The Holy Family

After three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions, and all who heard him were astounded at his understanding and his answers. - Lk 2:46-47

The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph

The first reading today provides a challenging guideline for the good stewardship of our family relationships. How do I measure up?

Who shall resist Anti-Christ when he comes if we show such patience towards the vices and crimes of his precursors? By such leniency, we encourage kings to become tyrants and tempt them to withdraw every privilege and all jurisdiction from the Churches.

Thomas Becket (1118-1170) Martyr, Bishop

Parish Prayer

Almighty God, my parish is composed of people like me. I help make it what it is. It will be friendly, if I am friendly. Its pews will be filled, if I help fill them. My parish will do great work, if I work with my parish. It will make generous gifts to many just causes, if I am a generous giver. It will welcome other people to our worship and fellowship, if I invite and welcome them. It will be a church of loyalty and love, of fearlessness and faith, and a church with a noble spirit, if I am filled with these same qualities. Therefore, with the help of God, I shall dedicate myself to the task of being all the things that I want my parish to be. Bless our journey together, Lord God. Amen!

IN OUR PARISH COMMUNITY

When we think about the wisest people in our lives, we often think about those who have spent the most years on this earth. I think this is a very natural way of thinking. After all, the older you are, the more experiences you've had, and the more you've learned. Truly, those experiences are an irreplaceable source of wisdom.

I think sometimes, though, we often overlook the young people in our lives when we consider valuable wisdom. Our young people may have spent less years on this earth, but they have proved to be truly resilient, brave, and powerful. They have lived through times where societal norms are being questioned, challenged, and rebuilt. They have seen the world shut down and start back up again. The word "normal" means something entirely different to them. Perhaps, it means nothing at all.

When I stopped to read this week's gospel, I thought a lot about the young people in my life. I am a second year teacher, so I have quite a few of them! My primary job is to teach them, but it amazes me how much I can learn from them when I listen with open ears and a welcoming heart. Our young people have important things to say! They have questions to ask and dreams to construct.

This week's gospel sets a scene where young Jesus finds himself in a temple and spends days there, just listening and asking questions. I'm sure Mary and Joseph were unhappy about temporarily misplacing him, but Mary can see how her son holds a miraculous amount of wisdom. This is a beautiful reminder for ourselves with the children in our lives. We need to let them explore their souls. They need a safe place to question and ponder and discuss. We should encourage it! They are wiser than we might realize, and it's only going up from here.

Joyfully,
Amanda Pietroske

Please call the parish office if you or a family member from the parish are in the hospital or nursing home or a shut in at home.

Fr Christian will be leaving for vacation in India from January 3 through February 18th. There will be no weekday masses during that time. Deacon Mike will have a communion service every Friday at Holy Cross at 8am while Fr Christian is gone.

Through Baptism, new life in Christ Jesus will be shared with Nolan Thomas Dale Rahmlow son of Steven and Dana Rahmlow on Sunday January 2nd. May Nolan continue to grow in Jesus' love!
