now at hand (Mk 1:14-15). His miracles of healing and exorcism now validate His proclamation.
Jesus takes care of those whom we love. As we sacrifice our loved ones for God's service, as we give up our comfort so we can serve Jesus undividedly and dedicate ourselves to His mission, Jesus attends to our worries and concerns about our families.

What is the Bishop's Appeal?

The Bishop's Appeal is a stewardship opportunity for each of us to reach out to thousands of people in search of Jesus' love. Each gift given supports the ministries of the Diocese of Green Bay which serve our parishes, Catholic schools and communities. Your gift truly helps bring the heart and hands of Christ to our children, young adults, families and neighbors here in northeastern Wisconsin.
To make a gift today contact your parish, visit the Bishop's Appeal website at www.catholicfoundationgb.org/give, or call Tammy toll-free at 877-500-3580, ext. 8123.
